

Girl Scouts of Oregon & Southwest Washington will only consider complete and signed requests for assistance. If you are seeking assistance with membership dues, please submit this form with your completed Girl Scout membership registration.

General guidelines:

1. Financial assistance is available to girls and adults who are registered or registering to become members of Girl Scouts of Oregon and Southwest Washington.
2. No girl will be denied membership in Girl Scouting due to an inability to pay annual national membership dues.
3. GSOSW's financial assistance is limited to available funds, and preference is given to girl members. Requests are processed on a first come, first serve basis.
4. Girl and adult members may request assistance with annual national membership dues.
5. Girls may request assistance with uniforms one time per program/grade level. Uniform assistance is limited to one component (vest or sash), troop numbers, flag patch and council ID set.
6. On an annual basis, girls may request book assistance for 50 percent of the price of one program-related grade level book or activity set.
7. You may also choose to use Cookie/Nut Credits for any or all of girl membership dues, or uniform and book purchases.
