Victorian Control of Weapons Act Statement

I have read the relevant definitions of prohibited person from the Control of Weapons Act 1990 and the Firearms Act 1996. I am aware that if I do not understand the contents or ramifications of these definitions I should seek independent legal advice. At this time I do not believe myself to be a prohibited person under these definitions.

Victoria

In Victoria swords are on the list of Prohibited weapons. This means:

These weapons are considered inappropriate for general possession and use without a Governor in Council Exemption or a Chief Commissioners Approval.

Control of Weapons Act 1990

EXEMPTION UNDER SECTION 8B TO POSSESS SWORDS FOR HISTORICAL RE-ENACTMENT

Order in Council

The Governor in Council, under section 8B of the Control of Weapons Act 1990, exempts from the operation of section 5(1) of the Control of Weapons Act 1990, in relation to swords, a person who is of a class of persons set out in an item in Column 1 of the following Table, to the extent specified opposite that item in Column 2 of the following Table:

Column 1 Purpose	Column 2 Exemption
A member of an historical re-enactment organisation listed in Schedule 1.	Bringing a sword into Victoria, causing a sword to be brought or sent into Victoria, selling or purchasing a sword, displaying or advertising a sword for sale, possessing using or carrying a sword for the purposes of studying and participating in the re-enactment of historical events.

A person seeking to rely on this Order is subject to the following conditions:

1. when not being used in accordance with the purpose specified in this Order, swords must be stored safely and securely; and
2. a person seeking to rely on this exemption must permit a member of the police force to inspect his or her storage arrangements at any reasonable time.

In this Order-

“Act” means the Control of Weapons Act 1990;

“stored safely and securely” means:

- (a) stored in a manner calculated to ensure the sword:

- (i) is not readily accessible to a person other than the person seeking to rely on the exemption;
- (ii) is not available for possession, carriage or use by a person who is not themselves a holder of an approval issued by the Chief Commissioner of Police or who does not fall within another class of exempt persons;

- (b) when being transported between the usual place of storage of the sword and places at which the sword is legitimately used, the purpose of which is the subject of this exemption, stored in a manner calculated to ensure that the sword is not readily accessible to a person other than the person seeking to rely on the exemption and that the sword is concealed from plain sight during any such transportation;

“participating” includes receiving instruction in, practicing, training, teaching or competing.

For the purposes of this Order, a class or classes of persons specified in Column 1 of the Table set out above does not include any person who is a prohibited person as defined in the Act.

This Order comes into operation on 1 July 2004.

Dated 16 June 2004

Responsible Minister ANDRE HAERMAYER Minister for Police and Emergency Services
