North River Arts Society
Jean Simms
Emerging Artist Award
2015

The North River Arts Society is honored to have recently received a generous endowment, allowing us to offer an annual award enabling financially-challenged adult artists to begin, or continue, their studies in the visual arts.

This award will provide up to $1,000 toward tuition to any class series, workshop or combination thereof offered by the NRAS. Additionally, the basic supplies required for one course will be provided. The NRAS Education Administrator will work with the winning recipient to chart an appropriate course of studies.

Applicants must be members of the NRAS, and be over the age of 25. Candidates may become members when applying for this award.

To apply, candidates must submit a short application, as well as a statement explaining their artistic background, their artistic goals; and why the financial support will be helpful to them. Additionally, applicants must submit 1-3 samples of their artwork, which can be sent as photos, slides, or as digital images.

The deadline for this year's award is August 7. Applications for the Jean Simms Emerging Artist Award should be sent to the NRAS at PO Box 307, Marshfield Hills, MA 02051, or emailed to northriverarts@gmail.com.

Please contact the NRAS office with questions.
Office hours: Monday-Friday 9:00 am - 12:00 pm.
