1. LONG TERM PROGRAMMING – Patrol Preparation

Good preparation will make programming simple! Developing the troop program is the responsibility of the Troop Council. Long term planning should happen at a special Troop Council Meeting at either the beginning of the year or late in the preceding year. Before meeting PL's need time to also plan with his/her patrol. Following this process implements the Scout Method and so empowers Patrol Leaders to take responsibility for their Patrol. Each patrol to complete the template below.

PATROL _____ Date completed _____

TROOP PROGRAM IDEAS - Each patrol to complete the following:

(Major troop activities and camps, areas of the award scheme to cover as a troop, program themes and ideas. Goals for the troop to achieve over the next 12 months as suggested by each patrol.) Gather ideas from all patrols to then prioritise suggestions and then determine troop activities and themes for the year.

If not clear, add a brief explanation about each suggestion and some pointers on why the troop should run the activity so you are ready to 'argue' your ideas on behalf of your patrol.

LONG TERM PLANNING FOR EACH PATROL FOR THE YEAR:

What does each patrol want to achieve during the year? Patrols to brainstorm key ideas around; Patrol Activity Badge, Patrol Camp suggestions and areas of the award scheme to be covered by the Patrol. PL's to bring along to the troop council meeting to share with the troop, learn what others are doing and to see where patrol activities fit within the troop program.
List when the patrol would like to organise its activities. (Each patrol to complete the template below.)

4. WHAT DID YOU DO LAST YEAR?

The Troop Council has now looked at their patrol and leader suggestions for the year but what else could also influence the program?

LAST YEARS PROGRAM

Bring along a copy of last year's program.

- Check it for key dates and events that might be happening again.
- Check it to list what parts of the award scheme were covered.

Check it to make sure the new program is totally different, so that you have new and interesting challenges for the year.

5. LONG TERM PROGRAM – Finally the Planning

Once all of the background information has been collected it is then time to start prioritising everything using the information that you collected.

- Firstly list everything that is non negotiable and must happen
- Prioritise major events over the year
 - What training will be required to achieve these events?
 - How much time will be needed to skill everyone to participate?
- Ensure all Areas of Personal Growth are balanced over 12 months
- Ensure all parts of the Scout Method are utilised
- Ensure the needs and interests of all members have been met (will all scouts be happy with most aspects of the program?)
- Make sure Patrol Activities either assist in preparing for a major event or, provide alternate activities to the troop so that patrol members remain interested

- The program is still flexible just in case other ideas or changes occur.
- The final columns can be completed at the start of each term to determine what exactly will happen, when it will happen, who will be responsible to organise the activity and what equipment will be required.
