Endorse Alteration /Addition on passport:

1. Provide corresponding document as specified below:

Type of endorsement	Documents to be submitted (please see note)
Correction of name/date/place of birth	Court declaration, birth certificate, SSC Certificate
Change of address	Proof of address e.g. driver's license/ recent telephone/electricity bill
Addition of children	Proper birth certificate of the child showing Bangladeshi nationality of parents and three copies of stamp size photographs of the child. If you are including your children please add notarized copies of their birth certificates and three stamp size photograph for each of them. Children generally are endorsed in the mother's passport. To endorse them in the father's passport we need a signed, notarized letter from the mother stating that she has no objection if the children are endorsed in the father's passport. Children processing US passport need to have the Dual Citizenship Certificate issued from Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of Bangladesh. Therefore, one has to acquire the Dual Citizenship Certificate first. Application for Dual Citizenship Certificate is available at our website (form - H)

Change of Father's/husband's name

Marriage/divorce certificate as applicable

Change of profession/occupation

Copy of relevant academic certificate or employment verification letter stating the profession (from employer).

(Documents may have to go through verification process, which will be intimated after application has been made)

2. Fees: Must be in the form of money orders/bank drafts/cashier's checks payable to the Embassy of Bangladesh

Ordinary: (delivery after three working days): US$ 44.00

Urgent: (delivery on the next day): US$82.50

Note: Any document generated in Bangladesh must be attested by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (Consular Section) before it is presented as a supporting document.
