

Section 5. Changes to Licensed Activities and Conditions

8. If you wish to add a licensed activity, remove a licensed activity or amend the category of a licensed activity please select the relevant cross boxes. Please do not use this form if you are seeking an additional licence eg if you hold a non-remote operating licence only and are intending to add remote activities (see Guidance Notes). Please note, you may require more than one type of licence and/or licence activity to fully licence all of your operations. Please read the descriptions of all licence types and licence activities and ensure that you apply for all required licences.

Please note, if you are adding a licensed activity you are required to provide updated policies and financial information. Please refer to the Guidance Notes for further details of the information we require.

Keeping gambling fair and safe for all

The Gambling Commission regulates gambling in the public interest. It does so by keeping crime out of gambling, by ensuring that gambling is conducted fairly and openly, and by protecting children and vulnerable people from being harmed or exploited by gambling. The Gambling Commission also provides independent advice to government on gambling in Great Britain.
