Statutory declaration by a supporting witness relating to a partner visa application

Form

888

Important – Please read this information carefully before completing this statutory declaration. Once you have completed this declaration we strongly advise that you keep a copy for your records.

When assessing a Partner class visa application the Department of Immigration and Citizenship (the department) is required to consider the social aspects of the claimed relationship. Statements from persons who know you and your sponsor may be provided to support your claims.

The department's policy is that these statements be provided in the form of statutory declarations. This form is for this purpose. It is also the department's policy that the person completing this statutory declaration form:

- know both the Partner class visa applicant and their sponsor and the history of their relationship;
- be aged 18 years or over; and
- be an Australian citizen or Australian permanent resident.

Evidence of the person's Australian citizenship or Australian permanent resident status must be attached to this form (for example, a certified copy of the birth certificate, Australian passport or passport containing a permanent visa). Such evidence must show the current name of the person making the declaration.

A person completing this declaration may be required to submit up to 3 separate declarations during the processing of the application to remain permanently in Australia. They may be contacted by the department for further comment and interview in relation to the information given in this form.

Where there is insufficient space, please attach a separate sheet showing which questions the information refers to.

In Australia, statutory declarations must be witnessed by a person prescribed by the Statutory Declarations Act 1959 and Regulations. Any attachments to the Declaration must be certified by a prescribed person. Prescribed persons include those who are a:

- Justice of the Peace;
- medical practitioner;
- legal practitioner;
- civil marriage celebrant or registered minister of religion;
- dentist;
- nurse;
- optometrist;
- pharmacist;
- physiotherapist;
- full-time teacher;
- bank manager or bank officer with 5 or more continuous years of service;
- postal manager or permanent employee of the Australian Postal Commission with 5 or more continuous years of service;
- police officer; or
- public servant with 5 or more continuous years of service.

A full list of prescribed persons can be found in the Statutory Declarations Regulations 1993, which is available through the Attorney-General's Department website www.ag.gov.au/agd/WWW/agdhome.nsf/Page/Portfolio. A blank statutory declaration form is also available from the same website.

If you are outside Australia and are unable to get an Australian citizen or Australian permanent resident to complete a statutory declaration in support of your relationship with your partner, you may obtain statements from people who know you and your sponsor. Such statements are not statutory declarations under Australian law. However, in accordance with policy, they should be witnessed or certified according to the legal practices of the relevant country. Failing that, they should be witnessed by a person whose occupation or qualification is comparable to those listed above. This person should sign, date and specify their occupation at the bottom of the statement.

You should confirm the requirements with the nearest Australian mission overseas when you lodge your application. Contact details for Australian missions are available on the department's website

 Given names

For how many years have you known the applicant's partner? YEARS

3 State how you know the applicant and the applicant's sponsor, and indicate how often you have been in contact with them

Applicant is my wife's cousin and I met her after our wedding. I have visited their place a few times as a family. Now we visit them when we go to Bangladesh (every alternate year). Our family communicates regularly with her and her family over the phone and facebook.

I know the sponsor through our customary process of settle marriage. The applicant's family informed me to communicate with the sponsor and our communication started from there. I met him in Sydney and he also visited me in Canberra. We communicate to each other regularly.

If insufficient space, please attach additional details

4 State whether you believe the relationship of the applicant and his/her partner to be genuine and continuing, and give your reasons for your belief

I knew both of them before marriage and I am aware of their good relationship and better understanding. I talk to them regularly and communicate through facebook. I found they are in a good relationship and emotionally involved. They went through the proper marriage settlement process, followed all religious, cultural and regulatory steps. In Bangladeshi context our relation bond is very strong and such relations rarely get broken. Being both a professional and person of good manner, I hope this relationship will last long.
