OPENING & INTRODUCTION

Dominick D'Altilio, ANJR President

SCHOOLS HAVE POTENTIAL

A visual presentation on implementing successful programs in Mansfield Township and Galloway Township

Issac Manning, Director of Recycling, OTC Of Burlington County

DYNAMIC TOOLS (WARM) TO CREATE BUZZ AND BETTER UNDERSTANDING

Using actual numbers from a NJ business and a municipality, we will show how to translate fuzzy and dull numbers (tons) into real (trees, cars removed from the road) numbers that show the environmental benefits of your programs.

Ron Vance, Program Analyst, Solid Waste Division, USEPA

NETWORKING BREAK

DOLLARS AND SENSE

Making your case for recycling in multi-dwelling facilities with good economics. Examples from New Brunswick and Salem County will walk you through the process.

James Morris, Associate Director, Rutgers, NJAES-OCPE

GOING GREEN

Companies are jumping on the green (sustainability) bandwagon – developing new products, working with customers, retooling plants and processes. How to create partnerships and work effectively and economically with businesses to support sustainability.

*Diane Mensinger, Vice President, SMC Solutions
Gerald Young, Consultant*

GREEN PURCHASING

The Rutgers Green Purchasing Program can help you purchase wisely and economically, and close the recycling loop.

Go Green, Buy Recycled!

Kevin Lyons, Director, Purchasing Department, Rutgers, The State University
