The goal of HOOPS4LIFE, a program of New Opportunities, Inc., is to provide student-athletes with life skills and athletic opportunities.

To all program participants, HOOPS4LIFE instills:

Integrity: In all aspects of behavior. The highest sense of integrity shall characterize every aspect of policy, performance and programs.

Leadership: Leadership in individual and team achievements, an intense pride and loyalty and a commitment to "give back" to the community.

HOOPS4LIFE believes in giving student athletes a firm foundation in many individual skills required to be a strong basketball player. Equally important, our staff of volunteer coaches and certified officials teach players to use these skills effectively as a team.

The HOOPS4LIFE program emphasizes teamwork and the building of fundamental skills and character development. Parents have a significant role in the HOOPS4LIFE program. We encourage open communication between parents, director, and coaches, to help ensure that any concerns they may have about their child are appropriately addressed.

Through HOOPS4LIFE we hope to achieve our dream of providing healthy, safe and challenging activities to area youth that will help guide them toward their fullest potential as athletes and as valued citizens of our communities. We want our athletes to enjoy the experience, learn how to be cooperative members of a team and be better people for having been involved in our program.

Over 250 boys and girls participated in 2011 and we hope to increase our enrollment again this year .

Registration of teams and players is from May until the start of the program. Teams and Players of ALL levels are encouraged to join.

We hope to provide a more competitive fundamental league that will allow the players to develop and increase their skills while participating in a structured program.

The players will also have a chance to work in the community and receive life-skills necessary to succeed. This attention to all aspects of the player will hopefully result in a positive and enjoyable basketball experience for all involved.
