

NOTICE OF ELIGIBILITY AND RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES
(FAMILY AND MEDICAL LEAVE ACT)

OMB Control Number: 1215-0181
Form WH-381 November 2008

In general, to be eligible an employee must have worked for an employer for at least 12 months, have worked at least 1,250 hours in the 12 months preceding the leave, and work at a site with at least 50 employees within 75 miles. While use of this form by employers is optional, a fully completed Form WH-381 provides employees with the information required by 29 CFR 825.300(b), which must be provided within five business days of the employee notifying the employer of the need for FMLA leave. Part B provides employees with information regarding their rights and responsibilities for taking FMLA leave, as required by 29 CFR 825.300(b), (c).

PART A: Notice of Eligibility

To: _____(Employee)

From: _____(Employer Representative)

Date: _____

On _____, you informed us that you needed leave beginning on _____ and that you expect leave to continue until on or about _____:

- For the birth of a child or placement of a child with you for adoption or foster care;
- For your own serious health condition.
- Because you are needed to care for your spouse, child, parent due to his or her serious health condition.
- Because of a qualifying exigency arising out of the fact that your spouse son or daughter parent is on active duty or status in support of a contingency operation as a member of the National Guard or Reserves.
- Because you are the spouse son or daughter parent next of kin of a covered servicemember with a serious injury or illness.

This notice is to inform you that you:

- Are eligible for FMLA leave (See Part B below for Rights and Responsibilities)
- Are not eligible for FMLA leave, because (only one reason need be checked, although you may not be eligible for other reasons):
 - You have not met the FMLA's 12-month length of service requirement. As of the first date of requested leave, you will have worked approximately _____ months towards this requirement.
 - You have not met the FMLA's 1,250-hours-worked requirement.

- You do not work and/or report to a site with 50 or more employees within 75 miles.

If you have any questions, contact _____ or view the FMLA poster located in _____.

PART B: Rights and Responsibilities for Taking FMLA Leave

As explained in Part A, you meet the eligibility requirements for taking FMLA leave and still have FMLA leave available in the applicable 12-month period. However, in order for us to determine whether your absence qualifies as FMLA leave, you must return the following information to us by _____. (If certification is requested, employers must allow at least 15 calendar days from receipt of this notice; additional time may be required in some circumstances.) If sufficient information is not provided in a timely manner, your leave may be denied.

- Sufficient certification to support your request for FMLA leave. A certification form that sets forth the information necessary to support your request is is not enclosed.
- Sufficient documentation to establish the required relationship between you and your family member.
- Other information needed: _____

- No additional information requested.

If your leave does qualify as FMLA leave, you will have the following responsibilities while on FMLA leave (only checked blanks apply):

- Contact _____ at _____ to make arrangements to continue to make your share of the premium payments on your health insurance to maintain health benefits while you are on leave. You have a minimum 30-day grace period (or indicate longer period, if applicable) in which to make premium payments. If payment is not timely made, your group health insurance may be cancelled, provided we notify you in writing at least 15 days before the date that your health coverage will lapse, or, at our option, we pay your share of the premiums during FMLA leave, and recover these payments from you upon your return to work.
- You will be required to use your available paid sick, personal leaves other leave during your FMLA absence. This means that you will receive your paid leave and the leave will also be considered protected under FMLA leave and counted against your FMLA leave entitlement.
- Due to your status within the company, you are considered a "key employee" as defined in the FMLA. As a "key employee," restoration to employment may be denied following FMLA leave on the grounds that such restoration will cause substantial and grievous economic injury to us. We have have not determined that restoring you to employment at the conclusion of FMLA leave will cause substantial and grievous economic harm to us.

- While on leave you will be required to furnish us with periodic reports of your status and intent to return to work every _____.

If the circumstances of your leave change and you are able to return to work earlier than the date indicated, you will be required to notify us at least two workdays prior to the date you intend to report for work.

If your leave does qualify as FMLA leave you will have the following rights while on FMLA leave:

- You have a right under the FMLA for up to 12 weeks of unpaid leave in a 12-month period calculated as:
_____ the calendar year (January–December).
_____ a fixed leave year based on _____.
_____ the 12-month period measured forward from the date of your first FMLA leave usage.
_____ a “rolling” 12-month period measured backward from the date of any FMLA leave usage.
- You have a right under the FMLA for up to 26 weeks of unpaid leave in a single 12-month period to care for a covered servicemember with a serious injury or illness. This single 12-month period commenced on _____.
- Your health benefits must be maintained during any period of unpaid leave under the conditions as if you continued to work.
- You must be reinstated to the same or an equivalent job with the same pay, benefits, and terms and conditions of employment on your return from FMLA-protected leave. (If your leave extends beyond the end of your FMLA entitlement, you do not have return rights under FMLA.)
- If you do not return to work following FMLA leave for a reason other than 1) the continuation, recurrence, or onset of a serious health condition that would entitle you to FMLA leave; 2) the continuation, recurrence, or onset of a covered servicemember’s serious injury or illness which would entitle you to FMLA leave; or 3) other circumstances beyond your control, you may be required to reimburse us for our share of health insurance premiums paid on your behalf during your FMLA leave.
- If we have not informed you above that you must use accrued paid leave while taking your unpaid FMLA leave entitlement, you have the right to have sick, personal leave, and other leave run concurrently with your unpaid leave entitlement, provided you meet any applicable requirements of the leave policy. Applicable conditions related to the substitution of paid leave are referenced or set forth below. If you do not meet the requirements for taking paid leave, you remain entitled to take unpaid FMLA leave.
