

New Jersey Association of Professional Mediators

40 Hour Divorce Mediation Training

Divorce mediation is rapidly becoming the preferred method for couples to get divorced. If you are an attorney, mental health or other professional and want to become a divorce mediator and receive training from New Jersey's premier association of professional mediators, you should take this course.

Program features

Multi-disciplinary faculty-The faculty is composed of attorneys, mental health professionals, CPA's and other professionals. This multi-disciplinary faculty will expose you to different mediation approaches and styles. You will be a better mediator by learning from this diverse faculty.

Small classes-Classes are limited to a maximum of 24 students. You will be able to better participate in the extensive role-plays and receive individualized attention from the faculty.

Low student-teacher ratio-There will be at least 3 faculty members at all times.

Method of instruction

Lecture-Learn from prominent mediators and other experts.

Faculty demonstration-Learn by watching experienced mediators.

Student role plays-Learn by doing.

Key elements

Substance-Parenting, child support, alimony, equitable distribution, and domestic violence are covered in detail.

Process-How a divorce mediation is conducted from the very beginning to the end. Receive all the documents, such as agreements to mediate, balance and expense spreadsheets, and Memorandums of Understanding on both paper and a CD so that you can customize the forms for your practice.

Technique-Learn what mediation is and what good mediation skills are. Learn various techniques to use during mediation and when to use them.
