

Infant to Junior Transfer 2010 Religious Application

If you are applying to a Church of England Junior School, you may wish to make an application on religious or faith grounds. The two junior schools listed below take into account religion in their admission policy.

If you wish to apply on these grounds, you must complete this form and put a cross in the box against the school you are applying for and return it to the School Admissions Team.

When you complete the common application form, you need to ensure you have put a cross in the religion box on your application against the school you are applying for on religious grounds.

Please read the school's admissions policy as the governors of the school to which you are applying may require verification that you meet the faith criteria as set out in the admissions policy of the school.
