HOUSING COUNSELING SERVICE DISCLOSURE

1. Piedmont Housing Alliance is here to assist you with referrals and information about your borrowing options and identified housing counseling activities. While affordable homes, lending products and other forms of assistance might be available through Piedmont Housing Alliance, the applicant is under no obligation to utilize these additional services. We do not give legal advice. If we refer you to another agency or organization, you should independently determine whether that agency or organization can address your concerns. We are not responsible for the services provided to you by others.

2. I understand that Piedmont Housing Alliance receives funds from entities such as the U.S. Dept. of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), Virginia Housing Development Authority (VHDA), NeighborWorks America, and/or Treasury, local governments, foundations, etc., or their agents for purposes of program monitoring, compliance and evaluation. In addition, the agencies and organizations which provide funding to Piedmont Housing Alliance are often required to monitor our performance in accordance with their funding agreements. This monitoring may require that we release client files, in whole or part for their review. In order to release the client information to these agencies or organizations, we must have a signed Authorization Form from our clients.

3. I give permission for program administrators/funders and/or their agents to follow up with me between now and three years following the close-out of my counseling file for the purposes of program evaluation.

4. I understand and give permission for Piedmont Housing Alliance to: (a) Submit client-level information to Counselor Max (CM) database, Hope Loan Portal (HLP), (b) allow NeighborWorks and Treasury to open files to be reviewed for program monitoring and compliance purposes, and (c) allow NeighborWorks and Treasury to conduct follow up with the client related to program evaluation, if they choose to.

Piedmont Housing Alliance Privacy Policy

Piedmont Housing Alliance is committed to assuring the privacy of individuals and/or families who have contacted us for assistance. We realize that the concerns you bring to us are highly personal in nature. We assure you that all information shared both orally and in writing will be managed within legal and ethical considerations. Your “nonpublic personal information,” such as your total debt information, income, living expense, and personal information concerning your financial circumstances, will be provided to creditors, program monitors, and others only with your authorization and signature on the Authorization form. All funding sources routinely require compliance monitoring and access to client files. We may also use anonymous aggregated case file information for the purpose of evaluating our services, gathering valuable research information and designing future programs.

Types of information that we gather about you:

- Information we receive from you orally, on applications or other forms, such as your name, address, social security number, assets, and income
- Information about your transactions with us, your creditors, or others, such as your account balance, payment history, parties to transaction and credit card usage
- Information we receive from a credit reporting agency, such as your credit history

You may opt-out of certain disclosures:

- You have the opportunity to “opt out” of disclosures (direct us not to make those disclosures) of your non-public personal information to third parties such as your creditors.
- If you choose to “opt out”, we will not be able to answer questions from your creditors. If at any time, you wish to change your decision with regard to your “opt-out”, you may call us at 434-817-2436 and do so.

Release of your information to third parties:

- So long as you have not opted out, we may disclose some or all of the information that we collect, as described above, to your creditors or third parties where we have determined that it would be helpful to you, would aid us in counseling you, or is a requirement of grant awards which make our services possible.
- We may also disclose any nonpublic personal information about you or former customers to anyone as permitted by law (e.g., if we are compelled by legal process).

Within the organization, we restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide services to you. We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information.
