

PERMISSION FOR RELEASE OF GENERAL GPA INFORMATION

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), 1974 and as amended, protects the confidentiality of student education records. It further prohibits the re-release of these records without written authorization from the student.

For the purpose of monitoring academic performance and continued eligibility for membership in the fraternity/sorority, I give Baker University's Office of Records and Registration permission to release relative information about my academic performance to the chapter president, academic chair, or scholarship chair of the house. I understand that The Family Education Rights and Privacy Act protects this confidential information and I have the right to refuse release of this information.
