(iii) Within the Account established under this Escrow Agreement, the Escrow

Agent shall maintain a separate sub-account ledger for each Beneficiary State sufficient to enable tracking of the principal amounts allocated to each of the Beneficiary States under this Escrow Agreement and all dates, purposes, and amount of deposits, withdrawals, or interest on each sub-account for each applicable Beneficiary State. The Escrow Agent may also maintain within the Account a separate sub-account for the benefit of the Company to which interest or appreciation on the principal (the "Interest Account") may be deposited.

(iv) Upon written notice from the Company, the Escrow Agent shall establish additional sub-accounts for additional Beneficiary States which shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

(e) The Company shall receive the interest or other appreciation on the funds deposited pursuant to Section 3 as earned. (f) The funds deposited pursuant to Section 3 shall be released from the applicable Beneficiary State's sub-account only under the following circumstances:

(i) To pay a judgment or settlement on any Released Claim brought against the Company by the applicable Beneficiary State or by any Releasing Party located or residing in the applicable Beneficiary State. Promptly after receiving a written request for release of funds under this subsection and prior to any such release, the Escrow Agent shall provide written notice to the Company, to the Releasing Party, and to the Attorney General or Attorney General's Designee of the applicable Beneficiary State as set forth and defined in Section 13 herein. The notice shall specify in reasonable detail the amount of the funds to be released, the payee and the basis for the requested release (which shall be provided to the

The Company and the Attorney General or Attorney General's Designee of the applicable Beneficiary State as set forth in Section 13 whose sub-account would be reduced by the release of funds shall provide a written response to the Escrow Agent with copies to each other, within thirty (30) calendar days from the date of receipt of this notice. Should the Company or the applicable Beneficiary State timely object in writing to a requested release of funds under this subsection, the Escrow Agent shall not authorize the requested release of funds until such objection has been finally resolved. If no objection is received, the Escrow Agent shall pay the Released Claim after the expiration of the thirty (30) calendar day period. Funds shall be released from escrow from the sub-account of the applicable Beneficiary State under this subsection (A) in the order in which they were placed into the applicable Beneficiary State's sub-account escrow and (B) only to the extent and at the time necessary to make payments required under such judgment or settlement; or

(ii) To the extent that the Company establishes, pursuant to subsection 3(g), that the amount it was required to place into escrow in a particular year for the applicable Beneficiary State was, depending on the law of such Beneficiary State, greater than either (A) that State's Allocable Share of the total payments that the Company would have been required to make in that year had it been a Participating Manufacturer under the Master Settlement Agreement (as determined pursuant to Section IX(i)(2) of the Master Settlement Agreement, and before any of the adjustments or offsets described in Section IX(i)(3) of that Agreement other than the Inflation Adjustment); or (B) the Master Settlement Agreement payments, as determined pursuant to Section IX(I) of that Agreement including after final determination of all adjustments, that the Company would have been required to make on account of such Units Sold in the Beneficiary State had it been a Participating Manufacturer under the Master Settlement Agreement (in either case the difference being referred to herein as the “Excess Amount”), such Excess Amount shall be released and revert back to the Company. To the extent established, the Escrow Agent shall pay the Excess Amount to the Company upon the joint written instructions of the Company and the Attorney General or Attorney General’s Designee of the applicable Beneficiary State as set forth in Section 13 or upon entry of a final binding, non-appealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction handling such matter after any appeal or any right of appeal has been exhausted; or

(iii) To the extent not released from escrow under subsections (i), or (ii), funds shall be released from escrow and revert back to the Company twenty-five (25) years after the date on which the applicable annual installments thereof were placed into escrow. The Escrow Agent shall notify in writing the applicable Beneficiary State of the release of such State’s funds at least thirty (30) days prior to the proposed date of such release of funds.

(g) In connection with the release from escrow provided for in subsection 3(f)(ii) of this Escrow Agreement, the Company shall submit in writing to the Attorney General for the applicable Beneficiary State the Company’s calculation establishing the Excess Amount. If the applicable Beneficiary State and the Company cannot agree on the existence of an Excess Amount, or the calculation of the Excess Amount, the dispute shall be resolved in a court of competent jurisdiction located in the applicable Beneficiary State, or if the laws of any Beneficiary State so require, then under the applicable Administrative Procedures Act of that Beneficiary State.

(h) When the Company has made the first deposit into a Qualified Escrow Fund for the benefit of a Beneficiary State, the Escrow Agent shall notify the Attorney General of the applicable Beneficiary State that the Qualified Escrow Fund has been established, and provide to the Beneficiary State a copy of this Escrow Agreement along with all relevant instructions from the Company and the amount of the deposit made for the Beneficiary State. Thereafter, at any time upon the request of the applicable Beneficiary State and in any event on an annual basis by April 30 of each year, the Escrow Agent shall provide written information to each Beneficiary State on the amount of deposits and withdrawals made by the Company for the applicable Beneficiary State's benefit under the Escrow Agreement including the identity of the payor(s) or payee(s), and the date(s), purpose, and dollar amount(s) of any deposits and withdrawals.

(i) All amounts credited to an Account or sub-account, except for interest accrued on the funds which shall be payable to the Company as earned, shall be retained in such Account or sub-account, until disbursed therefrom in accordance with the provisions of this Escrow Agreement pursuant to subsections 3(e), 3(f), or Section 8.

(j) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Escrow Agent shall not be authorized to make distributions for any particular Released Claims in excess of the principal amount held hereunder for the benefit of the applicable Beneficiary State making the claim (or the Beneficiary State in which the Releasing Party making the claim is located or resides). The Escrow Agent is prohibited from: (i) exercising set-off, recoupment, or any other claim or right against any of the principal funds escrowed pursuant to this Escrow Agreement; or (ii) accessing, or allowing the Company to access, the Account or sub-account of one Beneficiary State to remove or transfer funds to the Account or sub-account of another

Beneficiary State without the written consent of the Company and the Attorneys General of all Beneficiary States involved in the request for transfer of funds; provided however, that nothing contained herein shall prohibit the release or transfer of any funds from the Company's Interest Account to another Account or sub-account upon written direction of the Company.

SECTION 4. Failure of Escrow Agent to Receive Instructions.

Except as to responses or objections to notice of a request for payment on any Released Claim, which shall be governed by subsection 3(f)(i), in the event that the Escrow Agent fails to receive any written instructions contemplated by this Escrow Agreement, the Escrow Agent shall refrain from taking any action required to be taken under any section of this Escrow Agreement pursuant to written instructions until such written instructions are received by the Escrow Agent. In so refraining, the Escrow Agent shall be fully protected from any liability arising out of its inaction.

SECTION 5. Investment of Funds by the Escrow Agent.

In choosing among the investment options described in clauses (a) through (e) above, the Escrow Agent shall comply with any written instructions received from time to time from the Company if mutually agreed upon by Escrow Agent and Company. In the absence of such written instructions or mutual agreement on such instructions, the Escrow Agent shall invest such sums in accordance with clause (a) above.

SECTION 6. Duties and Liabilities of Escrow Agent.

The Escrow Agent shall have no duty or obligation hereunder other than to take such specific actions as are required of it from time to time by the provisions of this Escrow Agreement and it shall incur no liability hereunder or in connection herewith for anything whatsoever other than any liability resulting from its own gross negligence or willful misconduct or unlawful acts or omissions.
