

2014-2015 Dependent Verification Worksheet

Federal Student Aid Programs

Your FAFSA was selected for review in a process called “verification.” In this process, Keuka College will compare information from your application with your Federal tax return transcript, W-2 forms and/or other financial documents for yourself and your parent(s). Keuka College is required to collect this information before awarding federal aid. If there are differences between your application information and your financial documents, we may need to make corrections electronically to your FAFSA.
