

Head Coach - Lindsay Abbott

Coach's Bio:

Four-time All-American player Lindsay Abbott was named Buffalo State's head women's lacrosse coach following a national search and began her tenure on Aug. 1, 2014.

Abbott most recently served as an assistant coach at her alma mater Cortland, helping lead the Red Dragons to a 20-0 start and a No. 1 national ranking this past season. The previous year, Abbott was an assistant coach at Bates College in another of the nation's premier Division III women's lacrosse conferences, the NESCAC.

Abbott was Cortland's first-ever four-time All-American, earning first team honors as a junior and senior and was selected first team All-SUNYAC four times. She was named SUNYAC Player of the Year twice and earned ECAC Div. III Offensive Player of the Year honors two times. She also competed in two NCAA Division III final fours and coached in one.

Buffalo State

Mission Statement:

Buffalo State's intercollegiate athletics program endeavors to provide a quality and competitive intercollegiate athletics program consistent with the National Collegiate Athletics Association (NCAA) Division III philosophy and the overall educational mission of Buffalo State.

Intercollegiate athletics is sponsored as an educationally purposeful activity that focuses on the individual development of the student-athlete. It emphasizes the positive value of physical activity, learned skills, competition, good sportsmanship, and teamwork with a diverse population of student-athletes. The intercollegiate athletics program will strive to instill in all student-athletes the desire and ability to represent themselves, their team, the department and the college in a positive manner at all times. The intercollegiate athletics program is committed to the physical and emotional well-being of student-athletes and strives for multicultural diversity in the student-athlete population. In concert with the mission of Buffalo State, we are committed to the intellectual, personal and professional growth of our student-athletes, and we strive to foster citizenship, sportsmanship and conduct which brings credit to the image of Buffalo State.
