

SMT Travel Grant Form

Fill out this form and either save as a .pdf or print out and scan. Send completed form, along with a short (one- or two-page) CV to Victoria Long at vlong@uchicago.edu.

Name:
Address:
State/Province:	Zip/Postal Code:
Country:	Citizenship:
Email address	Phone:

Academic role: student* faculty neither academic affiliation (if any):

*Students: Please ask a faculty member familiar with your work to write a letter supporting your application; they should email this letter to Victoria Long at vlong@uchicago.edu.

Estimated expenses: airplane: ground transportation: lodging: food:

Purpose(s) for attending conference: Presenting a paper Participating in an SMT Workshop Presenting a paper at an Interest Group session Attending sessions/networking Interviewing for a job

Statement: Enter a clear statement of your research interests and their relation both to conference participation and the field of music theory in general, as well as any other information that you feel might help us determine your suitability for a Travel Grant (max. 2000 characters).

Other funding sources: Did you apply for other funding through another source? If so, please provide details, including the funding source(s) and amount(s):

Which grant(s) are you applying for? Minority Travel Grant International Travel Grant Independent/Unsports/Undersupported Scholar Grant

If you are applying for a Minority Travel Grant, what is your ethnicity?

If you are applying for a Minority Travel Grant, please attest that you qualify by checking the following box:

I verify that I belong to a non-Caucasian ethnic group. Furthermore, I am a US or Canadian citizen, or I reside in the US or Canada.

If you are applying for a International Travel Grant, please attest that you qualify by checking the following box:

I verify that I am a non-US or non-Canadian citizen who resides outside of the US and Canada.