GENERAL INFORMATION

WHO MUST FILE A RETURN

Every nonresident who had income subject to Walker City income tax in 2012 of $600 or more must file a return by April 30, 2013. See Taxable Income paragraph below.

Married persons may file either a joint return or separate returns. The total Walker income of both spouses must be included on a joint return, and each spouse must sign the return.

If you do not meet the requirements for filing a return but Walker tax was withheld or estimated tax was paid, you must file a return to receive a refund.

Every trust or estate with gross income of $600 or more subject to Walker tax must file a Walker Schedule G with Form W-1040NR. Schedule G is available from the Walker City Income Tax Department.

WHO MUST USE THIS FORM

Individuals who were nonresidents of the City of Walker during the entire year and worked in Walker must use this form.

An individual who was a resident of Walker during any part of the year must file form W-1040R (Resident form).

EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE

The due date of this return may be extended for a period not to exceed six months. When a city extension is granted, tentative tax must be paid by April 30, 2013. Applications for extensions are available online at www.ci.walker.mi.us/incometaxforms.

Applying for a Federal extension does not satisfy the requirement to file a Walker extension.

- Military pay of members of the National Guard and the Armed Forces of the United States.
- Income received by a nonresident as the result of disability after exhausting all vacation pay, holiday pay and sick pay.

DECLARATION OF ESTIMATED TAX

If you expect that your Walker income in 2013 not subject to withholding will be more than $20,000 after deductions ($100 in tax), you must file a Declaration of Estimated Tax (form W-1040ES) for 2013 by April 30, 2013 and pay at least one-fourth (1/4) of the estimated 2013 tax with your Declaration. The three remaining payments are due at the end of June, September and January.

Failure to file a Declaration of Estimated Tax and make the required payments will result in the assessment of penalty and interest for the late payment of tax.

To avoid penalty and interest charges, you must pay in through withholdings and/or quarterly estimated payments at least 70% of your current year or prior year liability, whichever is lower.

If at any time during the year your income increases to such a level that one hundred dollars tax or more will be due at the end of the year, a Declaration of Estimated Tax must be filed.

The Declaration of Estimated Tax Form W-1040ES is available from the Walker City Income Tax Department or online at www.ci.walker.mi.us.
