*The Pancreatic Cancer Action Network determines at its sole discretion what qualifies as budget-relieving in-kind donations. Budget-relieving donations include: printing, qualifying food, water, tent/table/chair rentals, timing chips and security. If budget-relieving in-kind donors desire additional sponsorship level benefits, the Pancreatic Cancer Action Network will provide a cash credit towards that sponsorship level at 100% of the fair market value of the goods donated. For purposes of the cash credit, fair market value will be established at the lowest purchase price available to the organization. Additional cash funding will be required to meet the sponsorship level of the desired benefits. The value of donated in-kind goods that are not budget-relieving may not be used to reduce the cash cost of sponsorship levels. Discounts on goods and services are not considered in-kind donations. The Pancreatic Cancer Action Network will provide an acknowledgment letter that describes, but does not value, the in-kind donation. As each donor's tax situation is different, we recommend you consult with a tax advisor to determine your tax relief.

LOGO SUBMISSION GUIDELINES FOR SPONSORS

Logos will be included on print material as well as on the event website according to signed sponsor agreements and logo submission due dates. Please see your signed sponsor agreement for details.

PLEASE FOLLOW THESE GUIDELINES WHEN SUBMITTING YOUR LOGO

**Please consult with your graphic designer if you are unsure of which logo file-type to submit*

- Logos may only be submitted as a vector-based format in one the following file-types:
  - Encapsulated PostScript (.eps)
  - Adobe Illustrator File (.ai)
  - PostScript (.ps)
- We cannot use a .pdf unless it is created from a vector program (please check with your designer).
- Convert all text to outlines.
- Images should not include gradients. T-shirts are printed in one color with no gradients.
- Submit both full-color and 1-color versions of your logo whenever possible.
- Provide Pantone color values if available.
- We cannot use images embedded in Word documents, JPGs, PNGs, GIFs, Rasterized Images, “Image Trace” converted files, or images pulled off the internet.

If you do not have a vector-based file, please talk with your graphic designer. Please do not try to create a vector-based file by converting your JPG logo to EPS, using “Image Trace” or pasting a JPG into an .eps or .ai document.

WHAT IS VECTOR-BASED?

A vector-based file allows us to scale the size of the logo for banners and brochures without any loss of quality. JPGs are compressed and become pixelated and blurry when enlarged. Since the size of your logo will be enlarged to 30” or wider, a JPG will just not be a viable option. A vector-based file allows us to convert the logo to a one-color version, if necessary, but retain the integrity of the design.

IN THE EVENT THAT WE CANNOT OBTAIN A LOGO IN A USABLE FORMAT IN A TIMELY FASHION, WE MAY SUBSTITUTE A TEXT LISTING OF THE COMPANY NAME.

NOTE: Logos in a square format work best on our publications and our website. Long horizontal logos may be shrunk to fit the allotted width. Similarly, tall vertical logos may be shrunk to fit the allotted height. If you have multiple versions of your logo, please submit the one closest to square. Logos displayed on the event’s website homepage will be resized to 100 pixels wide. If your logo does not display well at this size, we reserve the right to substitute a text version of your name in place of your company logo (as necessary).

LOGO AND NAMING GUIDELINES FOR FAMILY/INDIVIDUAL EVENT AND AFFILIATE SPONSORS

In addition to companies, organizations and foundations, individuals or families can sponsor an event or affiliate. When an individual or family would like to become an event sponsor, there are certain guidelines that must be followed in order to maintain the integrity of our events and the sponsor program.

PRESENTING AND AFFILIATE SPONSORSHIP

Because the Presenting Sponsor becomes incorporated into the event name and logo, we avoid using an individual's name in the sponsor acknowledgement and we only use the family name. We also do not allow "In Memory/In Honor of" designations for the Presenting Sponsor. This rule is to maintain the branding of PurpleStride as an inclusive, community event, not focused on one individual.

Scenario: Suzy Smith wants to be the Presenting Sponsor of PurpleStride Pleasantville 2013.

Correct: PurpleStride Pleasantville 2013 Presented by The Smith Family

Incorrect: PurpleStride Pleasantville 2013 Presented In Honor/Memory of Suzy Smith

Incorrect: PurpleStride Pleasantville 2013 Presented by Suzy Smith

GOLD, SILVER, FRIEND SPONSORSHIPS (SPONSORSHIPS THAT ARE NOT "PRESENTING")

Because these sponsorship categories aren't inextricably linked to the event brand and name, an individual or family sponsor in the above categories can be acknowledged by an individual name, family name or the "In Memory/In Honor of" designation.

Scenario: Channing Tatum is a big Pink Panther fan and wants to be the Gold Sponsor of PurpleStride Pleasantville 2013 in Memory of Henry Mancini.

Correct: PurpleStride Pleasantville 2013 Gold Sponsor Channing Tatum

Correct: PurpleStride Pleasantville 2013 Gold Sponsor The Tatum Family

Correct: PurpleStride Pleasantville 2013 Gold Sponsorship in Memory of Henry Mancini

**If a sponsor wants family/individual name acknowledgment in addition to the "In Memory/In Honor of" designation, they must pay for TWO sponsorships to earn that right. This doesn't apply to the Presenting Sponsorship, because the "In Memory/Honor" designation is not allowed for Presenting Sponsorships. For example, if Channing pays for two sponsorships, he can be acknowledged as Gold Sponsor Channing Tatum in Memory of Henry Mancini.*

LOGOS

Family/Individual sponsors at the Presenting, Gold and Silver level earn the benefit of having their logos featured on various PurpleStride properties. Since individual and family sponsors do not have established logos, they will receive a standard template text "logo" created by us to be consistent with the event branding. Individual or family sponsors are not allowed to create their own logos.
