Form 1099-R Department of the Treasury - Internal Revenue Service

- 1 This box shows your total distribution from MainePERS for 2012.
- 2a This box shows the Federal taxable portion of your earnings. If Box 2a is blank and there is an "x" in Box 2b, you and/ or your tax accountant need to determine what part of your earnings is taxable.
- 4 This box shows the amount of federal income tax already withheld from your earnings (if any).
- 5 This box shows the total of your non-taxable contributions for 2012.
- 7 This box contains a number and/or letter that represents what type of benefit or refund you received. Instructions on the reverse of Form 1099-R define the meaning of the number or letter code.
- 9b This box shows the remaining contributions to recover. This amount is reduced each year by the amount in box 5.
- 12 This box shows the amount of Maine state income tax withheld from your earnings.
- 13 This box shows the number 23, the State of Maine code number.
- 14 This box shows the amount taxable by the state in which you reside.

The three initials following the account number in the box to the left of 15 represent what type of benefit you are receiving: disability, death, service retirement, or refund.

Boxes 3, 6, 8, 9a, 10, 11, 15, 16 and 17 are blank because they are not pertinent to this MainePERS distribution.
