---

A Judicial Hearing Officer (or "JHO") is a retired Judge or Justice who has been assigned to review uncontested matrimonial actions.

A Court Attorney-Referee is an attorney employed by the Unified Court System who has been assigned to review uncontested matrimonial actions as a Special Referee.

You May Request a Judicial Hearing Officer ("JHO") or Court Attorney-Referee to Review Your Paperwork. Paperwork submitted to a Justice assigned to the Dedicated Matrimonial Part will be reviewed when that Justice's calendar and trial schedule allow. If you want your paperwork reviewed by a JHO or Court Attorney-Referee, you must sign the Stipulation on Uncontested Matrimonial Action.

To see whether you have to use that different formula in fields 33-36, you first have to determine what are the poverty level and the self-support reserve. Every April 1st the poverty level as well as the self support reserve changes. You may obtain the most current figures from the Child Support Standards Chart, which is available at https://newyorkchildsupport.com/quick\_links.html

Now you can see whether any of the low income exemptions apply. There are three possibilities. First – If the figure you get in field 32 is larger than the self-support reserve, then you are finished with this form except for signing and notarization. Second – If the figure you get in field 32 is less than the poverty level, then you must complete field 33 and field 34 before you are finished. Third – If the figure you get in field 32 falls between the poverty level and the self-support reserve, skip field 33 and field 34 and move on to field 35 and field 36.

- Field 33: List the adjusted income of the non-custodial parent as set forth in field 30, but only when field 32 is below the poverty level. Otherwise, skip this field.
- Field 34: Insert the amount of the self-support reserve, as calculated using the instructions in the footnotes at the bottom of page four of the form.
- Field 35: This amount is the remainder after subtracting the self-support reserve (field 34) from the non-custodial parent's income (field 33). If the amount on field 34 is greater than $300, then the correct child support is field 34. If the amount in field 34 is $300 or less, then the correct child support is $300 per year unless the Court decides this amount is "unjust or inappropriate" based on the non-numerical factors in Step 11 of the form. Keep in mind that the amount on field 34 may be less than $0, which occurs when the non-custodial parent's income is less than the self support reserve. Treat any figure below $0 as $0. As noted, that will result in child support of $300 per year unless the Court decides this amount is "unjust or inappropriate" based on the non-numerical factors in Step 11 of the form.
- Field 36: List the adjusted income of the non-custodial parent as set forth in field 30, but only when field 32 was below the self support reserve and above the poverty level. Otherwise skip this field.
- Field 37: Insert the amount of the self-support reserve, as calculated using the instructions in the footnotes at the bottom of page four of the form.
- Field 38: Insert the remainder after subtracting the self-support reserve (field 37) from the non-custodial parent's income (field 36). If the amount in field 36 is greater than $600, then the correct child support is field 36. If the amount in field 36 is $600 or less, then the correct child support is $600 per year. In addition, the Court has discretion to award child care expenses, health care expenses, and college, post - secondary private, special or enriched education expenses pursuant to Step 9 of this form.

It is strongly advised that you attach to this document the latest income tax returns, W-2's, 1099's, pay stubs – or whatever documentation you have – to confirm the amounts you state in this form.

- Field 39: Plaintiff must sign this document. If the defendant prepared this document, then the defendant signs it. This form must be signed and sworn to before a notary public. Check the applicable box for the signature.

HEALTH EXPENSES (c)(5)

27 O. Reasonable future health care expenses not covered by insurance:..... _____

28 P. MULTIPLY Line O by Line I: ..... _____

This is the amount the non-custodial parent must contribute to the custodial parent for health care or pay directly to the health care provider.

29 Q. EDUCATIONAL EXPENSE, if appropriate, see STEP 11(b) (c)(7) ..... _____

STEP 10 LOW INCOME EXEMPTIONS (d)

30 R. INSERT amount of noncustodial parent's income from Line E or Line F:..... _____

31 S. ADD amounts on Line L, Line N, Line P and Line Q
(This total is "basic child support"):..... _____

32 T. SUBTRACT Line S from Line R:..... _____

If Line T is more than the self-support reserve*, then the low income exemptions do not apply and child support remains as determined in Steps 8 and 9. If so, go to Step 11.

If Line T is less than the poverty level†, then

33 U. INSERT amount of non-custodial parent's income from Line E or Line F:..... _____

34 V. Self-support reserve: ..... _____

35 W. SUBTRACT Line V from Line U: ..... _____

If Line W is more than $300 per year, then Line W is the amount of basic child support. If Line W is less than $300 per year, then basic child support shall be $300 per year, unless the Court decides this amount is "unjust or inappropriate" based on the non-numerical factors in Step 11C below.

If Line T is less than the self-support reserve* but more than the poverty level†, then

38 Z. SUBTRACT Line Y from Line X:.....

If Line Z is more than $600 per year, then Line Z is the amount of basic child support. If Line Z is less than $600 per year, then basic child support must be a minimum of $600 per year. In addition the Court also has discretion to award child care expenses, health care expenses, and college, post-secondary, private, special or enriched education expenses pursuant to Step 9.

STEP 11 NON-NUMERICAL FACTORS

(a) NON-RECURRING INCOME (e)

A portion of non-recurring income, such as life insurance proceeds, gifts and inheritances or lottery winnings, may be allocated to child support. The law does not mention a specific percentage for such non-recurring income. Such support is not modified by the low income exemptions.

(b) EDUCATIONAL EXPENSES (c)(7)

New York's child support law does not contain a specific percentage method to determine how parents should share the cost of education of their children. Traditionally, the courts have considered both parents' complete financial circumstances in deciding who pays how much. The most important elements of financial circumstances are income, reasonable expenses, and financial resources such as savings and investments.

(c) ADDITIONAL FACTORS (f)

The child support guidelines law lists 10 factors that should be considered in deciding on the amount of child support for:

- combined incomes of more than $130,000 per year or
- to vary the numerical result of these steps because the result is "unjust or inappropriate". However, any court order deviating from the guidelines must set forth the amount of "basic child support" (Line S) resulting from the Guidelines and the reason for the deviation.

These factors are:

1. The financial resources of the parents and the child.
2. The physical and emotional health of the child and his/her special needs and aptitudes.
3. The standard of living the child would have enjoyed if the marriage or household was not dissolved.
4. The tax consequences to the parents.
5. The non-monetary contributions the parents will make toward the care and well-being of the child.
6. The educational needs of the parents.
7. The fact that the gross income of one parent is substantially less than the gross income of the other parent.
8. The needs of the other children of the non-custodial parent for whom the non-custodial parent is providing support, but only (a) if Line 23 is not deducted; (b) after considering the financial resources of any other person obligated to support the other children; and (c) if the resources available to support the other children are less than the resources available to support the children involved in this matter.
9. If a child is not on public assistance, the amount of extraordinary costs of visitation (such as out-of-state travel) or extended visits (other than the usual two to four week summer visits), but only if the custodial parent's expenses are substantially reduced by the visitation involved.
10. Any other factor the court decides is relevant.
