Independent Student (1516IV4)

Your 2015–2016 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The law says that before awarding federal student aid, we may ask you to confirm the information you reported on your FAFSA. To verify that you provided correct information, we will compare your FAFSA with the information on this institutional verification document and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. You and a parent whose information was reported on the FAFSA must complete and sign this institutional verification document, attach any required documents, and submit the form and other required documents to us. We may ask for additional information. If you have questions about verification, contact us as soon as possible so that your financial aid will not be delayed.

Independent Student's Family Information

Clarification is needed for the total number of people reported in your household for the 2015-16 aid year. How many people are in your household? Include:

- Yourself (and your spouse)
- Your children, if you will provide more than half of their support and you will continue to provide more than half of their support between July 1, 2015 and June 30, 2016.
- Other people if they now live with you and you provide more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2016.
 - o Include the people in your (and your spouse's) household who will be college students between July 1, 2015 and June 30, 2016. Always count yourself as a college student. Include others only if they will attend, at least half-time in 2015-16, in a program that leads to a college degree or certificate.
