

Battle of the Books 2015

Who: H.B.B. and M.K.G. students entering grades 2-5

What: Read & then participate in a fun, team-based competition!!

Where: At school

When: September 2015 (exact date TBD)

Why: To motivate students to read over the summer

How: Read or listen to as many of the 18 books on the list as possible. The more you read the more you can help your team! Then, when the permission slip is sent home in the fall, have your parent/guardian indicate which books you read/listened to & give permission for you to participate. You will then be assigned to a team to compete by answering questions about the books.

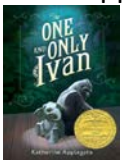

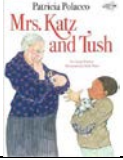

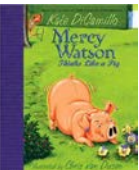

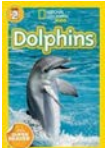

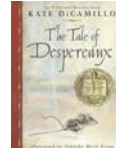

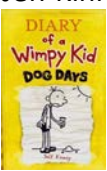

In order to help us with our planning, please return this portion to school by Friday May 29th, 2015.

☐ Yes! My child is planning to participate in the Battle of the Books Competition. He/she understands that they need to read at least 1 book from the list in order to participate, but that the more he/she reads the more they can help their team. Also, I understand that I will need to sign a permission slip in September.
