What you need to do	 Please use your full name and ITIN on all correspondence with the IRS, including tax returns, tax payments and refund claims. Using an incorrect name or ITIN may cause processing delays or errors on your account. Please use your ITIN in place of a Social Security number (SSN) when one is requested on any federal tax document.
Important reminders	 Your ITIN is for federal tax purposes only. If you don't use your ITIN to file a tax return, your ITIN can be revoked. Having an ITIN doesn't change your immigration status, or make you eligible to work in the U.S. Your ITIN is not a Social Security number (SSN) and does not entitle you to Social Security benefits, or the Earned Income Tax Credit.
Next steps	 If you change your name Please send us a copy of this notice, along with supporting documentation about your name change, such as a marriage certificate or court record, so we can update our records. Send these documents to the address listed at the top of this notice. If you become a U.S. citizen or legal resident alien You can apply for a Social Security number (SSN) from the Social Security Administration. When you receive your SSN, please send us a copy of this notice, along with a copy of your Social Security card, so we can update our records. Send these documents to the address listed at the top of this notice.
