President's Message:

April has come!

For most of us, past months have been hectic with Bach Festival and prep for CM and panel auditions. Both you and your students must have been working so hard for those events.

Here's a big THANK YOU! to Itoe Akimoto, Bach Festival Chair and Judy Jenkins, our CM chair and all the branch members (to many to individually mention!) who have spent time and efforts for all the participating students. The weather was not so kind to us on some performance days, but it is always amazing to see how well it is managed to be done, especially with CM with more than 1,000 students' evaluations.

Now many of students will go ahead to the next step. Contemporary Festival, Honor Recital, Senior Recital, Convention performances and your studio recitals. Thank you chairs of future events! All the best to your students!

Our Community Service Recital has one more recital for the season. Thank you, Angela Leu for conducting it. As requested before, please send any leads to increase more available venues for us then, the chance for students to participate in this recital will expand hopefully. Thank you, Anne Prestridge for organizing Honor Recital.

The showcase recital on APRIL 3 needs your help to send audience as it is happening at a large venue, Geneva Presbyterian Church's Sanctuary. Please use the flyer on Page 4 to advertise it in your studio, otherwise it may look very empty. Thank you, Ana de Vries, for chairing it.

During March, I have received many messages from members concerning Japan Earthquake. THANK YOU! As you have noticed, many musicians are quickly assembling benefit concerts. For musicians in the affected areas, it will tough to regain their lost instruments and strength to get back to music for a while. On page 11 has info of Prof. Kei Akagi (UCL: Jazz Piano)'s benefit concert, and on page 12, I have put the easiest way to send the fund to Japan Red Cross through Japanese Consulate in LA. So please help if you can.

April Branch meeting have another powerful presenter, Brian Chung, co-author of Improvisation at the Piano. Let's get together at the meeting, thank all the hard works by branch's leading members for recent events, gain more energy by meeting many friends all at once, and learn more about Improvisation!

Laguna Hills Community Center Heritage Room

CLASSICAL IMPROVISATION

BRIAN CHUNG, co-author of Improvisation at the Piano: A Systematic Approach for the Classically Trained Pianist

SESSION SUMMARY:

Those who wish to explore improvisation are often encouraged to study jazz. But is that really the best way to learn improvisation? Couldn't the classically trained pianist learn to improvise in the classical style? This session is for the classical musician. It will explain an enjoyable and systematic approach to improvisation built entirely upon the elements of traditional piano study.

DURING THE SESSION, LEARNING TO IMPROVISE WILL BE COMPARED TO THE PROCESS OF LEARNING TO TALK. TALKING BEGINS WITH THE DESIRE TO SAY SOMETHING PERSONAL AND MEANINGFUL. THIS IS THE HEART OF IMPROVISATION IN ANY FORM. NEXT, THE TALKING PROCESS MOVES FROM THE PRODUCTION OF SOUNDS TO BUILDING VOCABULARY, APPLYING GRAMMAR AND, EVENTUALLY, COMMUNICATING WITH EASE. ONE CAN LEARN TO IMPROVISE BY FOLLOWING THIS SAME SERIES OF PROGRESSIVE STEPS USING ONE'S EXISTING SKILLS AS A PIANIST.

Brian Chung has delivered various forms of this seminar at the 2007 MTNA Collaborative Conference (Toronto), World Piano Pedagogy Conference, 2008 MTNA National Conference (Denver), National Conference on Keyboard Pedagogy (Chicago), National Piano Teachers Institute (Dallas) and the 2009 MTNA National Conference (Atlanta).

Brian Chung is Senior Vice President of Kawai America Corporation. He is a two-term president of the Piano Manufacturers Association International, chair of the MTNA Foundation Fund Development Committee, a 2004 MTNA Foundation Fellow, and recipient of the 2010 MTNA Distinguished Service Award. He is also co-author of Improvisation at the Piano: A Systematic Approach for the Classically Trained Pianist (Alfred Publishing 2007), co-author of the Recreational Music Making Handbook for Piano Teachers (Alfred 2009) and author of Expressions of Faith: Eight Inventive Explorations of Classic Hymns for Solo Piano (Alfred 2008).

We made it again!

CM is finished for this year! (well, except for some paper work).

Thanks to Gloria Traulle and Katherine Martin, for making Strings and Voice successful as always.

A huge round of applause to Susan Parr, for the exquisite cuisine all those days! Great gratitude to Bob Caspers in Theory preparation, Marina Sakach checking repertoire, Pam Worcester setting up the college, Nancy Pirozzi assigning volunteers and all our Studio Hostesses. And certainly to all our teachers who worked at the various venues diligently and cheerfully. Your students benefit greatly from your commitment to CM.

The BBEs will be at Katy Dougherty's front porch by April 4, and also at the branch meeting.

Remember that the deadline for Convention performances applications is April 15 and must be done online.

And get your information for Branch Honors to Anne Prestridge NOW! You have received a Branch Honors form by email.

*For convention application: First go to your online page, click on CM Information, then Convention Recitals, and download or print the Parent Agreement Form, one copy for each student applicant. Ask parents to sign it and keep it in your possession. Also, there is a wealth of information in the menu just above that, all about Convention Recitals. Please read! Thanks!

Enjoy this beautiful spring!

Membership Update

The State Board is announcing a new policy which will now be in effect at the State Office regarding the listing of a Secondary Subject (following a members' name) in our MTAC State Directory. Since the past has allowed for considerable inconsistency in how members requested or applied for a Secondary Subject listing. Please note that this information applies only to Secondary Subjects, and not Secondary Instruments.

Beginning with the 2011-2-12 State Directory listings, the following policy will apply to all Secondary Subject listings:

1. The Secondary Subject must be documented by the MTAC member's transcript.

2. The Secondary Subject must be approved by the State Board. The preliminary Approved List is as follows:

Collaborative Artistry

Conducting, specific area as applicable

Composition

Improvisation

Jazz Theory

Music Education

Music History

Music Theory

Music Therapy

Musicology, with area of concentration defined

Music Pedagogy, with specific instrument defined

Film Scoring

Others, upon State Board recommendation

3. Additional Secondary Subjects may be added at the approval of the State Board, upon request from the applying member.

4. To receive approval, a Secondary Subject must be a teachable subject and also a subject by which a degree can be obtained.

5. Approval will no longer be given to music programs which cannot be shown on a transcript or which require a licensing or certification process to use.

All Secondary Subjects listed within our 2010-2011 MTAC State Directory which are similar to those on the above list, will be grandfathered and members will not be required to reapply under the new guidelines for their Secondary Subject listing. However, current listings which fall within the scope of #5 above, such as music programs by which the member receives a license or certification rather than a college or university transcript verification, will no longer be listed, beginning with the 2011-2012 MTAC State Directory. Two such examples, among others, are the Kodaly and Kindermusik programs.

Call Your Piano “Mechanic”

Thanks to all of you that asked your students call me before purchasing a piano. I have been pleased to help many of them find pianos that I believe will perform well for years to come. More than half of the pianos I check out, I recommend not to purchase! My $35 inspection fee has saved your students hundreds, not to mention the help I provide in doing the search.
