

Independent Reading Log #3
Characterization

Name _____
Date _____ Period _____

In this log, you will demonstrate in fully developed, complete sentences understanding of one major character and how the author presents him.

Title _____

Author _____

One main character is _____

This is a main character because _____

Two important examples of this character's dialogue (his or her spoken words) which best reveal his or her personality are:

1a. (quote – pg. _____) _____

1b. This is significant to his personality because

2a. (quote-pg. _____) _____

2b. This is significant because to his personality because

(turn sheet over to complete)

Describe a personal change this major character undergoes and explain why it occurs. _____

How do you feel about this character? Why? _____

What do you think you would do in this character's situation?

- _____ 1. A main character is identified and his significance is explained.
- _____ 2. Two significant quotes are chosen to illustrate this character.
- _____ 3. The significance of the quotes is completely explained.
- _____ 4. A change this character goes through is identified and fully explained.
- _____ 5. Feelings about the character are provided.