How It Works

Your contribution is to the Razoo Foundation donor-advised fund (Tax ID 27-2499903), intended for the benefit of the charity you indicated. The Foundation makes every reasonable effort to respect the wishes of its donors. However, to comply with federal tax laws and Internal Revenue Service regulations, the Foundation must retain the exclusive authority, discretion, and legal control over all donated funds. In the rare event that the charity you have advised does not satisfy our criteria or otherwise enable us to pay them (reasons for this include issues like: they don't or cannot accept donations, are not recognized by the IRS as a public charity, or are not in good standing with federal or state regulators, etc.), we may select an alternate charity to receive your donation funds. In 2012, we successfully re-granted over 99.94% of donations to their intended recipient, so this doesn't happen very often.

Razoo Foundation's standard practice is to regrant 95.1% of a donor-advised contribution to a qualifying tax-exempt entity and/or cause advised by the donor, and to retain 4.9% for Razoo Foundation's expenses (including credit card transaction costs). Razoo Foundation and Idaho Nonprofit Center have agreed to withhold an additional 2%, a total of 6.9%, and regrant 93.1% of donations made on IdahoGives.Razoo.com to cover campaign costs.

Razoo Foundation's distributions to or for the benefit of your advised charity and/or purpose must not be used for the personal benefit of you, any other donor advisor, or any other purpose conferring impermissible private benefit. For the full story, please see our terms of use.

Happy giving!
