I. Announcements

The Eboard and RA Committee introduced themselves to the members, and included a brief description of their position.

II. Discussion

An overview of the semester was presented to the members, including meeting dates and locations, and event dates and locations.

Donut Day: January 27 & 28 – Paul & Nick

- Donut Day was a “welcome back” to the semester from Hall Council, it took place in the lobbies of each of the residence halls. Information cards and sign-up sheets were available at each location.
- There was positive feedback from the members in attendance. Most liked the idea, and those that attended the event communicated that they would like to see it happen again.

What’s Your Status: February 10 – Pati & Christine

- What’s Your Status will be a guest speaker in the lobby of Zachary Taylor. Dr. Georgianna Martin will present on diversity, privilege, and other related topics.
- Members were supportive of interactive aspects, and a Question & Answer session.

Residential Academic Success Banquet: March 4 – Taylor, Keiwine, & Krista

- Members were made aware that we will be hosting a banquet for freshman.

Life-Size Game Night: April 15 – Madison, JQ, & Krista

- Members were told about preliminary plans for the Life-Size Game Night and were very receptive and positive.
- Members communicated that they would like to have an inflatable, if it is possible.

III. Advisor Report

Residence Hall Delegates

- Members were told that we will soon begin the process of looking for a delegate from each hall to be a part of Hall Council.
- The delegate’s job would be to communicate with other residents in their hall and bring the ideas, needs, and concerns of the residents to the Hall Council Eboard.

Emerging Leaders Retreat

- Members were informed about the Emerging Leaders Retreat and were invited to attend on behalf of Hall Council.
- Members were told to pick up a registration form for the retreat from the Housing Office

Social Media

- Members were informed of Hall Council's new Facebook page, Instagram account, and E-mail address.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:53pm
