Friends of Library need homes for the 2015 Christmas Homes Tour
We are looking for people to decorate their homes for Christmas and allow the Friends group to schedule in our tour. We have two homes scheduled, but we need at least three more stops for the tour. We will be featuring the museum decorated in a sports theme as our final activity for Hometown Teams, the Netherfield Bed & Breakfast is scheduled to be on the tour. So if you’d like to share your beautiful home, we’d appreciate it, because the funds raised helps Summer Reading!

Why Read? What Good Does it Do?

That is a question that many people ask, especially children who don’t like to read, or find reading hard. They don’t realize that reading is the foundation for just about anything, if not everything, that we do in life. For that reason, the Library is constantly looking for plans, programs or initiatives that promote reading for children. We firmly believe that early childhood literacy is the key to success for every child. That’s why we have 6 by 6 activities, preschool story times, and 1 K by K, as well as supporting Parents as Teachers and offering a large collection of early readers, and books to help parents help their children. So when I saw the advertisements for the “Read Aloud 15 Minutes” program and read more about it, I realized that this was another program that I could introduce to parents in our area. I read through their literature and felt that they were promoting the same principles that we were, so it was a good fit. I signed the library up to be a partner, so you will see me promoting the “Read Aloud 15 Minutes” program as part of our preschool initiatives. Just 15 minutes of read aloud time each day will have a profound impact on our children. There are no records to keep, no prizes to win, just read, enjoy and help your child gain the necessary skills to be a successful reader in school. Read to

WHY READ ALOUD?

- LANGUAGE DEVELOPMENT: The number of words that a child knows in entering kindergarten is a key predictor of his or her future success.
- INSTRILL A LOVE OF READING: Your reading, responsiveness and reading to children instill a love of reading.
- KNOWLEDGE GAINED & SHARED: Books are a pleasure, yes, and they are also information. You and your child can learn something new by reading aloud.
- LITERACY SKILL BUILDING: Vocabulary, Phonics, Fluency with the printed word, Storytelling, Comprehension, Reading about books, literacy skills.
- BRAIN DEVELOPMENT: From birth to age 8 are critical years in the development of language skills.
- BONDING: Is anything better than sharing a good book?

Does Reading Aloud Really Matter? YES!

Only 48% of young children in this country are read to each day.

your older children too, it’s good for them to listen to others read and expand their vocabularies also. READING ALOUD IS A KEY!

Coming Monday, Oct. 19th from 4 to 5:30, join us as we “plant” the love of reading, by participating in the annual Read for the Record event. Children ages 3-11 are invited to attend as we read aloud. “Not Norman, a Goldfish Story”, do crafts, games, and have a healthy snack. Looking for volunteers to help read and make crafts that afternoon.

Vaudeville on the Diamond: Minor League Baseball in Today’s Entertainment World

DATE: MONDAY, OCTOBER 19TH
TIME: 6:00 PM
PLACE: SWAN ROOM— LA CYGNE LIBRARY
REFRESHMENTS FOLLOWING—PART OF OUR HOMETOWN TEAMS PROGRAM!

Attendance at a minor league baseball game provides more than the players and their sport. On and off the field, baseball fans are entertained by quirky events like the dizzy bat competition, mascot races, Star Wars theme nights, and even monkeys riding border collies. These multifaceted forms of entertainment transcend the game itself and harken back to the vaudeville shows of yesteryear.

This presentation explores the fun and wacky ways minor league baseball continues to grow its audience in an era of sophisticated sports and entertainment options.

Presented by David Sutera.

Nov. 8, 2015 (Noon to 4:30 PM) – LIBRARY'S 7TH Annual Small Business/Home Business EXPO to benefit the local food pantry

If you have a small business and would like to participate this year, we will be sitting up in the Community Building once more. We will be open from noon to 4:30. Cost for vendors to set up will be a door prize and a plate of refreshments. Cost for those to attend is canned goods or non-perishable goods. Call now if you want us to reserve a booth for you. I ALREADY HAVE 8 BOOTHS SPOKEN FOR THIS YEAR (Jessica Spears—Unique Hair Bows; Tracy Rhynerson—Skin by Nature; Heather Schull—31 Bags; Rose Reynolds—crafts; Ruth Reynolds—photo projects; Brenda Anderson—Tupperware; Retia Grant—Heavenly Hotdogs Catering; Cathy Stainbrook—Jamerry Nails)

We are inviting you as a vendor to set up a table to sell your products during that time. You may set up Sunday morning between 9 and noon as we will be using the COMMUNITY BUILDING AGAIN THIS YEAR. Best news there is no charge to set up a table (we even provide a 5 foot table you can use). A vendor list will go out in our November newsletter, so I need confirmation if you plan to attend this year as soon as possible if you want your name/product included in the newsletter sent to all 66040 residents. Please return this portion of the newsletter or call the library to reserve your spot in the 6th annual library expo.

READ FOR THE RECORD—OCT 19—4:00-5:30

Join us for the 10th anniversary of Jumpstart's Read for the Record®, a global campaign that generates public support for high-quality early learning and highlights the importance of building children's vocabulary and love for reading. This year's campaign book, Not Norman: A Goldfish Story, written by Kelly Bennett and illustrated by Noah Z. Jones, is a humorous tale about a child who finds a new friend in an unexpected place. With vivid illustrations and expressive language, the story is sure to engage children and adults of all ages. Open to children ages 3-11. Children under 5 need an adult helper. We will read the book, do crafts, have a snack with Kathy Goul from Marais des Cygnes Extension and play games. Please join us!

WHY SHOULD THE KIDS HAVE ALL THE FUN AT THE LIBRARY? CALLING ALL LINN COUNTY SENIORS & (OVER 50 CLUB) TO JOIN US FOR PERCUSSION MAGIC ON MONDAY EVENING—OCT 12TH AT 6 PM

The library along with the newly formed Linn County Seniors group would like to invite you to an evening of fun music (both listening and making music) in the Swan Room at the library. Finger foods and snacks will be provided. Percussion Magic is a father-son duo out of Ottawa, KS and they performed 4 shows here in June including one at the Over 50 club. We are inviting them back to do a special program for you! Hope you can join us!
