	Avg.	Home Runs	Doubles	RBI
First 11	.138	0	0	3
Last 15	.415	5	2	16

HOT TROTT

Freshman Wendy Trott has drawn comparisons to current OU All-American Samantha Ricketts. The rookie struggled early in the season but has been trying to solidify a spot in the starting lineup as the designated player. Trott made people notice last weekend at the OU Worth Invitational as she hit .600 (3-for-5) with three home runs and a 2.400 slugging percentage.

37 CONSECUTIVE INNINGS STREAK SNAPPED

OU pitcher D.J. Mathis ended her streak of 37 consecutive innings without giving up a run (earned or unearned) against Tulsa on March 5. The junior lefty gave up a home run in the bottom of the second to end the streak. Prior to that, her last run to give up was a home run to start off the sixth inning against Stanford on Feb. 22.

MATHIS OPENS SEASON ON FIRE

Junior lefty pitcher D.J. Mathis was OU's most heavily relied upon pitcher as a freshman in 2006, but struggled at times during the 2007 season with a nagging shoulder injury. The junior has returned to form and continues to dominate in the circle for the Sooners in her 19 appearances this season. Below is a comparison of Mathis' first 19 appearances of the season as a freshman, sophomore and junior.

Year	ERA	Shutouts	Strikeouts	B/Avg.
2006	2.43	1	41	.262
2007	2.06	3	73	.227
2008	0.71	8	112	.127

MATHIS = WORKHORSE

The Sooners have had to put a lot on the shoulders of pitcher D.J. Mathis this season. The lefty has been a workhorse for the Sooners and has pitched more than any other Big 12 pitcher, but still leads the conference in almost every category. Below is a look at where Mathis ranks among Big 12 pitchers.

Stat	Number	Big 12 Ranking
Wins	19	First
Innings Pitched	98.1	First
Opp. Batting Avg.	.127	First
Appearances	19	First
Starts	16	First
Shutouts	8	Tied First
Complete Games	11	Second
Strikeouts	112	Second

OU BREAKS SCHOOL RECORD FOR HOME RUNS

The Sooners set a school record against Pacific on Feb. 22 as Oklahoma pounded six home runs in the contest. The previous OU record for home runs in a single was five and it had been done twice. The 1996 squad pounded five against Tulsa (April 11) while the 2005 team hammered five against Texas A&M (April 16).

NEW ADDITION TO THE TEAM

Associate head coach and pitching coach Melyssa Lombardi welcomed her first child on Feb. 19. Her baby boy, Gianni Thomas Lombardi, was the first child for Coach Lombardi and her husband John. Gianni was born over a month early but was a healthy 5 lbs., 13 oz. when he was born.

ECKERMANN THROWS PERFECT GAME

Senior pitcher Lauren Eckermann, last year's Co-Big 12 Pitcher of the Year, got back in the groove against St. Gregory's on Tuesday, Feb. 12. Eckermann threw the first perfect game of her career as she allowed no hits and no walks while striking out four in the five-inning contest. Eckermann picked up her first win of the season in dramatic fashion as became only the sixth OU player since the start of Big 12 play to throw a perfect game and the first pitcher to do it since Jennifer Stewart tossed a perfect game against Texas-Arlington on Feb. 8, 2002. The perfect game also marked the fourth no-hitter of Eckermann's career at OU as she tossed three no-no's during the 2007 season.

ECKERMANN NAMED A LOWE'S CANDIDATE

OU senior Lauren Eckermann was announced as one of 30 candidates for the 2008 Lowe's Senior Class Award for softball on March 4. The award, presented to NCAA® Division I student-athletes each year in eight sports, focuses on the "Four C's" of classroom, character, community and competition.

RICKETTS A PRESEASON ALL-AMERICAN

Junior Samantha Ricketts was named to the second-team ESPN.com Preseason All-America team in a list released by the web site prior to the start of the season. Ricketts was one of four Big 12 players selected to the list.

RICKETTS, ECKERMANN NAMED TO PLAYER OF THE YEAR WATCH LIST

Senior pitcher Lauren Eckermann and junior first baseman Samantha Ricketts have been named to the initial watch list for the seventh annual USA Softball National Collegiate Player of the Year Award. Ricketts was named one of three finalists for the award last year.

Three-Time Big 12 Coach of the Year

Winningest Coach in Big 12 History

A pioneer and legend after 12 years. Better believe it.

Oklahoma head coach Patty Gasso has blazed the trail for the Big 12, which has quickly gained national softball respect in just 12 years of existence. No person has been more responsible for the conference's rise in prominence than the winningest coach in its history.

With five trips to the Women's College World Series in the last eight years, OU has not only earned respect but validated an entire conference.

Her work at OU has done more than just net gains for her employers and the league.

The Midwest was a dormant recruiting area when she arrived in 1995. Presently, the Midwest and South (especially Oklahoma, Texas, Louisiana and Florida) rank a very close second to California.

All that without even mentioning her accomplishments.

In 2003, Oklahoma was named the fifth best program all-time by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association. Go back to 1994, before Gasso arrived in Norman, and it's a guarantee that OU doesn't even sniff the top 25.

During her tenure, the Sooners have reached the postseason every year. They have claimed seven Regional Championships, made five WCWS appearances and claimed one national championship.

Not many coaches around the land can claim those credentials. Then again, if you tally the combined accomplishments of many conferences, they can't either.

So what's next? It would be a mistake to say more of the same. This program has risen dramatically for 12 years and Gasso doesn't intend to slow the pace one bit.

Titles like "Coaching Legend" and "Best Coach In Big 12 History" are usually reserved for retired leaders. In Gasso's case, there is no need to wait, she has already earned both titles.
