TESTING POLICIES

- The eligibility requirements for a specific level of testing must be met. This includes providing all the supporting documents required for the application.
- Candidates must normally sit within ten weeks of being contacted to schedule a test date.
- A test fee must be paid each time a candidate sits a test.
- All test materials are and remain at all times the property of NAATI.
- NAATI provides each candidate with the test material for the sole purpose of taking the test, and on the condition that the test material is returned immediately upon the conclusion of the test
- If test fees are paid for by an organisation or sponsor NAATI will provide, if requested, information to that third party about the outcome of the test.
- During the test, candidates must follow the instructions given by the Test Supervisor and the guidelines set out in the General Instructions provided to test candidates with the formal letter of confirmation of the test date and time. Failure to do so may result in the test being invalidated.
- NAATI reserves the right to conduct an alternative test if for any reason it is not satisfied with the original test conditions or processes.
- NAATI does not release copies of test materials or copies of candidate responses to those test materials.
- In accordance with the concept of confidentiality within the code of ethics for the translation and interpreting profession a candidate must not disclose the contents of the test to any party.
- All candidate translation test scripts and interpreter test recordings are retained by NAATI for nine months.
- NAATI is not an "agency" as defined in the Freedom of Information Act. The Act also provides exemption for all examination materials.

TEST RESCHEDULING

Candidates who have received notification of their test date and time but need to reschedule an alternative appointment must contact NAATI in writing seeking consideration of their request. The written request must be received no less than one week after receipt of the test confirmation letter notifying the candidate of the date, time and location of the test.

A request for rescheduling received more than one week after receipt of the test confirmation letter may not be accommodated. Rescheduling will only be considered where there is a valid reason for the request (such as illness). Candidates may be asked to submit proof of such consideration when asking to change the scheduled test date.

Please note that:

1. Once a candidate has submitted an application for a test and payment has been taken the candidate cannot transfer the test venue. If a candidate wishes to change test venue the candidate must withdraw the current application and submit a new application for the new test venue (Cancellation fees will apply).
2. No test date can be confirmed by any office other than the office where the test is to be sat.
3. If a candidate wishes to transfer from a translator test to an interpreter test or vice versa then the candidate is required to withdraw from the first test application and reapply for the new test - by completing a new application form (Cancellation fees apply).
4. If a candidate requests to transfer from a Professional Interpreter to Paraprofessional Interpreter test the candidate must put their request in writing (NAATI may refund the difference if the request is received prior to confirmation of the test date).
5. If a candidate wishes to transfer a Professional Translator test to the other direction, a request must be received in writing (no Cancellation fees apply). However, for the purposes of scheduling the new test date, it is considered that the candidate has cancelled the original test and reapplied for a new test. This may mean for Chinese Professional Translator tests a candidate cannot sit in the session in which the original test was scheduled if there are other candidates already wait-listed for that session.

A non-refundable rescheduling fee will apply every time a test is rescheduled (see Forms & Fees section of NAATI website).

ILLNESS AND SITTING A NAATI TEST

Candidates who decide to sit for a NAATI test despite being ill must understand that their test will be marked on the same basis as for any other candidate.

NAATI may reschedule a test if provided with a medical certificate indicating the candidate is or was not well enough to sit on the scheduled date and covering the period when the candidate will not be medically fit to sit the test.

WITHDRAWING FROM A NAATI TEST

NAATI will consider each case for withdrawal on its merits. There are some circumstances, such as verifiable medical reasons, where NAATI may consider a full refund of a test fee. However in the absence of such circumstances NAATI will apply a cancellation fee (see Forms & Fees section of NAATI website).

- a) The Application fee paid is non-refundable.
- b) All requests for a refund of the test fee must be made to NAATI in writing with evidence supporting any claims made.
