Workshop

Morning Session

Sometimes we just don't know the best approach to work with difficult colleagues, students, professionals, and/or families. This workshop will focus on strategies to communicate with difficult people. Dr. Hartwig will emphasize positive, successful negotiation skills to help professionals work effectively to create mutually beneficial working relationships with parents, students, and colleagues.

Afternoon Session

Addressing behavior is one of the greatest challenges facing both professionals and parents today. This interactive workshop will focus on current issues of behavior. Dr. Hartwig will provide legal and practical options and will address Functional Behavioral Assessment (FBA) by focusing on descriptive and functional analysis. Dr. Hartwig will review the legal requirements for addressing behaviors of individuals with disabilities and how to legally conduct and document comprehensive FBA. Educational implications for programming will be included.
