“Hi my name is Brad Miller, and I have been a big fan of www.MikeButler.com. Recently I signed up for the business credit building program on Mike’s recommendation. I have been pleasantly surprised with the high level of service since signing up. Not only have I received many business credit cards (still at 0%) but I can also bring to my processor other financial questions that I have which they are happy to advise me on. On the news I watch as “the markets” are ever changing- we are truly in uncharted territories! But when my processor contacts me – they are always up to speed on changes and new types of loans that are coming on the market (and how to qualify for them). Thanks Mike for a program that helps people receive low interest cash financing- when I didn’t think I qualify for any financing!!”

“Dear Mr. Butler: I have followed your work for some time now at MikeButler.com, and was introduced through your recommendation. Thank you. I have been a business owner for many years and have always found it difficult to gain funding at reasonable terms- especially in the last few months. As I have worked with Ari’s team, I have come to a better understanding of how to finance my small business needs with next to no finance charges! It is incredible the amount of knowledge this team collectively possesses, not to mention their ability to work with me in my unique situation. Thanks for helping me work on my business and not always in my business.”
