6. Because this is a partial renewal and the unit will remain occupied between lease terms, the unit Will be considered to be rented “as is” which means:
  - A. No inspection will be made of the premises when the current lease expires.
  - B. If there is any cleaning to be done, it will be the responsibility of the renewing / new residents.
  - C. No Painting will be done prior to the new lease commencement.
  - D. The renewing/new residents will assume full responsibility for any damages done to the unit during the current lease term, which have not been reported on the move in damage check list.
  - E. The renewing/new residents will assume responsibility for any outstanding balances on the account, which will be carried on to the next year’s lease.
  - F. This partial renewal agreement does not release any renewing and/or new resident from the obligation to complete all necessary cleaning at the time of move – out, nor does it release anyone from their obligation to fulfill all the necessary move – out procedures outlined in the lease document.

Note: - If new tenant(s) will be added to the renewal lease, it is the responsibility of the renewing tenants to inform them of the above procedures.
