Nothing shall ever be construed as making it obligatory upon the Lessor to apply the said security deposit as rent; however, in the event Lessee fails to pay rent when it comes due, the Lessor shall have the option of applying some or all of the security deposit to the past due rent. If at the expiration of the term of the Lease, the Lessee shall surrender and deliver possession of the Premises in the condition required pursuant to the terms of this Lease (or shall reimburse Lessor for the cost of repairing all damage which under the terms of this Lease, the Lessee should have repaired) and shall fully have performed all of the Lessee's obligations hereunder, then in such event the security deposit less a one time turnover fee of $200.00 shall be returned to the Lessee within 30 days of the expiration of this Lease and the surrender of possession; otherwise the security deposit shall be disposed of in accordance with the terms of this Lease and the applicable Landlord & Tenant statutes of the State of Florida. If the Landlord fails to give the required notice within the thirty (30) day period, he or she forfeits the right to impose a claim upon the security deposit.*

(b) Unless the tenant objects to the imposition of the landlord's claim or the amount thereof within 15 days after receipt of the landlord's notice of intention to impose a claim, the landlord may then deduct the amount of his or her claim and shall remit the balance of the deposit to the Tenant within thirty (30) days after the date of the notice of intention to impose a claim for damages.

(c) If either party institutes an action in a court of competent jurisdiction to adjudicate his right to the security deposit, the prevailing party is entitled to receive his or her court costs plus a reasonable fee for his or her attorney. The court shall advance the cause on the calendar.

LESSOR WILL MAKE SECURITY DEPOSIT REFUNDS BY ONE CHECK, JOINTLY PAYABLE TO ALL RESIDENTS WHO HAVE SIGNED THE LEASE. ALL PARTIES ON THE CHECK MUST ENDORSE THE CHECK IN ORDER FOR IT TO BE CASHED. In the event the Lessee fails or refuses to perform the covenants contained herein, the Lessor or any of its agents or servants may enter the Premises or attempt to perform the Lessee's covenants as provided for herein without affecting the tenancy or terminating this Lease or the Lessee's occupancy of the Premises and without the same constituting any constructive or actual eviction, and upon completion thereof by the Lessor, the Lessee shall pay the Lessor the original cost of the items being replaced or repaired immediately upon demand or the Lessor may, at the Lessor's election, treat the Lessee's failure to comply with these covenants as constituting the Lessee in default under this Lease. No duty imposed by the terms of this paragraph upon the Lessee shall extend to or include a situation in which the damage involved is occasioned wholly by wear and tear or natural depreciation or obsolescence or by fire, windstorm, or other state of affairs, which is not attributable to the fault, or neglect of the Lessee.

The Lessor shall not be liable for any damage caused by failure to keep the Premises in repair, and shall not be liable for any damage done by plumbing, gas, water, steam, or other pipes, or sewerage, or the bursting, leaking, or running of any cistern, tank, washstand, water closet, or waste pipe, in the building or Premises, nor for damage caused by water or anything coming through the roof, skylight, trap-door or otherwise, nor for any damage arising from acts of neglect of co tenants, or other occupants of the building, or of any owners or occupants of adjacent or contiguous property.

18. DEFAULT:

If the Lessee fails pay the Rent, breaches any of its obligations under this Lease, or fails vacates or abandons the Premises, removes Lessee's property from the Premises without satisfying its obligation for rent during the entire term of this Lease, fails to comply with any of the rules and regulations now in effect in Gables Court or such rules and regulations as may be added to or amended from time to time and such, or breaches any other conditions of this Lease, the Lessor may: (a) Treat the Lease as terminated and retake possession for its own account, thereby terminating any further liability of the Lessee; or (b) retake possession of the dwelling unit for the account of the Lessee, holding the Lessee liable for the difference between rental stipulated to be paid under the Lease agreement and what, in good faith, the Lessor is able to recover from a reletting; or (c) stand by and do nothing, holding the Lessee liable for the rent as it comes due. If the Lessor retakes possession of the dwelling unit for the account of the Lessee, the Lessor has a duty to exercise good faith in attempting to relet the Premises, and any rentals received by the Lessor as a result of the reletting shall be deducted from the balance of rent due from the Lessee. For purposes of this section, "good faith in attempting to relet the Premises" means that the Lessor shall use at least the same efforts as the Lessor uses in attempting to lease other similar rental units, but does not require the Lessor to give a preference in leasing the Premises over other vacant dwelling units that the Lessor owns or has the responsibility to rent.

Lessee agrees that in case of default the Lessee will then owe the Lessor all costs, if any, of court costs, reasonable attorney's fees and any other professional fees incurred by the Lessor. In the event of a default hereunder, Lessor shall have the right to elect to treat the Lease as terminated and in the event of such termination, Lessee's continued occupancy at Lessor's election be deemed to constitute a wrongful possession or a month to month tenancy. All rights and remedies herein are for the benefit of Lessor and are cumulative and resort to any remedy shall not be construed as an election of remedies by Lessor or to exclude or prevent Lessor's resort to any other remedy at law, equity or as otherwise provided for herein.

19. EARLY TERMINATION OPTION

(a) Conditions of Early Termination: Lessee may terminate the Lease, prior to the expiration of the Lease Term, provided Lessee fulfills all of the conditions and obligations set forth below.

(1) Lessee cannot be in Default of any provisions of the Lease on the date Lessor receives notice from Lessee that he/she is exercising the early termination option;

(2) At least 30 days in advance of the termination date, Lessor must receive from Resident written notice of Resident's intention to terminate the Lease (there will be no proration of the rent, and resident will be liable for all rent through the end of the terminating month); and

(3) Prior to vacating and/or turning in the keys to the Apartment, Lessee must pay Lessor, by certified or bank check, all rents and other charges due through the termination date, plus a termination fee of $0.00 as consideration for early termination. Lessee cannot apply the security deposit or rent paid in advance to the Termination Fee. Lessor will not prorate or refund any rent paid in advance of termination.

(b) No release from other responsibilities. The foregoing shall not release Lessee from any responsibilities or obligations regarding the damage to the Premises, and all rights regarding the Security Deposit are reserved by both Lessor and Lessee.

(c) All Lessees and other residents must vacate. The notice of termination applies to all Lessees occupants on the Lease and all others in possession. No notice of termination shall be effective unless and until the consent and signatures of all Lessees and occupants on the Lease are obtained and delivered to Lessor at the notice address.

20. ROOMMATE CHANGES

Sharing an apartment in our Community can be a rewarding and enjoyable experience for you. We welcome you to your new home and hope that the following clarification will aid you in having an enjoyable residency. An unauthorized roommate change is considered a default of the lease terms.

1. One Roommate stays, One Roommate Leaves:

a. The roommate leaving must (i) Return to the office all keys, access cards and clickers. (ii) Settle independently with the roommate(s) staying the following issues: security deposit refund, deduction of damages, if any, $200 turnover fee or their portion thereof, furniture removal, move out date, $100 roommate change fee, etc. The security deposit will remain on-hand and will not be refunded until the end of the term on the original lease to the parties remaining liable on the lease agreement. (iii) Execute this addendum with the understanding that by doing so they are relinquishing all rights, title and interest to the security deposit, occupancy or use of the apartment and community facilities. (iv) Absent the execution of this agreement by all parties to the lease, the original lease shall remain in full force and effect with the original parties (roommates). (v) This Addendum is in addition to the original lease agreement and all other terms and conditions of the original lease agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

b. The roommate(s) remaining must (i) Settle independently with the roommate(s) leaving the following issues: security deposit refund, deduction of damages, if any, $200 turnover fee or their portion thereof, furniture removal, move out date, $100 roommate change fee, etc. The security deposit will remain on-hand and will not be refunded until the end of the term on the original lease to the parties remaining liable on the lease agreement. (ii) Execute this addendum with the understanding that by doing so, they are releasing the roommate leaving from any and all liability for damages to the apartment and responsibilities or duties under the original lease executed by all. (iii) Absent the execution of this agreement by all parties to the lease, the original lease shall remain in full force and effect with the original parties (roommates). (iv) This Addendum is in addition to the original lease agreement and all other terms and conditions of the original lease agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

2. One Roommate Stays and a New Roommate moves in:

a. The roommate(s) remaining must: (i) Settle independently with the roommate(s) leaving the following issues: security deposit refund, deduction of damages, if any, $200 turnover fee or their portion thereof, furniture removal, move out date, $100 roommate change fee, etc. The entire security deposit on hand will be transferred over to the new lease and refunded according to the terms and conditions indicated in the new lease agreement. (ii) Execute a new lease agreement with the new roommate for a term of no more than one year or a minimum of the original term in the prior lease agreement. Any other term will be subject to the $150 per month short term rental fee. (Note: There is a built in incentive to execute a new lease for 12 months as this will lock in the rental rate for the full 12 months and avoid any exposure to a potential increase in the monthly rate.)

b. The NEW roommate(s) must (i) Pay the $150 application fee, fill out the application form and any other documentation necessary for approval as a resident. (ii) Execute a new lease agreement with the existing roommate for a term of no more than one year or a minimum of the original term in the prior lease agreement. Any other term will be subject to the $150 per month short term rental fee.

21. UNIT TRANSFERS

Once a lease term has expired, residents are free to transfer to any unit with no additional fees. Residents must provide the 60 day notice as required by this lease agreement, and must vacate accordingly. Unit transfers during an existing lease term are permitted with the following considerations:

1. All lease transfers are subject to a $250 transfer fee.
2. Lease transfers must include the same residents from the existing lease, otherwise the provisions explained in paragraph 20 will take effect. Residents can add roommates.
3. Lease transfers will require the signing of a new lease. If the terms of the new lease are less than 12 months, Lessee will be subject to a $150 monthly short-term fee.

22. RIGHT OF ENTRY:

The Lessor shall have the right, by itself or through its agents, contractors or employees, to enter the Premises at all reasonable hours to examine and to make such repairs and alterations as the Lessor may deem necessary or to insure itself that the Premises is being properly maintained, to close windows, secure the Premises or to do whatever else might be necessary to insure the Lessor the proper maintenance of the Premises. Lessee acknowledges the irrevocable right of the Lessor to access the Premises during reasonable hours when necessary for maintenance or for the making of emergency repairs and accordingly, Lessee shall not, without the prior written consent of Lessor, which may be withheld at Lessor's sole discretion, change, alter or add to the locks of the doors to the Premises. Violation of the foregoing shall be deemed a material breach and event of default hereunder.

23. RENTER'S INSURANCE

Gables Court advises all residents to obtain renter's insurance for their personal property, personal injuries occurring in their apartment, and/or other damages that may occur. According to the terms of the Rental Agreement, Rysal Enterprises, Gables Court, IMS, Inc. or any of its agents or affiliates are in no way responsible for damage to resident's personal property, and our insurance does not cover the personal property and belongings of residents, including vehicles and other property. Renter's insurance provides you with coverage for loss, damage, or destruction of your property. It also provides coverage for additional living expenses you may incur if the apartment becomes uninhabitable. Such insurance can also protect you from any liability claims resulting from your own activities. For example, if your negligence causes a fire, flood, etc., you may be held responsible for the damage of the property of others, including Gables Court's property. Similarly, if a guest were to have an accident in your apartment, you could be personally responsible for the guest's injuries. We strongly encourage all residents to purchase this inexpensive form of protection. (

24. DESTRUCTION OF THE PREMISES:

If the Premises, without fault of the Lessee are destroyed or damaged and becomes wholly or partially untenable the Lessor may, by writing delivered to the Lessee within thirty (30) days after such damage or destruction, elect to rebuild or repair the Premises. If the Lessor elects not to rebuild then the Lease will terminate. If the Lessor elects to rebuild or repair, then the Lessor shall have possession of the Premises and the Lessee's obligation to pay rent shall cease on the date the Lessee delivers possession of the Premises. The Lessee's obligation to pay rent shall resume when the Premises are redelivered to Lessee in a habitable condition. The Lessor shall not be liable for any damages or losses incurred by the Lessee as a result of the destroyed or damaged Premises

25. FIRE AND OTHER CASUALTY:

If during the term of this Lease, the apartment building which includes the Premises is damaged by fire, windstorm, or explosion or any other casualty as to require, in the sole judgment of the Lessor, substantial rebuilding or remodeling of a substantial part of such apartment building to be done, then the Lessor shall have the option of canceling this Lease, but in order to exercise this option, Lessor must give written notice of such cancellation not later than thirty (30) days after the loss or damage occurred. If the damage shall have occurred to the Premises and if the damage is of such a nature as to make the said Premises untenable, then either party shall have the right to cancel this Lease by giving written notice unto the other not later than ten (10) days after the damage occurs. If, under any of the circumstances herein above set forth, a right to cancel arises and the party entitled to exercise it gives the notice of cancellation herein above referred to, such notice shall itself specify that the Premises are untenable, shall be the date when it becomes untenable and which effective date. If the Premises shall itself not have been rendered untenable, cannot be sooner than thirty (30) days after the giving of such notice of cancellation. If a right to cancel this Lease arises under the circumstances herein above referred to and it is not exercised within the times herein above specified by any party entitled to exercise it, then it shall be the duty of the Lessor to repair the damage and restore the premises as quickly as possible; and for the period of time, if any, while the Premises are wholly untenable, rent shall abate on a pro rata year round basis; but in no event will the term of this Lease be extended. If, however, by reason of any of the provisions of this paragraph, the Lease is canceled, then rent shall be abated, prorated and rebated (if there be any prepaid rent) as of the date when the cancellation became effective or the Premises became wholly untenable, whichever is the earlier; and the method of effecting the proration shall be by computing the rent as though it accrued ratably throughout each day of each month of the year.

26. EMINENT DOMAIN:

If fifty percent (50%) or more of the Premises shall be taken or condemned in whole by any competent authority entitled to exercise the power of eminent domain, then and in that event, the within Lease shall cease and terminate as though it had been canceled pursuant to agreement of both parties on the day upon which delivery of possession, pursuant to such exercise of eminent domain, is required by the authority which exercised such power of eminent domain. If such taking pursuant to the exercise of the power of eminent domain extends to less than fifty percent (50%) of the Premises and if such taking does not directly affect the actual occupancy by the Lessee of the Premises, this Lease shall be unaffected by such taking. In the alternative, Landlord reserves the right to relocate Lessee to alternate vacant premises unaffected by the taking. In any event, Lessee waives any right to claim any award or compensation paid in connection with the exercise of the power of eminent domain and waives any claim against the Lessor based upon or asserted in connection with such taking pursuant to the exercise of the power of eminent domain.

27. SERVICES OF LESSOR:

It is expressly agreed that if the furnishing of any services shall cease by reason of force majeure, accident, strike, repairs, alterations, improvements to any part of the Premises, or any cause beyond the control of the Lessor, the repairs, alterations, improvements to any part of the Premises, or any cause beyond the control of the Lessor, the obligations of the Lessee under the terms of this Lease shall not be affected, nor shall any claim accrue to the Lessee.

No consent of Lessor to an assignment, mortgaging, or subletting shall release the Lessee from the obligations contained in the Lease. In the event of the assignment by Lessee for the benefit of Lessee's creditors or the adjudication of Lessee in bankruptcy either as a result of voluntary or involuntary petition, at Lessor's option the term of this Lease shall terminate upon thirty (30) days notice, and this Lease shall thereupon be canceled and become of no further force and effect. In no event shall Lessee advertise the Premises for rent or for subletting nor shall Lessee at any time whatsoever make use of any sign or notice that the Premises or any part thereof are available for rent or subletting without first having obtained Lessor's prior written consent, which may be arbitrarily withheld.
