

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING A PETITION FOR DIVORCE WITH MINOR CHILDREN

GENERAL COMMENTS

This packet contains forms for people who want to file their own divorce in Henry County, and who have minor children together with their spouse. If you and your spouse do not have minor children together, you should not use this form packet. Instead, use the shorter and simpler version of this document packet called “Petition for Divorce without Minor Children.”

Please read these instructions and each individual form very carefully. Missing or misreading a word could cause you to make serious errors in your case, putting your rights and the direction of your divorce case in jeopardy.

IMPORTANT

IF THERE IS ANY QUESTION in your mind concerning these forms, the use of these forms, or your legal rights, it is strongly recommended that the services of an attorney be obtained. If you do not know an attorney you should contact your local Bar Association.

If you are unable to afford the services of an attorney, you should contact the following organizations to see if you are eligible for their services:

INTRODUCTION

In the State of Georgia, if you want to end your marriage, you must file a Petition for Divorce in the Superior Court. There are two options available to you for filing a divorce case: (1) you can hire a lawyer who will prepare your paperwork and represent you in court, or (2) you can use the forms included in this packet and represent yourself in court. After a court grants your divorce and issues a Final Judgment and Decree of Divorce, you will be legally able to remarry.

It is advisable to speak with a lawyer before filing any action with the Court; this divorce is no exception to that rule. There are often more issues involved in a divorce than you might realize if you fail to get legal advice. However, you may want to review the forms and instructions in this packet before you talk to a lawyer, so that you will be able to make the best use of your time with the lawyer.

Dissolution of a marriage can be a very complicated process. If documents are not completed, signed, notarized and filed as prescribed by law, then the divorce pleadings are not in compliance with the law, which means that a judge cannot grant your request for divorce and may dismiss your case.

If you want a court to grant your divorce, you must follow the law and you must complete each and every paragraph that applies to your case (but not any paragraph that does not apply to your case).

Please read and complete the steps listed in this packet in order to finalize, file, and serve your Petition for divorce.

Be aware that answering questions about legal procedure (such as what the law requires you to do, how to prove your case, how to respond to requests by the opposing party or how to get that party to respond to your requests, how to comply with a law or a court order, etc.) constitutes “giving legal advice.” Georgia law strictly forbids anyone employed by the Clerk’s office, Sheriff’s office, judge’s chambers, or ADR office from answering such questions. When you choose to represent yourself, it is your responsibility to research the law yourself and figure out what the law requires you to do and how you should proceed. The fact that you are not an attorney is not an excuse or an exception to this requirement.

YOU MAY ESPECIALLY NEED AN ATTORNEY IF:

- The case is contested OR an attorney represents your spouse.
- You or your children are victims of family violence against you by your spouse.
- You want a custody or visitation arrangement that does not exactly fit these forms.
- You are unable to locate your spouse for purposes of having him/her served with this action.
- You and/or your spouse have a house, pension, business, or large amount of property or income to be divided.
- You think you may have difficulty getting financial information from your spouse.

Whether your case is contested or uncontested, you should speak with a lawyer before signing a Settlement Agreement or filing any other documents with the Court.

Before you begin:

*Write neatly and legibly so that anyone reading your writing can easily determine how all names are spelled and what you are trying to say.

*Write out the name in full. Write clearly and legibly so that anyone reading your writing can easily tell how each part of the name is spelled. Do not use initials, nicknames, or the short version of a legal name (do not write “Ricky” if your real name is “Richard” or “Becky” if your real name is “Rebecca”). Do not use abbreviations other than “Jr.,” or “Sr.,” or “St.” (St. John, for example).

The following are detailed instructions on how to complete and file this Petition for Divorce with Minor Children, as well as some of the related documents. (Read these instructions carefully and more than once, if necessary.) It is important that you write legibly.

STEP 1: PETITION FOR DIVORCE

Caption (Heading):

Fill in your name as the Petitioner and your spouse's full name as the Respondent. Leave the Civil Action Case Number blank. The clerk will assign a number to your case when you file your Petition in the Clerk's Office. After completing the heading, write your full name again in the space provided just before Paragraph 1.

Paragraph 1: Subject Matter Jurisdiction

- (a) Check box a if you have been a resident of the State of Georgia for at least six (6) months immediately before filing your Petition for Divorce. (It is not good enough if you used to live in Georgia in the past, moved away, and have returned more recently than six months ago.)
- (b) Check box b if you are not a resident of the State of Georgia, but your spouse has been living in Georgia for at least the past six (6) months. (It is not good enough if your spouse used to live in Georgia in the past, moved away, and has returned more recently than six months ago.)

Note: If you live in Georgia, but not lived here for a full six months, but your spouse has been living here for at least the past six months, you may still use this Petition and file in Georgia. If this is the case, you should check box b and cross out the first eleven words ("I am not a resident of the State of Georgia, but..."), so that the sentence is accurate.

Paragraph 2: Venue

The issue of venue in a divorce action is very complicated. It is also very important since the divorce may be defective if venue is not addressed properly. Read these instructions very carefully. If your situation does not seem to fit any of the choices exactly, you should talk to a lawyer. You may not be able to file your case in Henry County or you may need to make particular changes to this form.

- (a) Check box a if the Respondent currently resides in Henry County.
- (b) Check box b if all of the following are true:
  - (1) The Respondent is not a resident of Henry County, but resides in Georgia;
  - (2) The two of you lived together in Henry County at the time you separated;
  - (3) You still live in Henry County; and
  - (4) The Respondent has moved out of Henry County only within the past six (6) months prior to you filing this Petition for Divorce.
- (c) Check box c if the Respondent does not live in Henry County and did not live with you in Henry County at your time of separation, but currently resides in Georgia.
- (d) Check box d if you live in Henry County and the Respondent does not live in Georgia. Then check number (1), (2), or (3) in the same paragraph.

Check only one (1) box. (If both 1 and 3, or 2 and 3 apply, check only 3.)

- (1) Check box 1 if the Respondent was a resident of Henry County, but currently resides in another state (enter the name of the state in the space provided), and the Respondent is subject to the personal jurisdiction of the Court under Georgia's Long Arm Statute (see O.C.G.A. § 9-10-91[5]).
  - (2) Check box 2 if the Respondent has never resided in the State of Georgia and currently resides in another state. Enter the name of the state in the space provided.
  - (3) Check box 3 if the Respondent does not live in Georgia, but has acknowledged service of process and has consented to the jurisdiction of the Court. If you check this box, you must file the original signed and notarized form entitled Acknowledgment of Service, Consent to Jurisdiction and Venue, and Consent to Present Case (this is one form) with this Petition.
- (e) Check box e if you reside in Henry County, but you do not know where the Respondent lives. You must prove to the Court that you have tried to locate the Respondent and cannot find him or her. You must also file the original signed and notarized Affidavit of Due Diligence with this Petition. In that Affidavit, you will explain to the Court about the steps you took to try to find the Respondent.

Note: In this situation, you will have to serve the Respondent by publication (see Paragraph 3-c, below). That means you will not be able to get certain kinds of relief as part of the divorce, such as child support and alimony. However, if the Respondent later acknowledges service, gets served by the Sheriff, or files an Answer to the divorce, then your case will not be limited by the restrictions that apply to publication cases.

Paragraph 3: Service of Process

- (a) Check box a if the Respondent has acknowledged Service of Process. If you check this box, you must also file the original signed and notarized Acknowledgment of Service.
- (b) Check box b if you want the Sheriff's Department to serve the Respondent with this Petition and the other court papers. You must fill in the address where the Respondent should be served and circle whether this is a home or work address.
  - (1) Check box b-1 if the Respondent lives outside of Henry County and you want the Sheriff's Department to serve him or her. If you check this box, you must inform the Clerk's Office (when you file the case) that the other party must be served by "second original." The clerk will stamp the service copy of your papers as a "second original."
- (c) Check box c if you do not know where the Respondent lives and you are serving him or her by publication. Write the Respondent's last known address on the lines provided. You must also file the original signed and notarized Affidavit of Due Diligence with this Petition. In that Affidavit, you will explain to the Court about the steps you took to try to find the Respondent. You will have to wait for the judge to sign an order approving of service by publication before you can have the Notice published.

To find more information about Service of Process, read Step 6 of these instructions.

Paragraph 4: Date of Marriage

- (a) Check box a if you and the Respondent were married with a license and a ceremony, such as one by a clergyman or by a judge at the courthouse. Write the date of the marriage in the space provided.

- (b) Check box b if you and the Respondent did not have a marriage license and a ceremony, but you believe you have established a common law marriage. Under Georgia law, this generally means that you and the Respondent lived together and held yourselves out as husband and wife before January 1, 1997. Write the date you began your common law marriage in the space provided.

Paragraph 5: Date of Separation

In the space provided, write the date that you and the Respondent last separated and remained separated up to the present time. Provide only one date. If you and the Respondent have separated, gotten back together, and then separated again, use the date of the most recent separation.

Paragraph 6: Settlement Agreement

Check this box only if you and the Respondent have signed a Settlement Agreement telling the Court the arrangements concerning your minor children (such as custody, visitation, child support, medical expenses, or insurance), how you will divide your joint and marital property and debts, and how you will resolve any other issues between the two of you. The parties must agree voluntarily and this document must be signed by both parties in front of a notary public. You must present this original document to Court if you have not already filed it with the Clerk of Court.

Paragraph 7: Minor Children

- (a) Check box a if you and the Respondent do not have any minor children together (by birth or adoption).

Note: If you and the Respondent do not have minor children together, you should use a different Petition form, entitled Petition for Divorce Without Minor Children. It is much shorter and simpler.

- (b) Check box b if you and the Respondent have minor children together. On the space provided, write the number of minor children that you have together. In the additional spaces, list the name of each child, the sex, year of birth and the parent (or other person) with whom the child lives now. If you have more than five (5) minor children together, you should list the information for the additional children on a separate piece of paper and attach that paper to this Petition (between pages 3 and 4).

Paragraph 8: Children's Current Residence

In the spaces provided, you must give the Court the address and county where the children live now, and the names of the people living with them. On the last space, tell the Court how long they have been at that address. However, if the children live in a shelter for victims of family violence, do not list the address of the shelter. Instead, on the space for the address, list only the name of the shelter and the state where it is located. Do not even fill in the name of the county.

Paragraph 9: Children's Past Residences

You must tell the Court where the children have lived within the past five (5) years. In the spaces provided, tell the Court the dates the children lived at each address, and then list the address next to the correspondent date. However, if the children lived a shelter for victims of family violence, do not list the address of the shelter. Instead, on the space for the address, list only the name of the shelter and the state where it is located.

Paragraph 10: People With Whom the Children Have Lived

In the spaces provided, list the name of each person with whom the children have lived during the past five (5) years, and then list that person's current address. However, if any person on the list is living in a shelter for victims of family violence, do not list the address of the shelter. Instead, on the space for the address, list only the name of the shelter and the state where it is located.

Paragraph 11: Other Court Cases About the Children

- (a) Check box a if you have never participated in litigation other than this case (such as filing a case, being served with court papers, testifying as a witness), concerning the custody of or visitation with the children, in this state or any other state.
- (b) Check box b if you have participated in litigation other than this case (such as filing a case, being served with court papers, testifying as a witness) concerning the custody of or visitation with the children, in this state or any other state. In the spaces provided, list the court, the case number and the date of any order concerning custody or visitation.

Paragraph 12: Other Cases that Could Affect Custody or Visitation in this Case

- (a) Check box a if you do not have any information about any other case (past or present, in Georgia or another state) that could affect custody or visitation in this case. Examples include other divorces, contempt actions, family violence cases, protective orders, termination of parental rights, legitimations, and adoptions.
- (b) Check box b if you do have information about any other case (past or present, in Georgia or another state) that could affect custody or visitation in this case. Examples include other divorces, contempt actions, family violence cases, protective orders, termination of parental rights, legitimations, and adoptions. In the spaces provided, you must tell the Court the name of the court involved, the case number, and the type of case. If you need more space for this answer, use additional paper and attach it to this Petition between pages 5 and 6.

Paragraph 13: Others Claiming Custody or Visitation

- (a) Check box a if you do not know of any person (other than the Respondent) who has physical custody of the children or who claims to have custody or visitation rights to the children.
- (b) Check box b if you do know of someone (other than the Respondent) that has physical custody of the children or claims to have custody or visitation rights to the children. In the spaces provided, list the name and present address of each person involved.

Paragraph 14: Child Custody

Note: There are many ways to arrange custody of children. This Petition form does not try to deal with all of them, but only the two most common ones. If you want the Court to order a different custody arrangement other than (a) or (b) below, you should talk to a lawyer. If you want more information about what it means to have full custody or joint legal custody, you may want to read

O.C.G.A. § 19-9-6 and also talk to a lawyer. Under Georgia law, the Court must order custody in a way that fits the “best interests of the children.”

- (a) Check box a if you believe it would be in the children’s best interest for the Court to grant full custody (also referred to as “sole custody”) of the children to one person (rather than sharing joint custody). If you believe you should have full custody yourself, then write “Petitioner” in the space provided. If you believe your spouse should have full custody, then write “Respondent” in the space provided. If you believe some other person (such as a grandparent or other relative) should have custody instead of either you or your spouse, you may still be able to use this Petition, but you will need to get advice from a lawyer about how to do it.
- (b) Check box b if you believe it would be in the children’s best interest for the Court to grant joint legal custody between you and the Respondent, with one person to have primary physical custody. If you believe you should have primary physical custody yourself, then write “Petitioner” in the space provided. If you believe your spouse should have primary physical custody, then write “Respondent” in the space provided.
- (c) Check box c if you want some other custody arrangement. Talk to a lawyer to figure out the best way to explain what you believe is best for the children on the lines provided here.

Paragraph 15: Child Visitation

Note: There are many ways to arrange visitation for children. This Petition form does not try to deal with all of them, but only the two most common ones. If you want the Court to order a different visitation agreement other than (a) or (b) below, you should talk to a lawyer. As with custody, the law requires that the Court must order visitation in a way that fits the “best interests of the children.”

- (a) Check box a if you believe that one of you should have visitation as specified with the children. If you believe the Respondent should have visitation as specified, then write the word “Respondent” on the space provided. If you believe that you should have visitation as specified, then write the word “Petitioner” on the space provided.
- (b) Check box b if you believe that the Respondent’s visitation should be restricted in some way to protect the children. Examples include: not allowing the parent to drink alcohol when the children are with her or him, not allowing the parent to drive with the children, or requiring supervision of visitation by another person. On the lines provided, explain to the Court about the restrictions that you believe are necessary and the reasons for them.

Paragraph 16: Child Support

Note: The Court is required to follow specific guidelines when setting child support. These guidelines, found in O.C.G.A. § 19-6-15, explain what counts as income for setting child support. You should read the child support guidelines in O.C.G.A. § 19-6-15, which may be found on the Internet at www.ganet.org/services/ocode/ocgsearch.htm.

- (a) Check box a if you are asking the Court to order the Respondent to pay child support. In the first space provided, list the Respondent's gross monthly income (before taxes and any other deductions). Then, in the next space, list the amount you believe the Respondent should pay each month, based on the calculations of the child support worksheets. If you do not know the amount of the Respondent's income, write the word "unknown" in all three spaces.
- (b) Check box b if you believe that you should pay child support to the Respondent. In the first space provided, list your gross monthly income (before taxes and other deductions). Then, in the other two spaces, list the amount you believe you should pay each month, based on the calculations of the child support worksheets. (See note above.)
- (c) Check box c if the Court cannot decide this issue in this divorce action because the Court cannot get personal jurisdiction over the Respondent. Generally, this will be because you are serving the Respondent by publication or because the Respondent has never lived in the State of Georgia. (For more information on this, see the note about service by publication in the instructions above for Paragraph 2-e.)

Paragraph 17: Health Insurance for Children

- (a) Check box a if you want the Court to order the Respondent to maintain medical, dental, and hospitalization insurance for the children.
- (b) Check box b if you already provide health insurance for the children, and you want the Respondent to be required to reimburse you for a share of the cost each month.
- (c) Check box c if you are not asking the Court to decide this issue.
- (d) Check box d if this issue cannot be decided by the Court in this divorce action because the Court cannot get personal jurisdiction over the Respondent. (See the instructions above for Paragraph 16-c.)

Paragraph 18: Other Medical Expenses for Children

- (a) Check box a if you want the Respondent to be responsible for all expenses incurred for the children's medical, dental, and hospital care that are not covered by insurance.
- (b) Check box b if you believe that you and the Respondent should share the expenses incurred for the children's medical, dental, and hospital care that are not covered by insurance.
- (c) Check box c if you are not asking the Court to decide this issue.
- (d) Check box d if this issue cannot be decided by the Court in this divorce action because the Court cannot get personal jurisdiction over the Respondent. (See the instructions above for Paragraph 16-c.)

Paragraph 19: Life Insurance to Support Children

- (a) Check box a if the children depend on the Respondent for support, and you believe the Respondent should maintain a life insurance policy on himself/herself for the support of the minor children. In the space provided, write the amount of insurance you believe the Respondent should maintain for the children's benefit.

(b) Check box b if you are not asking the Court to decide this issue.

(c) Check box c if this issue cannot be decided by the Court in this divorce action because the Court cannot get personal jurisdiction over the Respondent. (See the instructions above for Paragraph 16-c.)

Paragraph 20: Alimony

Note: If you want alimony, but do not have proof of the Respondent's income, you should see a lawyer. There are procedures called "discovery" that may be used to try to determine the income. The key issue in deciding alimony is the income of both parties.

(a) Check box a if you are financially dependent on the Respondent and want the Court to order the Respondent to pay alimony for your support.

(b) Check box b if you are not asking the Court to order alimony payments for your support.

(c) Check box c if this issue cannot be decided by the Court in this divorce action because the Court cannot get personal jurisdiction over the Respondent. (See the instructions above for Paragraph 16-c.)

Paragraph 21: Marital Property

Notes:

- All property that was acquired by either party during the marriage is considered marital property (no matter whose name is on the title), except for gifts and inherited property.
- If the marital home or other real estate is titled in the Respondent's name alone (or you are not sure whose name is on the property deed), you must file a separate document called a Notice of Lis Pendens. If you do not file a Lis Pendens, and the property is sold before the divorce becomes final, you will not be able to get the home (or a share of it) as part of the divorce because it will be gone. See a lawyer if this may apply to your case.
- If the marital home belonged to one of the parties before the marriage, it still may be claimed as marital property if its value has increased (or the mortgage has decreased) during the marriage. See a lawyer if this may apply to your case.
- If you and/or your spouse owned or established a business, separately or together, either during the marriage or before the marriage and continuing into the marriage, the business in whole or in part may also be considered marital property. See a lawyer if this may apply to your case.
- If you or the Respondent has rights to a pension or retirement funds/assets/accounts that have built up during the marriage, this also may be considered marital property. Figuring out the true value (as opposed to the face value) of a pension or other retirement funds (and writing the proper QDRO order if it is distributed in the divorce) is very complicated. See a lawyer if this may apply to your case.
- If you think the Respondent may have acquired assets during the marriage that are unknown to you, the law has procedures to use (called "discovery") to try to find out about those assets. If it is important to you to try to learn more about the Respondent's assets, you should see a lawyer.

Check only one (1) box.

- (a) Check box a if you and the Respondent have already divided your marital property and you are both satisfied with the division.
- (b) Check box b if you and the Respondent did not acquire any property during your marriage (or if the property is already gone).
- (c) Check box c if you and the Respondent did acquire property during your marriage and you are asking for a fair division of that property.

Note: If you check this box, you must provide the Court with information about the property that you and the Respondent have acquired at any time during the marriage. Use the spaces provided under box c to describe the property and check each box that applies. Use additional paper if necessary, and attach the paper to this Petition, between pages 8 and 9. Carefully read the Notes under the “Marital Property” section at the beginning of the instructions for Paragraph 21.

- (d) Check box d if this issue cannot be decided by the Court in this divorce action because the Court cannot get personal jurisdiction over the Respondent. (See the instructions above for Paragraph 16-c.)

Paragraph 22: Joint or Marital Debts

Note: Creditors are not parties in your divorce cases. Consequently, the Court cannot take away creditors’ rights in the divorce. This means that the Court cannot prevent creditors from exercising their legal right to collect from any person who is liable for a particular debt, even if you are not in possession of the thing(s) for which the debt was incurred but you are listed as a debtor, such as a car that your spouse has always driven or the former marital home that your spouse still lives in but you have not lived in for months or years. However, the Court can enter an order in the divorce case that says one party or the other must pay a particular marital debt. If the responsible party does not pay as ordered, s/he may be held in contempt.

Check only one (1) box.

- (a) Check box a if you and the Respondent do not have any joint or marital debts.
- (b) Check box b if you and the Respondent have joint or marital debts. In the spaces provided, list each creditors (for example, Visa, MasterCard, etc.), the balance owed, and who you believe should pay each debt. Use additional paper if necessary, and attach it to the Petition between pages 9 and 10.
- (c) Check box c if this issue cannot be decided by the Court in this divorce action because the Court cannot get personal jurisdiction over the Respondent. (See the instructions above for Paragraph 16-c.)

Paragraph 23: Restraining Order Where Violence Has Occurred

Do not check this box if there has not been any history of violent acts against you by the Respondent.

Check this box only if there has been a history of physical violence by the Respondent toward you, and you are afraid that the Respondent will continue the violent acts or harassment against you.

The restraining order in a divorce is not enforceable by warrantless arrest. It can only be enforced by a Motion for Contempt.

Note: If there has been recent physical violence (or past physical violence plus a recent threat to renew that violence), you should consider filing a Temporary Protective Order (TPO) immediately. A TPO provides much stronger and faster protect than a restraining order in a divorce case. There is no charge for filing a TPO petition, and free help is available for filing one. Contact Haven House at 770-954-9229 to get more information about TPOs.

Paragraph 24: Restore Former Name

Check this box only if you want the Court to restore your former or maiden name. On the space provided, write the name you want to have restored. Make sure you write the full name legibly. Do not use initials or nicknames.

Note: This is not a name change action and cannot be used for anyone except the wife or husband in this divorce action.

Paragraph 25: Grounds for Divorce

Check only the boxes that you can prove in court if your case goes to trial.

- (a) Check box a if there is no hope that you and the Respondent can save this marriage. This is the language for grounds in most cases, and may be the only grounds you choose. It is the basis for granting a divorce when fault is not proven. It can and should be used as a “back-up” if you check other grounds based on some kind of fault but fail to prove the fault to the judge’s satisfaction at court.
- (b) Check box b if the Respondent has committed acts of cruelty against you. On the spaces provided, you must tell the Court what cruel acts the Respondent did to you.
- (c) Check box c if the Respondent had sexual relations with someone else while you have been married to each other.
- (d) Check box d if the Respondent left you intentionally and has not come back for at least a year.
- (e) Check box e if you can prove and want to state other grounds for divorce. You must research the law under O.C.G.A. § 19-5-3, and tell the Court what other grounds for divorce you are asserting. Use the space provided or attach additional paper between pages 10 and 11.

Final Paragraph: Request for Relief

Check only the boxes that apply.

- (a) Check box a if you want the Court to grant you a total divorce from the Respondent. Make sure you have also completed Paragraph 25. You must check this box if you want a divorce! The Court cannot and will not grant you a divorce unless this box is checked.
- (b) Check box b if you want the Settlement Agreement signed by you and the Respondent to be incorporated in the Final Judgment and Decree of Divorce. Make sure you have also completed Paragraph 6 and that both parties have signed the Settlement Agreement in front of a notary public.
- (c) Check box c if you want the Court to order custody and visitation according to Paragraphs 14 and 15. Make sure you have completed those paragraphs.
- (d) Check box d if you want the Court to order child support, health insurance, medical expenses, and life insurance according to Paragraphs 16, 17, 18, and 19. Make sure you have completed those paragraphs.

- (e) Check box e if you want the Court to order the Respondent to pay alimony for your support. Make sure you have completed Paragraph 20.
- (f) Check box f if you want the Court to divide the marital property as described in Paragraph 21. Make sure you have correctly and completely filled out Paragraph 21, after carefully reading the notes at the beginning of the instructions for that paragraph.
- (g) Check box g if you want the Court to assign responsibility for payments of joint or marital debts as described in Paragraph 22. Make sure you have correctly and completely filled out Paragraph 22, after carefully reading the notes at the beginning of the instructions for that paragraph.
- (h) Check box h if you want the Court to temporarily and permanently restrain the Respondent from harassing you or committing any further acts of violence toward you. Make sure you have completed Paragraph 23.
- (i) Check box i if you want the Court to restore your former or maiden name according to Paragraph 24. Make sure you have completed that paragraph and have not used any initials or nicknames.
- (j) Check box j if you want the Court to schedule a Rule Nisi (hearing on temporary issues). Complete a Rule Nisi form for the Court to complete and sign. See additional information about this in Step 7 below.
- (k) Check box k as a “back-up” to allow for any other relief the Court finds appropriate in your case.

Signature and Date

To finish the Petition form, add the date on which you are signing it, sign your name in the space provided on the last page, and write your address and a daytime telephone number where the Court staff could reach you if necessary. However, if you are living in a shelter for victims of family violence, do not list the address of the shelter. Instead, you should write another address where you can be sure that you will receive any information that is mailed to you by the Court or the Respondent.

STEP 2: VERIFICATION FORM

The Verification form must be filled out with the Petition for Divorce. In the caption, insert your name as the Petitioner and your spouse’s name as the Respondent. Do not fill in the Civil Action Case Number. The clerk will assign a number to your case when you file your case in the Clerk’s office. Insert your name in the space underneath the word “Verification,” which is the title of this document. In the next space, insert the title of the document you are verifying as true, which is “Petition for Divorce With Minor Children.”

Before you sign this Verification, remember that you will be swearing under oath that the information you have provided in the Petition for Divorce is true. You should re-read the Petition one more time, from start to finish, to make sure it is all accurate. Then take the Petition and this Verification to a notary public. (See pages 2 and 3 above to find out the other forms you will need to have notarized.) Sign your name in front of the notary public in the space provided, and check the box to indicate that you are the Petitioner. The notary must complete the rest of the Verification form after you sign it under oath. The staff at the Superior Court Clerk’s Office can notarize this document for free, but you must have proper identification such as a driver’s license or passport.

STEP 3: OTHER DOCUMENTS & COPIES

To start your divorce case, you must complete and file several other forms in addition to the Petition and Verification. Some of these forms need to be signed in front of a notary public. (The forms you will need are listed on pages 2 and 3 of these instructions.)

After you have finished filling out all of the required papers to start your case, and all have been signed (in front of a notary public where required), make two (2) complete sets of copies of all papers that you are going to file. Then, separate the copies into three packets: (1) all of the originals to be filed with the Clerk of Court, (2) one set of copies for your spouse (called the “service copy”), and (3) one set of copies for you to keep for your own records.

STEP 4: FEES

The court filing fee for a divorce action may be obtained from the Superior Court Clerk’s Office. You should contact someone in that office to determine what forms of payment are acceptable. The phone number to the Henry County Superior Court Clerk’s Office is 770-288-8022.

In addition, there is a service fee of $50.00 if the Sheriff’s Department is going to serve this action. This fee is subject to change.

Note: If you have a low income and feel that you cannot afford to pay these fees, you can ask the Court to waive the court filing fee and service fee. To do this, you should file the Poverty Affidavit and Order on Poverty Affidavit forms along with your other forms that you have taken to the Clerk’s Office. You should submit pay stubs for the last three months or unemployment check statements for the last three months. A judge must sign the Order approving the Poverty Affidavit before the filing of your case can be completed by the Clerk’s Office staff. If the judge signs the order of approval, both the filing fee and the service fee are waived. If the judge does not approve your Poverty Affidavit, you must pay all fees before your case will proceed.

If you are serving the Respondent by publication (because you do not know where she or he can be found for service), there is a publication fee charged by the newspaper that publishes the notice. This fee will have to be paid separately from the Clerk’s Office fees. Even if the judge approves your Poverty Affidavit, you will have to pay this fee of $80.00 (subject to change) to the Daily Herald.

STEP 5: FILING

After you have completed, signed (in front of a notary, where applicable), copied, and sorted all of your paperwork, you are ready to file your case. Take all three (3) sets of forms (with the Court’s set on top), along with your cash or money orders to pay the fees, to the Henry County Superior Court Clerk’s Office. Give all three sets of documents to the clerk.

Tell the clerk if there have ever been cases about you in this court so that the case can be assigned to the proper judge. If your paperwork is complete, the clerk will keep the originals for the Court’s file. Once your fees have been paid or a Poverty Affidavit has been approved by the judge, the clerk will write the case number on the top of the set of your copies, stamp them, and return them to you. Keep these copies for your records. Your divorce case has now been filed, but you still need to arrange for service (unless you have filed an Acknowledgment of Service). You should use the third set of copies for service. In Henry County, you may arrange for Sheriff’s service while you are in the Clerk of Court’s office instead of having to make a separate trip to the Sheriff’s office.

STEP 6: SERVICE

Service is the required formal process of notifying the Respondent that the divorce action has been filed. There are three ways for service to be completed: (1) the Respondent signs an Acknowledgment of Service, (2) service by the Sheriff's Department or other approved process server, or (3) by publication.

Service by Acknowledgement of Service

This is the easiest and least expensive method, but only if the Respondent is cooperative and willing to sign an Acknowledgment of Service form in front of a notary public. You cannot sign for the Respondent, and you cannot sign as the notary witnessing the Respondent's signature, nor is it good enough for the Respondent to sign without the signature being witnessed by a notary public.

There are two different Acknowledgment of Service forms available from the ADR Office.

- (1) The Acknowledgment of Service, Consent to Jurisdiction and Venue, and Consent to Present Case is appropriate if you and the Respondent have reached an agreement and will be signing a Settlement Agreement. This form is best because it includes the consent to the present case in the same form with the acknowledgement, so you are saved a step later.
- (2) The plain Acknowledgment of Service form is appropriate if you and the Respondent have not reached a complete agreement yet, but the Respondent is willing to acknowledge service. This saves the Respondent the possible embarrassment or inconvenience of being served by the deputy sheriff, but does not give up the Respondent's right to file an Answer and have a trial if an agreement is not reached.

To use this method of service, you need to complete the appropriate form and have the Respondent sign it in front of a notary public. You should then file it with your other papers, as explained in Steps 3, 4, and 5 above.

Service by Sheriff's Department

This is the usual way for service to be completed. It is sometimes called "Personal Service," which means that the deputy sheriff or other court-approved process server hands the papers to the Respondent in person. The forms provided by the Henry County Superior Court do not include the special motion and order required to have a special process server appointed. Therefore, if the Respondent will not sign an acknowledgement, and you know an address where the Respondent can be served, you should make arrangements for the Sheriff's Department to serve the papers.

If the Respondent can be served in Henry, then the Henry County Sheriff's Department can serve the papers. You may pay the service fee at the Clerk's Office when you file the case, and leave the service copy of the papers with the clerk. The clerk will forward your payment and legal documents to the Sheriff's Department for service.

If the Respondent must be served in another county or state, the Henry County Sheriff's Department cannot serve the papers. You will need to arrange for service directly with the Sheriff's Department of the proper county. You should find out the amount of the fee, and take or send it to the proper Sheriff's Department, along with the service copy of the papers.

Whether you have service completed by the Henry County Sheriff's Department or some other Sheriff's Department, you should make sure the service copy includes the Sheriff's Entry of Service form. After the Henry County Sheriff's Department completes service, they will send the white and yellow copies to the Clerk's Office, which will then send the yellow copy to you (if you have properly filled out the form).

Service by Publication

This is a method of last resort. If you can find the Respondent, you must use one of the other two previously described methods of service. If you do not know where the Respondent lives or works, and you cannot find that information out, this is your only choice of service method. You must prove to the Court that you have tried to locate the Respondent and cannot find him/her or that the Respondent is avoiding service.

Using service by publication places special limitations on your divorce case because the Court will not have “personal jurisdiction” over the Respondent. You will not be able to get certain kinds of relief, such as child support and alimony, as part of the divorce. However, if the Respondent later acknowledges service, gets served by the sheriff, or files an Answer to the divorce, then your case will no longer be limited by the restrictions that apply to publication cases.

To serve by publication, you will need to prepare and file the following three (3) forms:

- Affidavit of Diligent Search*
- Notice of Publication, and*
- Order of Publication, Return of Service, and Order Perfecting Service*

In the Affidavit of Due Diligence, you will explain to the Court the steps you took to try to find the Respondent. You must make reasonable effort to find the Respondent before you fill out this form, which is available through the ADR Office and has its own set of instructions. The other two forms are available through the Clerk’s Office. If you know you must use service by publication when you prepare your Petition for Divorce, then you should prepare all three above listed forms at that time. However, if you have already filed your divorce case, and have tried to complete service by a different method, you can still request the Court’s permission to serve by publication.

After you file the forms and if the Court grants permission, the judge will then sign an Order of Publication. You will need to pay the cost of publication ($80.00, subject to change) at the Clerk’s Office. The Notice of Publication will then be published in the county’s official legal newspaper, the Daily Herald, four times (usually four weeks in a row). The Respondent will then have 60 days from the first date of publication to file an Answer if s/he wants to contest the case.

To be on the safe side, you should also mail a set of all the papers, called the “service copy,” to the Respondent’s last known address. Be sure to put enough postage on it, and be sure to list a return address so that the post office can return it to you if they are unable to deliver it.

After the Notice of Publication has been published all four times, you should receive an Affidavit of Publication from the Daily Herald stating that publication is complete. You must either file this Affidavit of Publication with the Clerk of Court’s office or else bring it with you to your hearing in order to prove that service by publication has been completed. Usually the judge will then sign the Order Perfecting Service (part of the three-part form listed above) at the hearing, showing that the Court has reviewed the service and finds that it was done properly.

If you later find out where the Respondent lives or works (before the case is over), you should arrange for the Sheriff’s Department to serve the Respondent or for the Respondent to acknowledge service.

STEP 7: MEDIATION (contested cases only)

After you have filed your case and the Respondent has been properly served, if you and your spouse cannot agree on all the issues in your divorce, then you are ready for the next step, which is mediation.

- For all contested domestic relations cases, complete and submit the Domestic Relations Initiation Form and Domestic Relations Screening Form to the ADR Office. These forms are available by calling the ADR Office 770-288-8448 or online at www.adr6th.org.

- Once the paperwork has been received by the ADR Office, the case will be screened to determine if it is appropriate for mediation. If for some reason the case is not appropriate, it will be released from the mediation requirement. Otherwise, it will be scheduled for a mediation session.
- Mediation is mandatory for all contested cases. Failure to appear at a scheduled mediation session may result in fines and other court sanctions.
- Once the mediation requirement has been met, a Release for Hearing will be forwarded to the Court and a copy mailed to all parties. Now you may conclude your case in one of two ways: requesting that judgment be granted without a hearing by filing a Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings (meaning that if all your paperwork is correct and complete, the judge will sign the final divorce order without you having to come to court), or by requesting a final hearing date where you will come to court and appear before the judge.

STEP 8-A: HEARINGS – IF NECESSARY

After you received your Release for Hearing, or if your case is uncontested and you have filed your case and the Respondent has been properly served, you are ready for the next step, which is either a temporary hearing (called a Rule Nisi) or the final hearing.

Temporary Hearing (Rule Nisi)

A temporary hearing is not required. However, if your case will not be ready for a final hearing (because you do not have a signed agreement and do not expect to have one soon), there may be issues that need to be decided on a temporary basis before the final hearing. In that situation, you may ask the Court to schedule a Rule Nisi temporary hearing. In a divorce without minor children, temporary issues may include alimony, living arrangements, use of an automobile, or who is responsible for certain payments while the divorce is pending.

To schedule a Rule Nisi temporary hearing, you should complete a Rule Nisi form which has its own separate instructions. If you know you want a temporary hearing when you are getting ready to file your divorce case, you can copy, sort, and file the Rule Nisi form with your other paperwork. (See steps 3, 4, and 5 above). After your case is filed with the Clerk’s Office, you should take the original copy of the Rule Nisi and at least one copy to the office of the judge assigned to your case. The judge’s staff will schedule a date for the Rule Nisi and fill out that part of the Rule Nisi form.

Final Hearing

- With a Signed Settlement Agreement

If you have a signed Settlement Agreement, you may arrange to have the final hearing take place any time at least 31 days after the Respondent was personally served (or the Acknowledgment of Service was filed with the Clerk). Most of the judges and other court personnel call this type of hearing an “uncontested” divorce hearing. The judges schedule them in different ways. You should check with the staff for the judge assigned to your case to find out how that particular judge schedules these hearings.

If the Respondent signed the form called Acknowledgement of Service, Consent to Jurisdiction and Venue, and Consent to Present Case, then you are not required to give the Respondent notice of the date and time of the final hearing.

If the Respondent signed the other Acknowledgement of Service form (which does not waive the right to notice of the hearing), then you should mail a notice to the Respondent, telling the date, time, and place of the final hearing. Then, you should file a Certificate of Service with the Superior Court Clerk’s Office (showing that you mailed or delivered proper notice to the Respondent).

- Without a Signed Settlement Agreement

If you do not have a signed Settlement Agreement, then your final hearing may take place any time at least 46 days after the Respondent was personally served (or the Acknowledgment of Service was filed with the Clerk). If the service was by publication, the hearing may take place any time after 61 days from the date of the first publication. The judges schedule these final hearings in different ways. You should check with the staff for the judge assigned to your case, and make sure you make it clear to them that there is not a signed settlement agreement.

Sometimes the Clerk's office or judge's staff will mail notice of the hearing date to both parties. However, to be on the safe side, you should also mail a copy of the hearing notice to the Respondent. Then you should file a Certificate of Service with the Superior Court Clerk's Office (showing that you mailed or delivered proper notice to the Respondent).

o Before the Hearing Date

Whether for a temporary or final hearing, you must prepare your case to be presented to the Court before your hearing dates. You are your main witness. You must also gather other evidence (such as documents and photographs), bring it all with you to the courtroom (do not leave it at home or in the car), and arrange for any other witnesses that you want to have testify at the hearing. You must also prepare the proper documents to be provided to the judge at the hearing.

For a temporary hearing, you may use Affidavits from witnesses so that they do not have to testify in person. However, there are special procedures for this. See Uniform Superior Court Rule 24.5.

At the final hearing, Affidavits are not proper evidence. Your witnesses (if any) must testify in person at the hearing.

If you have a Final Divorce Hearing set on a case involving minor children, be sure to bring all of the following to the hearing:

- (a) Settlement Agreement – If you and your spouse have agreed on every issue, bring a Settlement Agreement that has been completed, signed, and notarized by both parties. Be sure that it includes the attached Parenting Plan, and make absolutely certain that the provisions (such as visitation, custody, and child support) in the two documents are consistent with each other. (Include Exhibit A – Visitation Schedule if a separate sheet for visitation information is required).
- (b) Child Support Worksheet – Even if you do not have a Settlement Agreement, go ahead and provide a fully completed Worksheet showing a final award of support that is consistent with the final award noted in all other documents such as the Child Support Addendum and Final Judgment and Decree of Divorce.
- (c) Child Support Addendum – Even if you do not have a Settlement Agreement, go ahead and provide the judge with a fully completed Addendum showing a final award of support that is consistent with the final award noted in all other documents such as the Child Support Worksheet and Final Judgment and Decree of Divorce.
- (d) Parenting Plan – fully completed and with provisions that are consistent with the Settlement Agreement (if applicable) and Final Judgment and Decree. Attach this document to the back of the Final Judgment and Decree.
- (e) Final Judgment and Decree of Divorce With Minor Children completed for the judge to review. Be sure to attach the Parenting Plan with your Final Judgment, which is consistent with the provisions for visitation included in your Final Judgment and Decree. (Include Exhibit A – Visitation Schedule if a separate sheet for visitation information is required.)

It would be very beneficial to talk to a lawyer about the hearing to learn more about how to present your case.

STEP 8-B: POSSIBLE ALTERNATIVE TO A FINAL HEARING: JUDGMENT ON THE PLEADINGS

Some judges will finalize a divorce action without requiring you to come to court for a final hearing. A final divorce judgment obtained in this way is done by filing a document called a Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings. Judgment on the pleadings will be granted if you have filed the motion for it AND 1) the Respondent is not contesting the case, 2) you have fully and correctly prepared all the required documents, 3) all the originals of every document have been properly signed, notarized (if required), and filed with the Clerk of Superior Court, and 4) proper service has been made on the Respondent. However, a hearing will be required if 1) the case is contested, 2) any one of the documents has not been properly filled out, signed, notarized (if required), or filed, or 3) the judge needs further information before s/he can decide your case. Therefore, include the Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings just in case the judge can grant judgment without hearing the case. It could save you a lot of time and hassle.

NEW CHILD SUPPORT GUIDELINES
EFFECTIVE JANUARY 1, 2007 FOR ALL PENDING CASES

Georgia's new child support guidelines require new paperwork in all pending cases involving child support issues. Both parties must file completed Child Support Worksheets and Schedules as a part of their case in addition to the Domestic Relations Financial Affidavit. Uniform Superior Court Rule 24.2 (enclosed) requires that you file a completed worksheet and financial affidavit with your Petition.

Where can I get help completing the Worksheet and Schedules?

Below is a list of places that might be able to help you:

Georgia Legal Services Program, Piedmont Regional Office
(404) 894-7707

Hispanic Outreach Law Project***
Provides Spanish Speaking Attorneys
(404) 377-5381

Georgia Senior Legal Hotline***
(404) 657-9915
* Services of Atlanta Legal Aid

What if I want to complete the Worksheet & Schedules on my own? Where can I get the documents?

To do a Child Support Worksheet, you must go online to the Georgia Child Support Commission website and download the most current Excel version of the Child Support Calculator (also called the Worksheet) at <http://www.georgiacourts.org/csc/>. Click on the "Start Here" tab at the bottom and follow the instructions on how to fill out the forms. Allow Excel to calculate and enter the sums in the correct place. (NOTE: Do NOT submit the EZ Worksheet short form OR a Child Support Worksheet that you have calculated yourself and written in by hand or typed on a typewriter. The Court cannot accept it, despite what the website says.) Any deviations in the presumptive child support award, upward or downward, must be listed and explained on Schedule E. The final child support award listed on the Worksheet MUST match the final award that you list in the Child Support Addendum, Settlement Agreement, and Final Judgment and Decree or Final Order.

Where can I go to get on the Internet?

Internet access is available for free at the ADR Office by appointment only. Printing is available for a small fee. Public Libraries also have free public Internet access. To find your local library, go to <http://www.georgialibraries.org/directories/>. Some libraries allow printing for a small fee. See the aforementioned page for a list of local libraries in your area where you can access a computer.

Important Points about Worksheets and Schedules:

- Both parents are required to file a Child Support Worksheet and Schedules.
- All schedules must be printed, not just the first page. If there are any deviations from the presumptive amount of child support, these deviations must be fully explained in boxes B, C, and D in Schedule E.
- Documents used to complete your Worksheet will need to be brought with you to Court.

The parties are married but currently separated; and they have _____ minor child(ren) together who is listed below:

Child’s Name	Year of Birth

The parties want to settle between themselves all questions of custody, visitation, child support, insurance, alimony, division of property, debts, and all other rights and obligations arising out of their marital relationship.

THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and declaration in this agreement, the parties agree as follows:

1. Separation

The parties shall continue to live apart and each one shall be free from all interference and control by the other, as fully as if unmarried, and each may reside at such places as s/he may choose.

2. Custody

[Check and complete only one (1) of the following choices.]

(If you want a custody arrangement that is not shown here, you should consult an attorney for the appropriate language to use in place of this section.)

- (a) The _____ shall have sole physical and legal custody of the children.
- (b) The _____ shall have physical custody of the children, and the parties shall have joint legal custody of them. The parties shall consult each other and try to reach a joint decision on all major issues concerning the children’s education, health care, and religious upbringing. However, if the parties are not able to reach a joint decision concerning one of these major issues, then the parent with physical custody shall make the final decision on the issue.

3. Visitation

The _____ shall have the right of visitation as specified with the minor children, at any time by mutual consent of the parties, provided that the beginning and ending times of the visitation have been put into writing and signed by both parties before the start of the visitation. In arranging visitation, the parties shall take into consideration the requirements of the children's school, work, activities, and child care arrangements.

- (a) If the parties cannot agree on specific visitation, the _____ shall have the right to visitation in accordance to the schedule attached to this Settlement Agreement as "Exhibit A."
- (b) The visitation parent shall notify the other parent at least 24 hours in advance of any scheduled visitation if s/he does not intend to exercise that visitation opportunity.
- (c) The visitation parent shall arrive to pick up the children for visitation within _____ minutes of the scheduled time, or shall lose that visitation opportunity.
- (d) _____ shall be responsible for transporting child to and from primary custodian's residence or (other)_____.
- (e) Unless otherwise upon in writing by the parties, the drop-off and pick-up for visitation shall be at _____.

4. Other Parental Rights

The parties acknowledge that the children have two parents who love them and want to be involved in their upbringing. The parties agree that the welfare of the children is most important and each parent agrees to encourage a feeling of affection and respect between the children and the other parent. Neither party shall involve the children in actions or communications which would endanger the children's opinion of the other party.

- (a) Addresses and Telephone Numbers – The parties agree to provide each other with their current home address and telephone number, as well as a telephone number to call in case of an emergency. They also agree to notify each other of any changes in address or telephone numbers, at least 30 days prior to a change taking place.
- (b) Telephone Communication – Neither party shall do anything to interfere with the children's communication with the other party. Each party shall have the right to call and talk to the children when they are in the care of the other party, up to one time each day, at the expense of the calling parent. Calls shall be made between the hours of _____ a.m. and _____ p.m.
- (c) School Information – The parties agree that it is in the best interest of the children that both parents participate in the children's educational activities to the fullest extent possible. Therefore, both parties shall have equal access to the children's school records, and both parents shall have the right to be provided information concerning the children's progress in school.

- (d) Health Information – Each party shall be entitled to complete, detailed information from any physician, dentist, or other health care provider attending to any of the children. Each party shall notify the other party of the children’s major illnesses and medical treatments.

5. Child Support, Health Insurance, and Health Care Expenses

The statutory requirements of O.C.G.A. § 19-6-15 (Child Support Guidelines) have been applied in reaching the amount of child support provided under the final order in this action. The specifics are as follows:

- (a) Gross Income – The Father’s gross monthly income (before taxes) is $ _____; the Mother’s gross monthly income (before taxes) is $ _____.
- (b) Children – The number of children for whom support is being provided under this order is _____. Their names and years of birth are:

Child’s Name	Year of Birth

- (c) Attachments – The Child Support Worksheet and Schedules are attached hereto, along with any other applicable schedules.
- (d) Child Support Amount – The _____ shall pay to the _____ for the support of the minor child(ren), the sum of $ _____ per month, beginning with a payment of $ _____ on the first (1st) day of each and every month thereafter until the minor child(ren) reach the age of majority, become self-supporting, marry, die, no longer reside with the _____, or are otherwise emancipated, whichever of these events shall first occur. PROVIDED HOWEVER, that if at the time the parties’ children attain eighteen (18) years of age, s/he has not graduated from high school and is then enrolled full time in high school and progressing toward graduation in the normal course, then such child support shall continue until such time as said children graduate from high school, are no longer enrolled full time and progressing normally, or attain the age of twenty (20) years, whichever first occurs.

- (e) Deviation from Presumptive Amount

- (a) No Deviation – It has been determined that none of the deviations allowed under O.C.G.A. § 19-6-15 applies in this case, as shown by the attached Schedule E. The amount of support in Paragraph 3 above is the Presumptive Amount of child support shown on the attached Child Support Worksheet.
- (b) Deviation – It has been determined that one or more of the Deviations allowed under O.C.G.A. § 19-6-15 applies in this case, as shown by the attached Schedule E. The Presumptive Amount of Child Support that would have been required under O.C.G.A. § 19-6-15, if the deviations had not been applied, is $ _____ per month, as shown on the attached Child Support Worksheet. The attached Schedule E explains the reasons for the deviation, how the application of the guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate considering the relative ability of each parent to provide support, and how the best interest of the children who are subject to this child support determination is served by deviation from the Presumptive Amount of Child Support.

(f) Health, Dental & Vision Insurance for Children

[Check and complete all parts of only one (1) of the following choices.]

- (a) Insurance Available – The following insurance for the children involved in this action is available at a reasonable cost to the _____ through that parent’s employer or the PeachCare Program:     Health (medical, mental health, and hospitalization)     Dental     Vision
So long as it remains available to that parent, the _____ shall maintain the types of insurance checked above for the benefit of the minor children, until each child reaches the age of eighteen (18), dies, marries, or otherwise becomes emancipated; except that if a child becomes eighteen years old while enrolled in and attending secondary school on a full-time basis, then the insurance shall be continued for the child until the child has graduated from secondary school or reaches twenty (20) years of age, whichever occurs first.

- (1) The parent who maintains the insurance shall provide the other parent with an insurance identification card or such other acceptable proof of insurance coverage and shall cooperate with the other parent in submitting claims under the policy.
- (2) All money received by one of the parties for claims processed under the insurance policy shall be paid within five (5) days after the party receives the money, to the other party (if that other party paid the applicable health care service provider) or to the applicable health care provider (if the provider has not been paid by one of the parties).

- (b) Insurance Not Available – Insurance (other than Medicaid) is not available at this time to either party at a reasonable cost. If health insurance for the children later becomes available to the parent who is required to pay child support for these children, then that parent must obtain the following types of insurance, unless it is then being provided by the other parent:  Health (medical, mental health, and hospitalization)  Dental  Vision. When insurance has been obtained by either party, Paragraphs 6(f)(a)(1) and (2) shall apply.

- (g) Uninsured Health Care Expenses – The Father shall pay _____% and the Mother shall pay _____% of all expenses incurred for the children’s health care (including medical, dental, mental health, hospital, and vision care) that are not covered by insurance. The party who incurs a health care expense for one of the children shall provide verification of the amount to the other party. That other party shall reimburse the incurring party (or pay the health care provider directly) for the appropriate percentage of the expense, within thirty (30) days after receiving the verification of a particular health care expense.

- (h) Parenting Time Amounts – The approximate number of days of parenting time per year according to the visitation order is _____ days for the Father and _____ days for the Mother.

(i) Continuing Garnishment for Child Support – Whenever, in violation of the terms of the order, there shall have been a failure to make the support payments, so that the amount unpaid is equal to or greater than the amount payable for one month, the payments required to be made may also be collected by the process of continuing garnishment for support.

(j) Income Deduction Order

[Check and complete only one (1) of the following choices.]

(a) The parties have completed an Income Deduction Order, which they are submitting with this Agreement, and it shall be entered by the Court, under O.C.G.A. § 19-6-32, for payment of the child support and alimony (if any) provided. The Income Deduction Order shall take effect:

[To finish (a), you must check (1) or (2) as follows. Do not check both.]

(1) immediately upon entry by the Court.

(2) upon accrual of a delinquency equal to one month's support. The Income Deduction Order may be enforced by serving a Notice of Delinquency, as provided in O.C.G.A. § 19-6-32(f).

(b) The parties agree that an Income Deduction Order is not immediately necessary.

(c) The Court finds that there is good cause not to require income deduction, having determined that income deduction will not serve the children's best interests and that there has been sufficient proof of timely payment of any previously ordered support.

6. Alimony

(a) The _____ shall pay to the _____ as alimony, the sum of _____ Dollars ($_____)  monthly/  semi-monthly (twice per month)/  bi-weekly (every two weeks)/  weekly, beginning on _____, and continuing  monthly/  semi-monthly (twice per month)/  bi-weekly (every two weeks)/  weekly thereafter,

(b) The parties acknowledge that they possess various items of marital property, which shall be divided as provided in this Settlement Agreement. The parties agree to transfer possession and title to their property as follows:

- (1) Martial Home – The martial home of the parties, located at the following address: _____, _____, _____, Shall be conveyed to the _____ in fee simple. The legal description of the property appears on the deed, a copy of which is attached to this Settlement Agreement. The _____ shall be responsible for all taxes, assessments, and mortgage loan payments on the home after the date or _____.
- (A) The _____ shall have a protected interest in the home in the amount of _____ Dollars ($_____). Upon the sale or transfer of the home, the protected interest shall be paid.
- (B) The _____ shall immediately begin making reasonable efforts to refinance the outstanding mortgage(s) on the marital home, so that the _____ shall no longer be liable on the mortgage loan(s). If the _____ is not able to refinance by _____, 20____, the home shall then be listed for sale at a reasonable price, and all reasonable offers to purchase the home shall be accepted.
- (2) Vehicles – The vehicles owned by the parties shall be transferred or retained as follows:

Year/Make/Model of Vehicle	Vehicle ID # (VIN)	Goes To

The party listed above for each vehicle shall be responsible for all car loan payments, ad valorem taxes, registration fees, and insurance on that vehicle accruing after the following date: _____, 20____.

Upon the failure of either party to this Agreement, this Agreement shall constitute and operate as the properly executed document. The county auditor, county recorder, Department of Motor Vehicles, and all other public and private officials are authorized and directed to accept this Agreement, or a properly certified copy of it, in lieu of the document regularly required for the conveyance or transfer.

Except as provided in this Agreement, the parties have divided their marital property, including any real estate, vehicles, household furniture, furnishings, household goods, equipment, bank accounts, pensions, and other personal property. Neither party shall claim any of the property in the possession of the other party as of the date of signing this Agreement, except as provided in this Agreement.

8. Debts

[Check and complete only one (1) of the following choices.]

- (a) The parties acknowledge that they have no outstanding joint or marital debts.
- (b) The responsibility for payment of the parties’ joint and marital debts shall be as follows:

Creditor	Amount	Responsible Party

The responsible party listed above for each debt shall hold the other party harmless for any collections on that debt. If legal action is brought against the other party to recover that debt, the responsible party agrees to indemnify or hold the other party harmless and, in addition, to pay all attorney’s fees and costs of collection which the other party may incur as a result of the legal action.

9. Tax and Bankruptcy Construction of this Agreement

The parties acknowledge that the equitable division of marital property and the payment of marital and joint debts, if provided in this Agreement, shall not be deductible or taxable for income tax purposes. Each party also acknowledges that, but for the payments provided here, the other party’s financial independence would be impaired. Therefore, it is the parties’ intention that if either party ever seeks bankruptcy protection, the amounts payable under this Agreement shall not be dischargeable in bankruptcy under 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(5), as the payments are in the nature of spousal or child support and maintenance. Alternatively, the payments shall be non-dischargeable in bankruptcy under 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(15).

10. Consent Mutual Restraining Order

[This paragraph is optional. Check the box if the paragraph is applicable to your situation.]

The parties shall be permanently restrained and enjoined from assaulting, beating, wounding, threatening, harassing, and stalking each other. By consenting to this, the parties in no way admit that such acts were ever done in the past, but agree not to engage in such acts in the future. This provision shall be enforceable by the Court’s contempt power.

11. Voluntariness of Agreement

The parties acknowledge that they have entered into this Agreement freely and voluntarily, and that it is not the result of any duress or any undue influence. They have agreed to enter into this Agreement based on their knowledge of the income and assets of the parties and their written statement in this Agreement. After considering all of this, they have decided to enter into this Agreement freely and voluntarily.

12. Completeness of Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding of the parties. There are no representations or promises other than those expressly included in this Agreement. Each party hereby states under oath that the financial representations in this Agreement are accurate and complete, to the best of that party’s information, knowledge, and belief.

13. Effect of Divorce

Both parties understand that this Agreement does not require them to continue to live separately or to proceed with an action for divorce. However, if either party brings or maintains an action for divorce, this Agreement shall be presented to the Court and incorporated by reference into any judgment concerning the matters covered by the Agreement. Even if it becomes part of a divorce judgment, this Agreement shall survive and can be enforced independently from the judgment of divorce.

[You must check & complete only one of the following paragraphs.]

- ( ) (a) Not Split Parenting Case - This case does not involve Split Parenting.

would have been required under OCGA §19-6-15 if the deviations had not been applied is $ _____ per month, as shown on the attached Child Support Worksheet. The attached Schedule E explains the reasons for the deviation, how the application of the guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate considering the relative ability of each parent to provide support, and how the best interest of the children who are subject to this child support determination is served by deviation from the presumptive amount of child support.

[You must check & complete all parts of only one of the following paragraphs, (a) or (b).]

- ( ) (a) Insurance Available - The following insurance for the children involved in this action is available at a reasonable cost to the _____ through that parent's employer or the PeachCare program:

It is hereby ordered that the marriage contract entered into between the parties is hereby set aside from this date, and fully dissolved. The Petitioner and the Respondent in the future shall be held and considered as separate and distinct persons, altogether unconnected by any nuptial union or civil contract whatsoever, and both shall have the right to remarry.

THE COURT HEREBY FINDS THAT the parties have _____ minor children together, who are listed below:

2. Visitation

- (a) The _____ shall have the right of visitation with the minor children, at any time by mutual consent of the parties, provided that the beginning and ending times of the visitation have been put into writing and signed by both parties before the start of the visitation. In arranging visitation, the parties shall take into consideration the requirements of the children’s school work, their activities, and child care arrangements. Unless otherwise agreed by the parties in writing, the drop-off and pick-up for visitation shall be at _____.

The _____ shall notify the _____ at least 24 hours in advance of any scheduled visitation if s/he does not intend to exercise that visitation opportunity. The _____ shall arrive to pick up the children for visitation within _____ minutes of the scheduled time, or shall lose that visitation opportunity. If the parties cannot agree on specific visitation, the _____ shall have the right to visitation according to the schedule attached to this Final Judgment and Decree as “Exhibit A.”

- (b) No visitation is ordered at this time.

- (c) The _____ shall have visitation with the minor children as follows:

3. Other Parental Rights

[Check (a) or as many of the others below that apply. Do not check (a) if you check any of the others.]

- (a) None of the parental rights listed below in (b) through (d) is ordered at this time.
- (b) Addresses and Telephone Numbers – The parties shall provide each other with their current home address and telephone number, as well as a telephone number to call in case of emergency. They shall also notify each other of any change in the address or telephone numbers, at least 30 days prior to the change.
- (c) Telephone Communication – Neither party shall do anything to interfere with the children communicating with the other party. Each party shall have the right to call and talk to the children when they are in the care of the other party, up to one time each day, between the hours of _____ a.m. and _____ p.m. Calls shall be made at the expense of the calling parent.

- (e) Health Information – Each party shall be entitled to complete, detailed information from any physician, dentist, or other health care provider attending any of the children. Each party shall notify the other of the children’s major illnesses and medical treatments.

4. Child Support

[Check and complete only one (1) of the following choices.]

- (a) This issue is not addressed in this Final Judgment, either because the Court lacks personal jurisdiction over the Respondent, or because the parties have not asked the Court to decide the issue of child support.
- (b) Application of Child Support Guidelines – The statutory requirements of O.C.G.A. § 19-6-15 have been applied in reaching the amount of child support provided under the Final Order in this action. The specifics are as follows:

- (1) Gross Income – The Father’s gross monthly income (before taxes) is $ _____; the Mother’s gross monthly income (before taxes) is $ _____.
- (2) Children – The number of children for whom support is being provided under this order is _____. Their names and years of birth are as follows:

Child’s Name	Year of Birth

- (3) Attachments – The Child Support Worksheet and Schedules are attached hereto, along with any other applicable schedules.
- (4) Child Support Amount – The _____ shall pay to the _____, for the support of the minor child(ren) the sum of _____ dollars ($ _____) per month, beginning on _____, 20_____, and continued with a payment of _____ dollars ($ _____) on the ____ day of each and every month thereafter until the minor child(ren) reach the age of majority, become self-supporting, marry, die, no longer reside with the _____, or are otherwise emancipated, whichever of these events shall first occur. PROVIDED HOWEVER, that if at the time the parties’ children reach eighteen (18) years of age, s/he has not graduated from high school and is then enrolled full time in high school and progressing toward graduation in the normal course, then such child support shall continue until such time as said child(ren) graduate from high school, are no longer enrolled full time and progressing normally, or attain the age of twenty (20) years, whichever first occurs.
- (5) Deviation from Presumptive Amount

- (a) No Deviation – It has been determined that none of the deviations allowed under O.C.G.A. § 19-6-15 applies in this case, as shown by the attached Schedule E. The amount of support in Paragraph 3 above is the Presumptive Amount of child support shown on the attached Child Support Worksheet.

- (b) Deviation – It has been determined that one or more of the Deviations allowed under O.C.G.A. § 19-6-15 applies in this case, as shown by the attached Schedule E. The Presumptive Amount of Child Support that would have been required under O.C.G.A. § 19-6-15, if the deviations had not be applied, is $_____ per month, as shown on the attached Child Support Worksheet. The attached Schedule E explains the reasons for the deviation, how the application of the guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate considering the relative ability of each parent to provide support, and how the best interest of the children who are subject to this child support determination is served by deviation from the Presumptive Amount of Child Support.

(6) Health, Dental, & Vision Insurance for Children

[Check and complete only one (1) of the following choices.]

- (a) Insurance Available – The following insurance for the children involved in this action is available at a reasonable cost to the _____ through that parent’s employer or the PeachCare Program:
  - Health (medical, mental health, and hospitalization)     Dental     Vision
 So long as it remains available to that parent, the _____ shall maintain the types of insurance checked above for the benefit of the minor children, until each child reaches the age of eighteen (18), dies, marries, or otherwise becomes emancipated; except that if a child becomes eighteen years old while enrolled in and attending secondary school on a full-time basis, then the insurance shall be continued for the child until the child has graduated from secondary school or reaches twenty (20) years of age, whichever occurs first.
  - (1) The parent who maintains the insurance shall provide the other parent with an insurance identification card or such other acceptable proof of insurance coverage and shall cooperate with the other parent in submitting claims under the policy.
  - (2) All money received by one of the parties for claims processed under the insurance policy shall be paid within five (5) days after the party receives the money, to the other party (if that other party paid the applicable health care service provider) or to the applicable health care provider (if the provider has not been paid by one of the parties).
- (b) Insurance Not Available – Insurance (other than Medicaid) is not available at this time to either party at a reasonable cost. If health insurance for the children later becomes available to the parent who is required to pay child support for these children, then that parent must obtain the following types of insurance, unless it is then being provided by the other parent:
  - Health (medical, mental health, and hospitalization)     Dental     Vision.
 When insurance has been obtained by either party, Paragraphs 4(b)(6)(a)(1) and (2) shall apply.
- (c) Insurance Not Available – This issue is not addressed in this Final Judgment, either because the Court lacks personal jurisdiction over the Respondent, or because neither party has asked the Court to address the issue of children’s health care expenses in this action. When insurance has been obtained by either party, Paragraphs 4(b)(6)(a)(1) and (2) shall apply.

- (7) Uninsured Health Care Expenses – The Father shall pay _____% and the Mother shall pay _____% of all expenses incurred for the children’s health care (including medical, dental, mental health, hospital, and vision care) that are not covered by insurance. The party who incurs a health care expense for one of the children shall provide verification of the amount to the other party. That other party shall reimburse the incurring party (or pay the health care provider directly) for the appropriate percentage of the expense, within thirty (30) days after receiving the verification of a particular health care expense.
- (8) Parenting Time Amounts – The approximate number of days of parenting time per year according to the Visitation Order is _____ days for the Father and _____ for the Mother.
- (9) Continuing Garnishment for Child Support – Whenever, in violation of the terms of the order, there shall have been a failure to make payments, so that the amount unpaid is equal to or greater than the amount payable for one month, the payments required to be made may also be collected by the process of continuing garnishment for support.
- (10) Income Withholding Order

[Check and complete only one (1) of the following choices.]

- (a) The parties shall prepare and submit an Income Withholding Order which shall be entered by the Court, under O.C.G.A. § 19-6-32, for payment of child support and alimony (if any) provided. The Income Withholding Order shall take effect:
- (1) immediately upon entry by the Court.
- (2) upon accrual of a delinquency equal to one month’s support. The Income Withholding Order may be enforced by serving a Notice of Delinquency, as provided in O.C.G.A. § 19-6-32(f).
- (b) The parties agree that an Income Withholding Order is not immediately necessary.
- (c) The Court finds that there is good cause to not require income deduction, having determined that income deduction will not serve the children’s best interests and that there has been sufficient proof of timely payment of any previously ordered support.

5. Life Insurance for the Benefit of the Children

[Check and complete only one (1) of the following choices.]

- (a) This issue is not addressed in this Final Judgment, either because the Court lacks personal jurisdiction over the Respondent, or because neither party has asked the Court to address the issue of life insurance for the benefit of the children in this action.
- (b) The children depend on the _____ for financial support, and therefore the _____ shall maintain a policy of insurance on his/her life, with a face amount of at least $_____, for the benefit of the minor children. The policy shall be maintained for as long as at least one of the children is a minor or is otherwise entitled to support under this Final Judgment.

- (c) The children depend on both of the parties for financial support, and therefore each party shall maintain a policy of insurance on his/her life, with a face amount of at least $ _____, for the benefit of the minor children. Both policies shall be maintained for so long as at least one of the children is a minor or is otherwise entitled to support under this Final Judgment.

6. Alimony

[Check and complete only one (1) of the following choices.]

- (a) The issue is not addressed in this Final Judgment, either because the Court lacks personal jurisdiction over the Respondent, or because neither party has asked the Court to address the issue of alimony in this action.
- (b) The _____ shall pay to the _____ as alimony, the sum of _____ dollars ($ _____) per month, beginning on _____, 20_____, and continuing monthly thereafter:
  - (1) until the recipient remarries or dies.
  - (2) for a period of _____.
  - (c) Neither party is entitled to receive alimony from the other party.

7. Property Division

[Check and complete only one (1) of the following choices.]

- (a) This issue is not addressed because the Court does not have personal jurisdiction over the Respondent.
- (b) The parties have already made a division of their marital property, including any real estate, vehicles, household furniture, furnishings, household goods, equipment, bank accounts, pensions, and other personal property. Neither party shall claim any of the property in the possession of the other party as of the date of this Final Judgment.
- (c) The parties possess various items of marital property, which shall be divided as provided in this Final Judgment. The parties shall transfer possession and title to their property as follows:
  - (1) Marital Home – The martial home of the parties, located at the following address:

which has the following legal description on the deed to the property:

_____
_____

shall be conveyed to the _____ in fee simple. The _____ shall be responsible for all taxes, assessments, and mortgage loan payments on the home after the date of _____, 20_____.

(A) The _____ shall have a lien against the home in the amount of _____ dollars ($ _____). Upon the sale or transfer of the home, the lien shall be paid.

(B) The _____ shall immediately begin making reasonable efforts to refinance the outstanding mortgage(s) on the marital home, so that the _____ shall no longer be liable on the mortgage loan(s). If the _____ is not able to refinance by _____, 20_____, the home shall then be listed for sale at a reasonable price, and all reasonable offers to purchase the home shall be accepted until sold.

(2) Mobile Home – The parties’ mobile home, which is described as a _____, with Vehicle Identification Number (VIN) of _____ shall be transferred to the _____. The _____ shall be responsible for all loan payments on the mobile home after the date of _____, 20_____.

(3) Vehicles – The vehicles owned by the parties shall be transferred or retained as follows:

Year/Make/Model of Vehicle	Vehicle ID # (VIN)	Goes To

(4) Other Personal Property – The parties own various other items of personal property, which shall be transferred to the party listed below, on or before _____, 20_____.

To the wife, as follows:

_____

_____

_____

_____

To the husband, as follows:

_____

_____

Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement, the transfers listed above shall be completed no later than _____, 20____, and each party shall execute all documents necessary to promptly complete the transfer. Upon the failure of either party to execute and deliver any deed or other document necessary to complete the transfers required by this Final Judgment, this Judgment shall constitute and operate as the properly executed document. The county auditor, county recorder, Department of Motor Vehicles, and all other public and private officials are authorized and directed to accept this Judgment or a properly certified copy of it in lieu of the document regularly required for the conveyance or transfer.

Except as provided in this Judgment, the parties have divided their marital property, including any real estate, vehicles, household furniture, furnishings, household goods, equipment, bank accounts, pensions, and other personal property. Neither party shall claim any of the property in the possession of the other party as of the date of signing this Final Judgment, excepted as provided in this Final Judgment.

8. Debts

[Check and complete only one (1) of the following choices.]

- (a) This issue is not addressed in this Final Judgment because the Court does not have personal jurisdiction over the Respondent.
- (b) The parties have no outstanding joint or marital debts.
- (c) The responsibility for payment of the parties' joint and marital debts shall be as follows:

Creditor	Amount	Responsible Party

The responsible party listed above for each debt shall hold the other party harmless for any collections on that debt. If legal action is brought against the other party to recover that debt, the responsible party agrees to indemnify or hold the other party harmless and, in addition, to pay all attorney's fees and costs of collection which the other party may incur as a result of the legal action.

9. Bankruptcy Construction of this Judgment

The Court finds that, but for the payments and transfers provided in this Final Judgment, the receiving party's financial independence would be impaired. Therefore, it is the Court's intention that if either party ever seeks bankruptcy protection, the amounts payable under this Agreement should not be dischargeable in a bankruptcy under 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(5), as the payments are in the nature of spousal or child support and maintenance. Alternatively, the payments should be non-dischargeable in bankruptcy under 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(15).

10. Restraining Order

[Check and complete only one (1) of the following choices.]

- (a) No permanent restraining order is entered in this action.

The Court has reviewed the foregoing Final Judgment and Decree, and it is hereby made the order of this Court.

This Order entered on _____ day of _____, 20_____.
