8. Tenant shall pay for and obtain a certificate occupancy.

9. Landlord will pay all real estate taxes and special assessments charged against the premises. Tenant shall pay as additional rent to the landlord 50 percent of any tax increases levied against the premises over the base year of _____.

10. Hazardous substances. Tenant shall not cause or permit any hazardous substance to be used, stored, generated or disposed of on the premises. If hazardous substances are used, stored, generated or disposed of on or in the premises, or if the premises becomes contaminated in any manner for which tenant is legally liable, tenant shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the landlord from any and all claims, damages, fines, judgments, penalties, costs, liabilities or losses (including, without limitation, a decrease in value of the premises and any and all sums paid for settlement of claims, attorney's, consultant and expert fees) arising during or after the lease term and arising as result of such contamination by tenant. This indemnification includes, without limitation, any and all costs incurred because of any investigation of the site or any cleanup, removal or restoration mandated by a federal, state or local agency or political subdivision. In addition, if tenant causes or permits the presence of any hazardous substance on the premises and this results in contamination, tenant shall promptly, at his sole expense, take any and all necessary actions to return the premises to the condition existing before the presence of any such hazardous substance on the premises, provided, however, that tenant shall first obtain landlord's approval for any such remedial action. As used herein, "hazardous substance" means any substance which is toxic, ignitable, reactive or corrosive and which is regulated by any local government, the State of New York or the United States government. "Hazardous substance" includes any and all material or substances which are defined as "hazardous waste", "extremely hazardous waste" or a "hazardous substance", pursuant to state, federal or local government law. "Hazardous substance" includes, but is not restricted to, asbestos, polychlorinated biphenyls ("PCBs") and petroleum.

11. Tenant covenants and agrees that all alterations and/or improvements to the premises made by tenant shall comply with the Americans With Disabilities Act. Notwithstanding anything else contained in this lease, landlord at landlord's expense, shall be responsible for and agrees to comply with all obligations under the ADA which imposes any duty upon landlord or tenant with respect to the use, occupancy or alteration of the leased premises, building or project.

12. Landlord shall permit tenant to erect at no additional cost, a satellite dish on the roof of the building subject to compliance with all laws, codes, ordinances and regulations and subject to the location and manner of construction of the dish being approved by landlord and satisfactory to tenant. The diameter of the satellite dish will not exceed 18 inches. Landlord and tenant agree that the satellite dish shall remain the personal property of tenant and shall not become a fixture. All costs of erecting, maintaining, insuring and removing the dish, as well as repairs or restoration to the site of installation
