This form is provided to register a complaint about a school district facility, program, employee, policy, or action. Before initiating a Parent / Guardian Form, the complainant should discuss the complaint with the principal, teacher or other staff person who has responsibility for the subject of the complaint. Parent / Guardian Complaint Forms which are not submitted within ten (10) school days of the initial report of the problem will be disregarded.

Principal or other person who discussed the problem:

_____ Date _____

Action in response to discussion _____

State your complaint _____

Signature of complainant _____

Date received by principal or other staff person _____

The principal or other staff person will respond in writing on this Complaint Form and return it to the complainant within ten (10) school days.

Principal's or other staff person's response _____

Principal's or other staff person's signature _____ Date _____

Mark Holzman, 504 Coordinator

Patrick Flaherty, Title IX Coordinator

If the complainant is not satisfied with the response, the complainant may contact the Superintendent of Schools within fifteen (15) school days of the response.

If the complaint is not satisfactorily resolved with the Superintendent of Schools, the complainant may request the Superintendent to arrange a meeting with the appropriate committee of the Board of Education.
