

NAME

Lesson 11.1 End Marks

(pp. 217–218)

EXERCISE 1 Adding End Marks

Add the correct punctuation mark at the end of each sentence.

1. Many ancient people built fires to help sailors navigate long distances in dark and stormy conditions
2. Where is the oldest lighthouse in the world
3. The tallest lighthouse in the United States is on Hatteras Island in North Carolina
4. The Cape Hatteras Lighthouse is an incredibly amazing sight
5. I wonder if tourists can climb to the top

EXERCISE 2 Using Abbreviations

Write the abbreviation of each item.

- | | | | |
|------------|-------|----------------|-------|
| 1. January | _____ | 6. Post Office | _____ |
| 2. Company | _____ | 7. Avenue | _____ |
| 3. Road | _____ | 8. Wednesday | _____ |
| 4. Mister | _____ | 9. Doctor | _____ |
| 5. Junior | _____ | 10. Street | _____ |

EXERCISE 3 Correcting Sentences

Use the proofreading symbols to correct errors in the sentences below. If a sentence has no errors, write C.

Proofreading Symbols

- ^ Add.
 ○ Add a period.
 ✂ Delete.

EXAMPLE I wonder if Mrs. Smith's class built that model lighthouse?

1. Around 300 BC, the Lighthouse of Alexandria was built in Egypt.
2. I'm not sure if it was made out of stone or wood?
3. Please show me a picture of it.
4. Wow Do you think it was more than 500 feet tall?
5. L M Clark has written an article about the lighthouse!