Baby Names

When my wife and I were expecting our first child, we found choosing a name to be quite challenging. A number of times she would ask excitedly "What do you think of this name?" only for me to admit that I didn't like her suggestion. After this happened several times she got pretty discouraged. Instead of continuing on like this, we each individually ranked a few hundred names and then had the computer combine our ranking data and sort the resulting list. Bingo! Although neither of us had thought of "Eli" previously, there it was at the top of the list, and we quickly came to agree that it was the one
