2. That my marriage was not one of convenience as defined in section 2 of the Immigration Law

3. That (1) I am the current holder of a Residency and Employment Rights Certificate, granted to me as of _____ (Date dd/mm/yy) OR;
(2) I was married less than seven (7) years OR;
(3) I was refused Caymanian Status,

4. That my marriage was (1) stable and intact prior to my spouse's death and
(2) that there were no pending divorce proceedings, divorce petitions or separation petitions filed within the duration of the marriage;

5. That I was not living apart from my spouse under a (1) decree of a competent court;
(2) under a deed of separation;
(3) by mutual consent or agreement or any other reason whether voluntary or not;

6. That I have not lived apart from my spouse for an aggregate period longer than three (3) months for the duration of the marriage.

Warning: It is an offence under the Immigration Law for any person to make, cause or allow to be made any return, statement or representation which is false in a material particular and which he knows to be false or which he does not believe to be true. A person found guilty of this offence is liable on summary conviction in respect of a first offence, to a fine of $5,000.00 and to imprisonment for one year or, in respect of a second or subsequent offence, to a fine of ten thousand dollars and to imprisonment for two years.

By making an application for a Residency & Employment Rights Certificate, you agree to cooperate with the Chief Immigration Officer / Caymanian Status and Permanent Residency Board or its duly appointed agents by providing such information or documents as they may reasonably request in connection with your application.

If the Chief Immigration Officer / Caymanian Status and Permanent Residency Board has reasonable grounds to believe that any fact stated in any application for a Residency & Employment Rights Certificate (including any affidavit sworn in support of such application) is false in a material particular, the Chief Immigration Officer / Caymanian Status and Permanent Residency Board or its duly appointed agents may conduct a full investigation in such manner as it deems fit.

I declare that I understand and accept the Warning given above.
