Borrower/Co-Borrower Acknowledgement and Agreement

- 1. I certify that all of the information in this Borrower Assistance Form is truthful and the hardship(s) identified above has contributed to submission of this request for mortgage relief.
- 2. I understand and acknowledge that the Servicer, owner or guarantor of my mortgage, or their agent(s) may investigate the accuracy of my statements, may require me to provide additional supporting documentation, and that knowingly submitting false information may violate Federal and other applicable law.
- 3. I understand the Servicer will obtain a current credit report on all borrowers obligated on the Note.
- 4. I understand that if I have intentionally defaulted on my existing mortgage, engaged in fraud or misrepresented any fact(s) in connection with this request for mortgage relief or if I do not provide all required documentation, the Servicer may cancel any mortgage relief granted and may pursue foreclosure on my home and/or pursue any available legal remedies.
- 5. I certify that my property has not received a condemnation notice.
- 6. I certify that I am willing to provide all requested documents and to respond to all Servicer communications in a timely manner. I understand that time is of the essence.
- 7. I understand that the Servicer will use this information to evaluate my eligibility for available relief options and foreclosure alternatives, but the Servicer is not obligated to offer me assistance based solely on the representations in this document or other documentation submitted in connection with my request.
- 8. If I am eligible for a trial period plan, repayment plan, or forbearance plan, and I accept and agree to all terms of such plan, I also agree that the terms of this Acknowledgment and Agreement are incorporated into such plan by reference as if set forth in such plan in full. My first timely payment following my Servicer's determination and notification of my eligibility or prequalification for a trial period plan, repayment plan, or forbearance plan (when applicable) will serve as acceptance of the terms set forth in the notice sent to me that sets forth the terms and conditions of the trial period plan, repayment plan, or forbearance plan.
- 9. I agree that when the Servicer accepts and posts a payment during the term of any repayment plan, trial period plan, or forbearance plan it will be without prejudice to, and will not be deemed a waiver of, the acceleration of my loan or foreclosure action and related activities and shall not constitute a cure of my default under my loan unless such payments are sufficient to completely cure my entire default under my loan.
- 10. I agree that any prior waiver as to my payment of escrow items to the Servicer in connection with my loan has been revoked.
- 11. If I qualify for and enter into a repayment plan, forbearance plan, and trial period plan, I agree to the establishment of an escrow account and the payment of escrow items if an escrow account never existed on my loan.
- 12. I understand that the Servicer will collect and record personal information that I submit in this Borrower Response Package and during the evaluation process, including, but not limited to, my name, address, telephone number, social security number, credit score, income, payment history, and information about my account balances and activity. INFORMATION ON AVOIDING FORECLOSURE

For Your Information Only - Do Not Return With Your Borrower Response Package

Mortgage Programs Are Available to Help

There are a variety of programs available to help you resolve your delinquency and keep your home. You may be eligible to modify your mortgage to make your payments and terms more manageable, for instance, lowering your monthly payment to make it more affordable. Or, if you have missed a few payments, you may qualify for a temporary (or permanent) solution to help you get your finances back on track. Depending on your circumstances, staying in your home may not be possible. However, a short sale or deed-in-lieu of foreclosure may be a better choice than foreclosure – see the table below for more information:

OPTION	OVERVIEW	BENEFIT
Reinstatement	Pay the total amount you owe, in a lump sum payment and by a specific date. This may follow a forbearance plan as described below	Allows you to avoid foreclosure by bringing your mortgage current if you can show you have funds that will become available at a specific date in the future
Repayment Plan	Pay back your past-due payments together with your regular payments over an extended period of time	Allows you time to catch up on late payments without having to come up with a lump sum

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

For Your Information Only - Do Not Return With Your Borrower Response Package

1. Why Should I Complete this Package?

You should complete this package because Aurora Bank, FSB (Aurora Bank, "we" "us") has not received one or more of your monthly mortgage payments and we want to help you keep your home if at all possible. We are providing this information to you so we can work with you to quickly resolve any temporary or long-term financial challenge you face to making all of your late mortgage payments.

2. Where Can I Find More Information on Foreclosure Prevention?

Please see the Avoiding Foreclosure attachment in this package for more information, or you can contact us at 1-800-550-0509. Additional foreclosure prevention information is located on our website, www.myauroraloan.com. You may also review Fannie Mae's website at www.knowyouroptions.com or Freddie Mac's website at www.knowyouroptions.com or www.kno

3. Will I Be Evaluated for the Federal Home Affordable Modification Program (HAMP) When I Submit My Borrower Response Package?

If you are not eligible for a reinstatement, repayment, or forbearance plan based on the information you provide, we will evaluate you for participation in the Home Affordable Modification Program. If you are not eligible for HAMP, we will evaluate you for a non-HAMP Fannie Mae/Freddie Mac loan modification. We may also review your information for other Foreclosure Alternatives, such as, HAFA Short Sale, HAFA Deed in Lieu (DIL), Traditional Short Sale or Traditional Deed in Lieu (DIL).

4. Will It Cost Money to Get Help?

There should never be a fee from us or a qualified counselor to obtain assistance or information about foreclosure prevention options. However, foreclosure prevention has become a target for scam artists. Be wary of companies or individuals offering to help you for a fee, and never send a mortgage payment to any company other than the one listed on your monthly mortgage statement or one designated to receive your payments under a state assistance program.

5. What Happens Once I Have Sent the Borrower Response Package to You?

We will contact you within three (3) business days of our receipt of your Borrower Response Package to confirm that we have received your package and will review it to determine whether it is complete. Within five (5) business days of receipt of your request, we will send you a notice of incompleteness in the event there is any missing information or documentation that you must still submit. We cannot guarantee that you will receive any (or a particular type of) assistance.

Within thirty (30) days of receipt of a complete Borrower Response Package, we will let you know which foreclosure alternatives, if any, are available to you and will inform you of your next steps to accept our offer. However, if you submit your complete Borrower Response Package less than thirty seven (37) days prior to a scheduled foreclosure sale date, we will strive to process your request as quickly as possible, but you may not receive a notice of incompleteness or a decision on your request prior to sale. Please submit your Borrower Response Package as soon as possible.

6. What Happens to My Mortgage While You Are Evaluating My Borrower Response Package?

You remain obligated to make all mortgage payments as they come due, even while we are evaluating the types of assistance that may be available.

7. Will the Foreclosure Process Begin If I Do Not Provide Any Information?

If you have missed four (4) monthly payments or there is reason to believe the property is vacant or abandoned, we may refer your mortgage to foreclosure regardless of whether you are being considered for a modification or other types of foreclosure alternatives.

8. What Happens if I Have Waited Too Long and My Property Has Been Referred to an Attorney for Foreclosure? Should I Still Contact You?

Yes, the sooner the better!

9. What if My Property is Scheduled for a Foreclosure Sale in the Future?

If you submit a complete Borrower Response Package less than thirty seven (37) calendar days before a scheduled foreclosure sale, there is no guarantee we can evaluate you for a foreclosure alternative in time to stop the foreclosure sale. Even if we are able to approve you for a foreclosure alternative prior to a sale, a court with jurisdiction over the foreclosure proceeding (if any) or public official charged with carrying out the sale may not halt the scheduled sale. A complete Borrower Response Package must be received according to the following timeframes: For properties located in Florida, your complete package must be received no later than twenty one (21) calendar days prior to the duly-noticed foreclosure sale date. If your property is located in Connecticut or Ohio, your complete package must be received no later than fifteen (15) calendar days prior to the duly-noticed foreclosure sale date. For properties located in all other states, your complete package must be received no later than ten (10) calendar days prior to the duly-noticed foreclosure sale date.

10. Will My Property be Sold at a Foreclosure Sale If I Accept a Foreclosure Alternative?

No. The property will not be sold at a foreclosure sale once you accept a foreclosure alternative, such as a forbearance or repayment plan, and comply with all requirements.

11. Will My Credit Score Be Affected by My Late Payments or Being in Default?

The delinquency status of your loan will be reported to credit reporting agencies as well as your entry into a Repayment Plan, Forbearance Plan, or Trial Period Plan in accordance with the requirements of the Fair Credit Reporting Act and the Consumer Data Industry Association requirements.

12. Will My Credit Score Be Affected if I Accept a Foreclosure Prevention Option?

While the affect on your credit will depend on your individual credit history, credit scoring companies generally would consider entering into a plan with reduced payments as increasing your credit risk. As a result, entering into a plan with reduced payments may adversely affect your credit score, particularly if you are current on your mortgage or otherwise have a good credit score.

13. Is Foreclosure Prevention Counseling Available?

Yes, HUD-approved counselors are available to provide you with the information and assistance you may need to avoid foreclosure. You can use the search tool at http://www.hud.gov/offices/hsg/sfh/hcc/fc/ to find a counselor near you.

14. I Have Seen Ads and Flyers From Companies Offering to Help Me Avoid Foreclosure for a Fee. Are These Companies on the Level?

Foreclosure prevention has become a target for scam artists. We suggest using the HUD Web site referenced in question 13 to locate a counselor near you. Also, please refer to the attached document called "Beware of Foreclosure Rescue Scams" for more information.

BEWARE OF FORECLOSURE SCAMS – TIPS & WARNING SIGNS

For Your Information Only - Do Not Return With Your Borrower Response Package

Scam artists are stealing millions of dollars from distressed homeowners by promising immediate relief from foreclosure, or demanding cash for counseling services when HUD-approved counseling agencies provide the same services for FREE. If you receive an offer, information or advice that sounds too good to be true, it probably is. Don't let them take advantage of you, your situation, your house or money. Remember, help is FREE.

How to Spot a Scam – beware of a company or person who: Asks for a fee in advance to work with your lender to modify, refinance or reinstate your mortgage. Guarantees they can stop a foreclosure or get your loan modified. Advises you to stop paying your mortgage company and pay them instead. Pressures you to sign over the deed to your home or sign any paperwork that you haven't had a chance to read, and you don't fully understand. Claims to offer "government-approved" or "official government" loan modifications. Asks you to release personal information online or over the phone and you have not been working with this person and/or do no know them.
How to Report a Scam – do one of the following: ☐ Go to www.preventloanscams.org and fill out the Loan Modification Scam Prevention Network's (LMSPN) complain form online and get more information on how to fight back. Note: you can also fill out this form and send to the fax number/e-mail/address (you choice!) on the back of the form. ☐ Call 1-888-995-HOPE (4673) and tell the counselor about your situation and that you believe you got scammed or know of a scam.
The Loan Modification Scam Prevention Network is a national coalition of governmental and private organizations led by Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac, NeighborWorks America TM and the lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law.
