

GFE & HUD-1: Current Issues, Current Challenges

WEBINAR OR ON-DEMAND WEB LINK (LINK INCLUDES FREE CD ROM)

Tuesday, June 25, 2013 • 3:00 pm – 4:30 pm Eastern

The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB) has tentatively scheduled the integrated Early TIL/GFE and Final TIL/HUD for release in September 2013. Unfortunately, the result of this delay means that financial institutions will have to live with the current Good Faith Estimate and HUD-1 disclosures for longer than originally anticipated. From the time of issuance, you will have to wait a number of months for appropriate programming, meaning that the industry will have to continue the struggle with the existing forms well into 2014. This webinar is designed to address the current issues that continue to challenge all of us.

HIGHLIGHTS

- The rules for the current forms
- “Hot button” regulator issues regarding the GFE and HUD-1
- Results of reviews and common issues
- Form areas that pose the biggest risks for reimbursements
- Review techniques that will be effective for the current forms

Attendance verification for CE credits provided upon request.
