GENERAL INFORMATION

IMPORTANT: It is the responsibility of the applicant to verify visa particulars on receipt of passport and before travelling. Finalise your travel arrangements only after you ascertain visa requirements and obtain an appropriate visa. High Commission of India reserves the right on granting & deciding type/ duration of visa irrespective of the fees tendered. Granting of Visa does not confer the right of entry and is subject to the discretion of the Immigration Authorities. Cases where a fresh application is filed during the validity of an existing visa, new visa issued will automatically annul existing visa irrespective of its validity still remaining and no fee refunds are admissible. Children intending to travel to India, must apply on a passport in their own names. While every effort is taken for prompt processing, High Commission of India will not be responsible for any delay in processing or loss of passport or other documents.

In the following cases, processing of applications will take longer: (a) British nationals holding dual nationality or of other origin, (b) applicants not resident in the UK, (c) where clearance from India is mandatory, (d) visitors to restricted areas and (e) certain cases where documents may be verified. Visa section will contact the applicants about the time of delivery of such passports. Please note that each application is examined individually and the time taken for issuing visas may vary from case to case. Applicant may be asked to furnish more supporting documents.
