Important Notices

Claims-Made Insurance

This policy, issued by AIG Australia Limited, contains coverage on a claims-made and notified basis. This means that the policy only covers Claims (as defined) first made against you after the Inception Date (as defined) and notified to the insurer as soon as practicable after you first became aware of such Claim. The policy does not provide cover for any Claims made against you after the Inception Date if at any time prior to the Inception Date you became aware of facts which might give rise to those Claims being made against you.

This policy does not cover Claims arising out of, based upon or attributable to:

- a) the facts alleged, or the same or related Wrongful Acts (as defined) alleged or contained in any Claim which has been or could have been reported, or circumstances of which notice has been given or could have been given under (i) any policy of which this policy is a renewal or replacement or which it may succeed in time; or (ii) any other management liability policy; or
- b) any pending or prior litigation as of the Continuity Date, or alleging or derived from the same or essentially the same facts as alleged in the pending or prior litigation. For the purposes of this exclusion, the term 'litigation' shall include, but not be limited to, any civil or criminal proceeding as well as any administrative or regulatory proceeding or official investigation or arbitration or adjudication.

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract, you have a duty to tell us anything that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, may affect our decision to insure you and on what terms.

You have this duty until we agree to insure you.

You have the same duty before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate an insurance contract.

You do not need to tell us anything that:

- reduces the risk we insure you for; or
- is common knowledge; or
- we know or should know as an insurer; or
- we waive your duty to tell us about.

If you do not tell us something

Subject to any Non-Avoidance or any Cancellation Provisions that may be provided in any Policy purchased:

If you do not tell us anything you are required to, we may cancel your contract or reduce the amount we will pay you if you make a claim, or both.

If your failure to tell us is fraudulent, we may refuse to pay a claim and treat the contract as if it never existed.

Subrogation

This policy contains provisions which have the effect of excluding or limiting the insurer's liability in respect of a loss where you have prejudiced the insurer's rights of subrogation where you are a party to an agreement which excludes or limits insurer's rights to recover the loss from another party. You are hereby notified of the effect of these provisions.

General

Please read this proposal and the policy carefully. A reference to "Company" in the proposal means the Principal Entity and all of its Subsidiaries. The terms "Subsidiary", "Director or Officer", "Outside Entity" and "Claim" have the definitions attributed to them in the policy.

Privacy Notice

This notice sets out how AIG Australia Limited (AIG) collects, uses and discloses personal information about:

- you, if an individual; and
- other individuals you provide information about.

Further information about our Privacy Policy is available at www.aig.com.au or by contacting us at australia.privacy.manager@aig.com or on 1300 030 886.

How we collect your personal information

AIG usually collects personal information from you or your agents.

AIG may also collect personal information from:

- Our agents and service providers;
- other insurers;
- people who are involved in a claim or assist us in investigating or processing claims, including third parties claiming under your policy, witnesses and medical practitioners;
- third parties who may be arranging insurance cover for a group that you are a part of;
- providers of marketing lists and industry databases; and
- publically available sources.

Why we collect your personal information

AIG collects information necessary to:

- underwrite and administer your insurance cover;
- maintain and improve customer service; and
- advise you of our and other products and services that may interest you.

You have a legal obligation under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 to disclose certain information. Failure to disclose information required may result in AIG declining cover, cancelling your insurance cover or reducing the level of cover, or declining claims.

To whom we disclose your personal information

In the course of underwriting and administering your policy we may disclose your information to:

- entities to which AIG is related, reinsurers, contractors or third party providers providing services related to the administration of your policy;
- banks and financial institutions for policy payments;
- assessors, third party administrators, emergency providers, retailers, medical providers, travel carriers, in the event of a claim;
- other entities to enable them to offer their products or services to you; and
- government, law enforcement, dispute resolution, statutory or regulatory bodies, or as required by law.

AIG is likely to disclose information to some of these entities located overseas, including in the following countries: United States of America, United Kingdom, Singapore, Malaysia, the Philippines, India, Hong Kong, New Zealand as well as any country in which you have a claim and such other countries as may be notified in our Privacy Policy from time to time.

You may request not to receive direct marketing communications from AIG.

Access to your personal information

Our Privacy Policy contains information about how you may access and seek correction of personal information we hold about you. In summary, you may gain access to your personal information by submitting a written request to AIG.

In some circumstances permitted under the Privacy Act 1988, AIG may not permit access to your personal information. Circumstances where access may be denied include where it would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of other individuals, or where it would be unlawful.

Complaints

Our Privacy Policy also contains information about how you may complain about a breach of the applicable privacy principles and how we will deal with such a complaint.

Consent

If applicable, your application includes a consent that you and any other individuals you provide information about consent to the collection, use and disclosure of personal information as set out in this notice.
