APPLICATION CHECKLIST AND INSTRUCTIONS

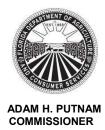

Please review the following, and check off items appropriate to your operation. Items not appropriate should be marked "N/A." Failure to submit all of the required information will delay processing of your application.

Prior to any repair or attempted repair, motor vehicle repair shops must submit all of the following that apply (these items must be submitted with the registration application, and when any changes occur):

1.	Is the application form filled out completely? (must include authorized signature)
2.	Is the correct registration fee enclosed? (see pages 3 and 4)
3.	Did you attach a copy of your estimate and invoice form(s) to the registration application? A sample estimate and invoice form is available at www.800helpfla.com/mvr_business.html.
4.	If you have additional locations, you must submit a separate application for each location.

Once your completed application has been approved, the department will issue you a two (2) year registration to operate as a motor vehicle repair shop. You will be notified by the department when it is time to renew your registration.
