2014 Catholic Ministries Appeal Serving God by Serving Others

In a world full of so many troubles, it's easy to feel like there is nothing we can do to make a difference...
But we can,

We can help feed the hungry

We can see that our seniors are provided with services and shelter

We can provide guidance through troubled times

We can make sure that no one feels alone

Make a Difference

Support the Ministries of our Diocese and Parish by making a pledge to the Catholic Ministries Appeal

If you have not as yet given a gift to the 2014 CMA, please consider doing so today. To all who have given a gift or made a pledge, thank you for helping people on Long Island and also helping HNJ meet its 2014 goal.

For more information, visit www.CatholicMinistriesAppeal.org.

You can use the form below and return it to the rectory office and we will forward it to the CMA Office or you can use the form you received from the CMA office.

Enclosed in my gift of $ _____ or

I pledge of $ _____ to be paid over 10 months.

Notes from our Pastor....

The Capital Campaign continues and as this bulletin is prepared for printing, I'm happy to tell you that we reached $410,000 in pledges and/or gifts from 94 families. We still have the last quarter of the journey to complete but I truly believe we will make our goal by the close of the Campaign later this month. Once again I thank all who have contributed to date, and I ask those who have not as yet responded to please think and pray about making a pledge and/or gift.

Even though things slow down a bit during the summer months, some planning and preparations continue for the parish, such as registration for Religious Education for the 2014-2015 academic year. Registration forms were mailed to families with children previously enrolled in our program. Please return your forms as soon as possible. If you wish to enroll a child (grades 1 through 8) who did not previously attend our program, please call the rectory office.

On Friday, July 4th, we celebrated Independence Day. As we celebrate our Independence and count our many blessings, perhaps from time to time, we could pray this prayer for Religious Freedom offered by the United States Catholic Conference of Bishops:

"O God our creator, from you provident hand we have received our right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. You have called us as your people and given us the right and the duty to worship you, the only true God, and your Son, Jesus Christ. Through the power and working of your Holy Spirit, you call us to live out our faith in the midst of the world, bringing the light and the saving truth of the Gospel to every corner of society.

"We ask you to bless us in our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty. Give us the strength of mind and heart to readily defend our freedoms when they are threatened; give us courage in making our voices heard on behalf of the rights of your Church and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith.

"Grant, we pray, O heavenly father, a clear and united voice to all your sons and daughters gathered in your Church in this decisive hour in the history of our nation, so that, with every trial withstood and every danger overcome -- for the sake of our children, our grandchildren, and all who come after us --this great land will always be "one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all." We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen."

SPIRITUAL ADOPTION PROGRAM

Life Is a Gift

MONTH FIVE DEVELOPING BABY

Your spiritually adopted baby weighs over one pound now. His mother can feel his movement now. Before he was too small for her to feel. Although he swam with ease in his watery world, he needed to be big and strong enough to kick hard against the outside wall and dent it—the inside wall of the uterus has no feeling. We are mid-way through the pregnancy now. Your prayers have helped your baby's mother continue with her pregnancy and seek the help she needs.

WEEKLY MASSES

Sunday, July 6, 2014

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Zechariah 9:9-10 Romans 8:9,11-13 Matthew 11:25-30

FOCUS: A cross carried willingly is a burden no more. There is no burden so great that the Lord cannot lift it from us and bring peace to our hearts. So often in life we carry around our hurts and disappointments like a burlap sack filled with rocks, dragging us down. It is far better to hand them over to God who is our source of strength. July 6, 2014*FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Zec 9:9-10 / Rom 8:9, 11-13 / Mt 11:25-30

One day when my children were young, we went on a walk around the neighborhood. We encountered two girls who were about five and six years old. The elder child had her arm around the younger and was saying convincingly, "I'll tell you how it goes. I'll tell you what to do, and you do it." The five-year-old, all eyes, nodded at the wisdom of these words. I smiled as I thought, "It would be nice if the world were so simple."

Our readings today present the deceptively simple solution to demands and temptations. It's as though God is saying, "I will tell you how it goes."

In the face of war and devastation, Zechariah shows us the God of peace, who rides a donkey but whose justice lasts forever.

In the face of hunger, anger, and oppression, the psalmist prays to God, who is slow to anger and abounds in mercy, who raises up the fallen and satisfies the desire of every living thing, and whose reign lasts forever.

In the face of death of body and spirit, Paul talks about the life that can be ours if we but open ourselves to the Spirit of God.

And Jesus—seeing that we are burdened by temptations, the expectations of others, and the laws that oppress rather than help us live—invites us to become like children, to take off the heavy yoke that binds and put on the yoke of Christ, a yoke that gives life.

Is he telling us what to do? Yes.

All that's left is for us to do it.

Mary Katharine Deeley
