

Sublet checklist

1. Advertise early in as many ways possible.
 - ❑ Off campus housing office in the S.A.B
 - ❑ U of M Website-offcampus.housing.umich.edu
 - ❑ Flyers around campus/Dorm areas
 - ❑ Ad placed in Michigan Daily sublet section
2. Negotiate all terms with your roommates and subtenants prior to signing the sublease agreement.
3. Have subtenants fill out applications.
4. Make arrangements with Prime if you want credit checks performed on your subtenants for an additional $35.00 fee.
 - ❖ Note that Prime is not responsible for the evaluation of your subtenant, only that the proper paperwork is accurately filled out and submitted.
5. Have all residents on the lease and all subtenants sign the sublease agreement. Turn in all paperwork to Prime's office for approval.
6. Make arrangement with the subtenants for key transfer (Prime Student Housing does not provide keys to your subtenants)
7. Make copies of sublease and applications for you and your subtenants.
8. Arrange for utilities to be transferred, if necessary. The Electric must stay on in your name or your subtenants until lease has expired. Any electric bills received during the lease term will be billed to your account. You should check to make sure the electric bill is being billed to the right party, you could be stuck with a large electric bill on your apartment account at the end of the lease if you assume your subtenants kept it on in their names. It would be good to check on this and your account with Prime Student Housing during the summer months.

9. Pass along all relevant information to your subtenants. Most of all give them a copy of your lease and Resident Handbook. Make sure they know the policies of the building and the Company.

10. Make arrangements to verify the condition of your apartment after subtenants move out. Many residents assume that when they leave the apartment and their subtenants move in that they are through with the apartment and all damages will be charged to the subtenants. This is not the case. You are responsible for that apartment until it is vacated and given back to Prime Student Housing. If your subtenants do not clean up the apartment, should leave owing money, cause damage to the apartment, leave personal belongings in the apartment, etc. these charges will be taken from your security deposit. We strongly recommend that you or someone you know check your apartment out on move out day and make sure the apartment and all keys and parking passes are returned to Prime Student Housing.

11. There is a $35 processing fee for each sub lease agreement processed. Determine who is going to pay this fee.

Subletting Tips

Many of our residents sublet their apartments each year with no problems. However, for someone who has never gone through the process, it can be very confusing. We've put together this packet for you and your roommates to help you have a problem-free subletting experience.

The most important thing for you to remember is that you are still renting from Prime Student Housing, Inc. until your lease expires, and your subtenants will be renting from you, not Prime Student Housing, Inc.

Everything must be decided between you and your subtenants. If after reviewing this information you still have questions concerning subletting procedures, please contact our office. Please keep this information for future reference.

Finding Subtenants

We recommend that you pursue as many other avenues as possible. The Michigan Daily publishes a special sublet edition in the spring (March) in which you can place an ad. The Off-Campus Housing Office located in the Student Activities Building has listings of those wanting to sublet as well as a website. Create your own flyers and post them around the campus area, explaining why someone should sublet your apartment. Lastly, talk to your friends – maybe they or someone they know will be staying for the summer.

One thing to keep in mind is to find someone your group feels they can trust. Even if it's not someone you know, you should feel comfortable with the situation. Lastly, remember that per your sublease agreement, you may not sublet to more people than originally on the lease.

Negotiating the Agreement

Once you have found subtenants, you, your roommates and your subtenants need to come up with terms that everyone will agree to. You may not find someone to pay 100% of your rent, 50% - 80% is considered the norm. It is important that everybody remain flexible while discussing details. Below is a list of topics you may want to consider. Please keep in mind these are general. Your particular situation may include additional topics not listed below.

- ❖ Rent: Discuss what the monthly installments will be, as well as how many installments they will pay. Also, decide how rent will be paid – to you or directly to Prime Student Housing, Inc. Remember rent must be paid in one check to avoid a $10.00 per check processing fee, and this includes sublet payments. Be certain your subtenants are clear about where they will be paying rent and to whom their checks will be made payable. (Checks coming to Prime must always be payable to the building and apartment #. Subtenants should write “subtenant” in the memo portion.)

If your subtenants are paying their rent to you, you may wish to have them pay you a few days early so you can pay on time to avoid charges. If your subtenant is paying directly to Prime Student Housing, Inc., you should check with our accounting department periodically to be sure the payments are current.

- ❖ Security Deposit: We recommend that you charge your subtenants a security deposit. You may charge up to 1-1/2 times the subtenant’s monthly rental payments. You will be charged for all damages above normal wear and tear, regardless of who caused the damages. Therefore, we suggest you have your subtenants move out at least a day before your lease ends so someone from your group can check your apartment and be sure it is left in good condition. Be sure to get an address to return your subtenant’s security deposit.

If you take a security deposit from your subtenants, you are required by law to use an inventory checklist to determine damages. We suggest you and your subtenants fill out both the arrival and departure sections together so there will be no misunderstandings.

- ❖ Move In and Move Out Dates: The ending date of your sublease agreement must be on or before the ending date of your original lease.
- ❖ Parking: If you are including your parking permit, you must indicate that on the sublease agreement. It is your responsibility to inform your subtenants of all parking regulations and provide them with a parking diagram located in your Resident Handbook.
- ❖ Utilities: Determine how utility bills will be handled – transferring the names, opening new accounts, etc. You are still responsible for the utilities on your apartment until your lease ends.
- ❖ Furniture: The furniture request form signed with your original lease is in effect for the entire duration of your lease. Therefore, Prime will be unable to make any furniture changes during your subtenant’s stay. Please advise your subtenants as to the furniture situation in the apartment so there will be no misunderstandings.
- ❖ Prime Student Housing, Inc. Policies: You are responsible for informing your subtenants about all of our policies and the terms of your lease. You should provide them with all of the information contained in your Resident Handbook, for example, what to do when they need maintenance, what our late fees are, etc. Make sure they know we do not allow any pets.

Paperwork

Included with this packet are a sublease agreement and an Inventory checklist. You will need applications for each of your subtenants. These forms do not have to be filled out in our office. Incomplete forms will not be accepted. If you have questions not answered in this packet, please contact our office

- ❑ Applications: Every subtenant must complete an application. This is in your best interest as well – that way you will have some information about your subtenants. You may arrange to have credit checks done through our office, at your expense.

 - ❑ Sublease: You and your roommates must completely and correctly fill out the sublease agreement. Be sure the sublease does not extend past 3:00 p.m. on the date your lease with Prime ends. (Again, we do recommend that you verify the condition of your apartment before returning the forms to Prime Student Housing, Inc.) Once it is filled out, the sublease agreement must be signed on both pages by all of the residents on your lease and by all of the subtenants. Every resident must include a phone number where he or she can be reached during the terms of the sublease, as it is essential that you and your subtenants know how to get in touch with each other. We will not accept any incomplete forms – it is your responsibility to get the appropriate signatures, even from out of town roommates. There are no exceptions to this policy, so plan ahead if someone is leaving town. Bring the completed forms to Prime Student Housing, Inc. for processing. If you or your subtenants need copies of the sublease agreement, you should make the necessary copies prior to returning the paperwork for processing. All sublease agreements must be approved and signed by our office. When approved, the original will be kept in your apartment file at Prime Student Housing, Inc.

 - ❑ Keys: Prime will not be able to hold keys in the office for subtenants, nor are we able to issue extra sets of keys. Therefore, it is your responsibility to make arrangements with your subtenants prior to their move in day regarding transferring the keys, parking permits, etc.

 - ❑ Special Reminder Concerning Utilities: You are responsible for all utility bills until your lease ends. You are responsible for seeing that these bills are turned off in your name by the end date of your lease. If you transfer the bill to your subtenants, please be sure there are no days of service left unaccounted for. Any day's left unaccounted for will be deducted from your security deposit. (Ex: If your subtenants move out, the bill must be in either your name or your subtenant's name through the end date of your lease.) To transfer or disconnect phone, cable, and electric service, contact the utility companies directly.

Filling Out the Sublease Agreement

Introductory Section: Fill in the date the sublease agreement is signed. Names of all residents on original lease on first line, names of all subtenants on second line.

Section 1. Fill in building and apartment number. You must indicate how many, if any, parking permits are included.

Section 2. Fill in date's sublease begins and ends.

Section 3. Fill in total amount of rent to be paid during the sublease terms, number of payments, and amount of payments. Example: if your subtenant is renting your apartment for $300.00 per month for four months, the total rent is $1200.00, in 4 installments of $300.00. (Note: if you are charging a security deposit, do not include that amount in the total rent. This section is for rent only.)

Fill in to whom the subtenant's rent checks should be made payable, to which the subtenant's rent checks will be sent and the address where the checks will be sent. Examples: If you are having your subtenant pay Prime directly, the check will be payable to your building and apartment, remitted to Prime Student Housing, Inc. at 610 Church St. Ann Arbor, MI. If your subtenant will be paying rent to you, it should be payable to your name, remitted to you, at the address where you will be during the terms of the sublease. Remember: there is a $10.00 per check processing fee if rent is paid with more than one check. Also, if your subtenants will be paying Prime rather than you or your roommates, we suggest you contact our office periodically to check that your account is up to date.

Section 4. Fill in amount of the security deposit, if any.

Section 6. Fill in the date you signed your original lease with Prime Student Housing, not the date your sublease is starting.

REMEMBER: ALL CURRENT TENANTS AND FUTURE SUBTENANTS MUST SIGN THE SUBLEASE AGREEMENT BEFORE BEING SUBMITTED TO PRIME.

For further information, please refer to the subletting information packet, or contact our office.
