

INDIAN INSTITUTE OF JOURNALISM & NEW MEDIA

A PROJECT OF THE BS&G FOUNDATION

Admissions open from December 1.

Admission procedure consists of:

1. Completion and submission of application form
2. Online Entrance Test
3. Personal interview
4. Notification and acceptance of admission

Completion and submission of application form:

Completed application form must reach IIJNM by no later than June 10, 2016. Late applicants may submit completed form and supporting documents after this date, which may be considered for admission if vacancies are still available. The application will not be considered unless all answers are typewritten (or printed legibly), signed and dated. The applicant's full name must appear at the top right corner on each page of the application and supporting materials.

Alternately, applicants may fill an online application form available on the home page of www.iijnm.org.

Note: Early applicants may submit their applications prior to March 31, 2016 for consideration. We encourage submitting applications early to assure quick completion of the admission process to the limited number of seats (see Fees & Payments--www.iijnm.org/admissions-fees.html--for concession in fees given to early applicants). Those awaiting college examination results may be given conditional admission.

The following must be submitted to the Admissions Committee:

1. Completed application form.
2. Essay 1: Your reasons for wanting to pursue a career in journalism, and what you hope to achieve in this career (in not more than 250 words)
3. Essay 2: Your views on a recent event that received major national or international attention (in not more than 750 words)
4. Photocopy of official transcripts of academic records from undergraduate, graduate and/or professional institutions attended.
5. The Rs. 1,000 application-processing fee by bank draft or pay order (payable at Bangalore) and drawn in favour of "IIJNM Bangalore."
6. Supporting materials (if any) such as writing samples (published), record of achievements, etc.
